SATA INTERNATIONAL LAW PRIZE 2007
OF
THE ASIAN YEARBOOK OF INTERNATIONAL LAW

The Asian Yearbook of International Law is pleased to invite the submission of original essays of excellent quality written by young scholars of Asian nationality residing anywhere in the world on a topic of public or private international law for consideration of the award of the Sata International Law Prize of 2007. The value of the Prize is US$2,000 and is named after Mr. Sata Yasuhiko of Tokibo Ltd., Japan, whose generous gift has made it possible to establish this annual Prize.

The winning essay will be published in the Asian Yearbook of International Law. Participants must not be over the age of 40 years on the submission date. Each essay should be accompanied by the curriculum vitae of the author. Essays must be written in English, and the length should be between 8,000 and 14,000 words excluding footnotes.

The Editors of the Yearbook will determine the winning essay and notify the competitors of the results not later than 31 October 2007. The decisions taken by the Editors will be final. Essays for the Sata 2007 Prize must be received by the Editors of the Yearbook not later than 31 July 2007 by any of the following General Editors at the following addresses
