In the above-mentioned article, the sentence on page 95, line 3 reading:

We can also speculate that at least two of these four events may be related with getting access to the experimental apparatus: in events C and D, one male was standing on and interacting with the box when another one approached.
