THE INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE ON THE FORMER YUGOSLAVIA

* Initiated the highly-successful preventive deployment of peacekeeping forces in the Former Yugoslav Republic of Macedonia - the first-ever preventive deployment of United Nations peacekeeping forces.

* Established and operated the International Monitoring Mission along the Drina River for over eighteen months. This key stabilisation regime has had a staffing of over 500 persons.

* Negotiated the withdrawal of the Yugoslav National Army from the Prevlaka Peninsula, and thus avoided further conflict between Croatia and the Former Republic of Yugoslavia in the fall of 1992.

* Negotiated the de-mining of the Peruca Dam which, in the fall of 1992, threatened several communities in the vicinity of the Dam in Croatia.

* Initiated the excavation of the only mass-grave site dug up to date: that at Ovcara near Vukovar. Worked for an international penal tribunal.

* Negotiated the March 29, 1994 Cease-fire Agreement in Croatia.

* Negotiated the December 2, 1994 Economic Agreement in Croatia that led to the re-opening of the Zagreb-Belgrade Highway.

* Negotiated the settlement of the highly-dangerous problem of Sector East in Croatia.

* Did the groundwork negotiations that laid the basis for the Dayton/Paris accords on Bosnia-Herzegovina. Two earlier agreements negotiated by the International Conference on the Former Yugoslavia in 1993 were first accepted by the parties and subsequently repudiated by one side and then another.
* Drafted in 1993 the treaty that was eventually signed by Greece and the Former Yugoslav Republic of Macedonia to settle their dispute.

* Mediated highly dangerous inter-ethnic problems in the Former Yugoslav Republic of Macedonia, organized, helped raise funds and arranged for international monitoring of the crucial national population census, provided good offices for its national elections, and generated international assistance for a multi-ethnic media to promote inter-ethnic harmony.

* Provided good offices for dealing with problems affecting other ethnic communities, nationalities or minorities in the whole of the former Yugoslavia.

* Drafted a treaty on succession issues which is awaiting finalisation among the successor republics.

* Initiated studies on future confidence-building measures in the former Yugoslavia.

* Initiated studies on future development cooperation in the former Yugoslavia.

* THUS CONTRIBUTING TO CONFLICT PREVENTION, PEACEMAKING, PEACEKEEPING, PEACE-BUILDING, HUMANITARIAN AND HUMAN RIGHTS EFFORTS IN THE FORMER YUGOSLAVIA FOR A PERIOD OF THREE AND A HALF YEARS

* For a year (1993), the UN Co-Chairman of the International Conference on the Former Yugoslavia also, as Special Representative of the UN Secretary-General, led all peacekeeping, humanitarian and other operations of the United Nations in the former Yugoslavia.

*****