Note from the Editor

External Peer Review

From the next year, all manuscripts submitted to the European Journal of Health Law will be submitted to an external peer review. In this way the editors aim to stimulate researchers and students over Europe to submit the results of their scientific research to this Journal and to guarantee its high scientific quality.

For this purpose, two important developments have taken place.

First, Tom Goffin, Professor in Health Law at Ghent University (Ghent, Belgium) has joined the editorial team as Managing Editor.

Second the membership of the Editorial Board has been thoroughly revised and is now composed as follows: Henriette Sinding Aasen (University of Bergen, Bergen, Norway); Edward Dove (University of Edinburgh, Edinburgh, UK); Anne-Marie Duguet (Toulouse 3 Paul Sabatier University, Toulouse, France); Brenda Frederiks (UMC Amsterdam, Amsterdam, The Netherlands); Marcus Frischhut (MCI/The Entrepreneurial School, Innsbruck, Austria); Janne Rothman Herrmann (University of Copenhagen, Copenhagen, Denmark); Graeme Laurie (University of Edinburgh, Edinburgh, UK); Deirdre Madden (University College Cork, Cork, Ireland); Stefania Negri (University of Salerno, Salerno, Italy); Katharina Ó Cathaoir (University of Copenhagen, Copenhagen, Denmark); Vera Lucia Raposo (University of Coimbra, Coimbra, Portugal) and Lena Wahlberg (Lund University, Lund, Sweden).

We wish the Managing Editor and the members of the Editorial Board a warm welcome.

We also thank the former members of the Editorial Board for their advices and support and in particular Sjef Gevers, Professor Emeritus of Health Law, University of Amsterdam (Amsterdam, The Netherlands), Founding Editor, former Editor-in-Chief and from now on Honorary Member of the Editorial Board.
