

BRILL

RELIGION AND GENDER 11 (2021) 265–267

brill.com/rag

Contents

VOLUME 11, NO. 1

INTRODUCTION

Looking Back and Moving Forward: The 10th Anniversary of Religion and Gender 1

Anne-Marie Korte and Nella van den Brandt

ARTICLES

“... as the young girl told them so”: Women and Old Calendarism in Interwar Romania 15

Iuliana Cindrea-Nagy

Christianity, Coloniality, and Social Change: Everyday Ethics of the Two YWCAs of South Africa 39

Eleanor Tiplady Higgs

REFLECTIONS

The Queer-Postcolonial Turn: Spiritualising Gender Studies and Gendering Religious Studies 63

Sharon A. Bong

The Legacy of ‘Gender Ideology’: Anti-Trans Legislation and Conservative Christianity’s Ongoing Influence on U.S. Law 67

S.J. Crasnow

Towards New Research Agendas in Latin America in Times of the Green Tide 72

Karina Felitti

Broadening Horizons: Hindu and Jain Texts and Debates on Gender Fluidity and Gender Hybridity 78

Veena R. Howard

Reflections on the Promise and Challenge of Interdisciplinary Research on Gender and Religion 85

Courtney Ann Irby

The Study of Religion and Gender in the Time of Planetary Ecological Crisis and Pandemic 89

Andrea R. Jain

Spiritual Activism, Pedagogies of the Sacred, and Social Change: Ontological Invitations for Transformation 94

AnaLouise Keating

The Violence of Essentialism 99

Abeera Khan

Beyond Anti-genderism: Gender, Sexuality and Religion in Eastern Europe 105

Olga Sasunkevich

The “Other” Muslim: Spatial-Temporal Cartographies of the Gendered Muslim World 113

Sanobar Umar

Towards an “Un-disciplined” Study of Muslim Women, Gender, Religion, and the Secular 121

Kathrine van den Bogert

Men, Masculinities, and Religion 127

Margaretha A. van Es

Religion, Gender and the Pluriversity: Creative Imaginations 130

Adriaan van Klinken

Reflections on Religion and Gender 134

Elina Vuola

Religious Feminism(s) and Beyond: Reflections on Politics of Change and Knowledge Production 137

Tanya Zion-Waldoks

BOOK REVIEWS

Caroline Starkey, Women in British Buddhism: Commitment, Connection, Community 145

Seán Henry

Kristien Suenens, Humble Women, Powerful Nuns: A Female Struggle for Autonomy in a Men’s Church 148

Eline Huygens

VOLUME 11, NO. 2INTRODUCTION*Religion, Gender and Violence 151*Kathleen McPhillips and Sarah-Jane PageARTICLES*Productive Bodies, Docile Women and Violence: Exploring ‘Respectable Work’ as Physical Abuse within Ireland’s Magdalene Laundries 167*Chloë K. GottMutual Flourishing? Women Priests and Symbolic Violence in the Church of England 192*Sharon JaggerRethinking Complementarianism: Sydney Anglicans, Orthodoxy and Gendered Inequality 218*Rosie Clare ShorterConservative Christianity and Intimate Partner Violence in Brazil: Using Feminism to Question Patriarchal Interpretations of Religion 245*Kim Beecheno*