Open Source Peer Review

The Yearbook is an internationally-refereed publication distributed electronically and without charge on the various academic websites and open source platforms.

Contributions to the Yearbook

The Yearbook invites contributions in the form of:

- Articles of 6,000 words or more, on topics of public or private international law, either with special reference to Asia or of general relevance.
- Shorter articles and comments.
- Notes for the Developments section containing succinct critical analysis of international legal developments relevant to Asia of between 2,000 and 4,000 words generally.
- Translated versions of articles originally written in a language other than English.
- Materials in the field of municipal or international state practice of Asian states and organizations, with relevance to international law
- Information on literature and documents concerning international law in Asia or concerning international law in general and published or issued in Asia.

All contributors of articles will receive 15 offprints free of charge. Contributors of other materials will receive 10 offprints of the section of the Yearbook in which their materials are published.

All submissions shall be sent to either of the two addresses listed above in any version of Microsoft Word with a .doc or .docx extension.
