Editor's Preface

This issue of our journal offers three articles covering quite different aspects of Erasmus' life and work as well as a special lecture delivered by Nicolette Mout on the occasion of the publication of the 50th volume of ASD last January, 2018. We have several announcements to make. On Saturday October 19, our friend and colleague Reinier Leushuis will deliver the 2019 Roland Bainton Lecture at the annual meeting of the Sixteenth Century Society and Conference (SCSC), in St. Louis, Missouri. The lecture will start at 5:30 PM in room Regency C of the Hyatt Regency hotel. If you are in the vicinity, please join us for the Bainton Lecture. Next year, the society will host two panels as well as the annual Margaret Mann Phillips Lecture at the annual meeting of the Renaissance Society of America (RSA) in Philadelphia. William Barker will give the MMP Lecture on "The Gifts of Erasmus" on Friday April 3 at 4 PM somewhere in the Marriott hotel. We will also sponsor a special session in memory of Clarence Miller, who made many valiant contributions to the study of Erasmus over the long course of his honorable career.
