ILLUSTRATIONS

Frontispiece: typical antipodean fantasies, from Hartmann Schedel’s Nuremberg Chronicle (1493); Dogheads, Cyclopes, Blemmyae, Sciapods, Antipodeans, giant birds.

1. Map of Australasia by R. Vaugondy, based on Tasman’s 1642 voyage, in the Histoire des navigations aux terres australes (1756) by Charles de Brosses. 20

3. “A Gawry Extended for Flight”: copperplate engraving by Louis-Philippe Boitard, from Peter Wilkins (1751). 80

4. “A Glumm Swiming” [sic]: Boitard illustration, Peter Wilkins. 81

5. Youwarkee retrieving Peter Wilkins’s sea-chest: a copperplate engraving in the 1783 edition of Peter Wilkins, drawn by Thomas Stothard and executed by Birrell. 82

6. Peter Wilkins being transported by Glumms: another Stothard illustration, engraved by Angus. 83

7. John Daniel: title-page (1751) and a portrait of Calipse. 84

8. John Daniel: the flying-machine Eagle. 85

9. “Nasgigs Engagement with Harlokins General”: a battle-scene from Peter Wilkins, a Boitard engraving. 109

10. Victorin “stealing away” from Mont-Inaccessible, in La Découverte Australe, an engraving probably by Binet. 159

11. A Complete Map of the Southern Continent; engraving by Emanuel Bowen (copied from Thévenot), in John Campbell’s Navigantium [...] Bibliotheca (1744); by kind permission of Günter Schilder (Australia Unveiled, 1976). 160

12. La Découverte Australe: the Wedding of Ichmichstris and the Elder Son. 161

13. La Découverte Australe: gifts of bread at Dog Island. 162

14. Hildebrand Bowman being carried off by an Alae-Puta in the land of Luxo-volupto. 163

15. Hildebrand Bowman and a Taupinieran, an engraving purportedly made by the author. 164

اقة