

BRILL
NIJHOFF

CLIMATE LAW 14 (2024) 317–318

brill.com/cla

Contents

VOLUME 14, NO. 1

RESEARCH ARTICLES

A Critical Feminist Evaluation of Climate Adaptation Law and Policy:
The Case of Aotearoa New Zealand 1

Elizabeth Macpherson, Annick Masselot, David Jefferson, and Julia Gunn

Indonesia's Just Energy Transition: The Societal Implications of Policy and Legislation on Renewable Energy 36

Laely Nurhidayah, Shawkat Alam, Nurrahman Aji Utomo, and Agus Suntoro

Navigating Mangrove Protection: A Jurisdictional Approach to Climate Action in South Sumatra, Indonesia 67

Edwin Martin, Nur Arifatul Ulya, Syafrul Yunardy, Karlin Agustina, Dewi Meidalima, and Chuzaimah Chuzaimah

Taking Stock of the Scholarship on the Relationship between International Investment Law and the Need for Raised Climate Ambition 95

Jenny Hall and Louis Koen

VOLUME 14, NO. 2

EDITORIAL

Fact and Fiction in the Dubai COP's Decision on Fossil Fuels 127

Alexander Zahar

RESEARCH ARTICLES

Common Concern of Humankind and Its Legal Consequences for Climate Stability 135

Didac Amat-i-Puigsech

Conceptualizing Climate Law in India 165

Shashi Kant Yadav, Noreen O'Meara and Rosalind Malcolm

Climate Change and India's Cities: Judicial Responses through the Lens of Sustainability Transformations 198

Gitanjali Nain Gill

VOLUME 14, NOS. 3-4

RESEARCH ARTICLE

A Survey of Climate Change Law in the United Kingdom 233

Thomas L. Muinzer

CURRENT LEGAL DEVELOPMENTS

Verein KlimaSeniorinnen Schweiz and Others v. Switzerland*: the European Court of Human Rights' Answer to Climate Change 263

Andreas Hösli and Meret Rehmman

With Swiss Seniors the Climate-Litigation Movement Chalks up Another Hollow Victory 285

Alexander Zahar