ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

My research work on the map history of Persia started in earnest two decades ago and resulted in producing General Maps of Persia in 2005 and Special Maps of Persia in 2010. Those individuals and institutions assisted me during the fifteen years of my cartographic investigations have been acknowledged in General Maps of Persia, and there is no need to repeat their names for the effect of their help on the present volume. There are, however, some who continued to advise and support me in different ways during the past five years to whom I am particularly obliged: Francis Herbert (former Curator of Maps, RGS-IBG) for his invaluable editorial help, and also Susan Gole for her editorial assistance; Peter Barber (Head of Map Collections, BL), Andrew Cook (Map Archivist, India Office Records, BL), Rose Mitchell (Map Archivist, TNA, England) and Hélèn Richard (former Head of Départment des Cartes et Plans, BNF, Paris) for their expert advice and help.

I am also most grateful to many individuals and institutions for their general support and encouragements during the past five years, particularly to: Association of Friends of Persian Culture, Chicago; Tony Campbell (former Map Librarian, BL); John Hébert (Chief of the Geography and Map Division, Library of Congress, Washington D.C.); Hubert Johnson (Washington Map Society); Uta Lindgren (former Professor, University of Bayreuth, Germany); Jalal Matini (former Professor of Ferdowsi University, Mash-had, Iran, and editor of Iranphenasi, Washington D.C.); Shapur Rassekh (former Professor, Tehran University); Freydun Vahman (former Professor for Iranian Studies, University of Copenhagen), and Ehsan Yarshater (former Professor for Iranian Studies, Columbia University, New York, and Chief Editor of the Encyclopaedia Iranica).

I would like to express my special gratitude to Dr. Ebadollah Bahari and to my publisher BRILL for their irreplaceable support in producing this volume.

I remain also deeply indebted to my wife Fariba for her continuous and wholehearted encouragement during the past five years it had taken to finish Special Maps of Persia.

The continued generous financial support of

is greatly appreciated.
