BIBLIOGRAPHY FOR ASIAN YEARBOOK OF INTERNATIONAL LAW*

Editorial introduction

Except for a few minor modifications this bibliography follows our usual format: it provides information on books, articles and other materials dealing with Asian topics and, in exceptional cases, it includes other publications considered of interest. Only English language publications are referred to.

In the preparation of this bibliography good use has been made of book review sections in established professional journals of international law, Asian studies and international affairs. Special mention should be made of the bibliography on Public International Law published by the Max Planck Institute for Comparative Public Law and International Law at Heidelberg, Germany, and of the regular list of acquisitions of the Peace Palace Library in The Hague, The Netherlands.

The headings used in this year's bibliography are:

1. General
2. States and groups of states
3. Territory and jurisdiction
4. Sea, rivers and water-resources
5. Air and space
6. Environment
7. International conflict and disputes
8. War, peace and neutrality, armed conflict and peace-keeping
9. International criminal law
10. Peaceful settlement of international disputes
11. Diplomatic and consular relations
12. Individuals, groups of persons – human rights
13. Decolonization and self-determination
14. International economic relations
15. Development
16. Information and communication
17. United Nations and other international/regional organizations.
