Contributions to the Yearbook

The Yearbook invites contributions in the form of:

- articles (5,000 words or more) on topics of public or private international law, either with special reference to Asia or of general relevance;
- (shorter) notes and comments;
- translated versions of articles originally written in a language other than English;
- materials in the field of municipal or international state practice of Asian states and organizations, with relevance to international law;
- data on events and incidents relating to Asia and Asian countries and with relevance to international law and relations;
- information on literature and documents (in any language) either concerning international law in Asia or concerning international law in general and published or issued in Asia.

Contributors of articles and notes will receive 25 offprints free of charge. Contributors of other materials will receive 10 offprints of the section of the Yearbook in which their materials are included.

Submission of manuscripts and other materials

The regular schedule of the Yearbook provides for publication in June of each year.

Submission of a manuscript should be accompanied by information whether it has been published, submitted, or accepted elsewhere, and whether it is a translation.

Submission of manuscripts implies the readiness to consider editorial suggestions for change and, as the case may be, to introduce revisions. It also implies the author's agreement with linguistic revision by native speakers so far as these services are available to the Editors.

Authors are requested to have their manuscript processed by Word under Windows 95 or higher on a PC and saved as a Word (6/95 or 7/95) file, and to submit their manuscript (1) by mail on a 3.5" disk or (2) by e-mail, as an attached file. Additional hard copies are optional though much appreciated.
