Celebrating (over) 100 Volumes in the Studies in Critical Social Sciences Book Series
Modern capitalism began the 21st century seemingly victorious as the dominant social and economic organizing principle in the world. Rampant re- and de-regulation accompanied a wholesale attack on social, economic and political gains of the prior century under the guise of increasing competitiveness and the need to respond to the forces of globalization. The end of the cold war, the decline of the former Soviet Union, and the increasing foothold of capitalism in China all point to an unchallenged reorientation of the global political economy to reflect this ascendance of capitalist social relations.

The peer-reviewed Studies in Critical Social Sciences book series, through the publication of original manuscripts and edited volumes, offers insights into the current reality by exploring the content and consequence of power relationships under capitalism, by considering the spaces of opposition and resistance to these changes, and by articulating capitalism with other systems of power and domination - for example race, gender, culture - that have been defining our new age.

Studies in Critical Social Science includes the subseries Studies in Critical Research on Religion (brill.com/scr) and Critical Global Studies (brill.com/cgs). The series have independent editorial teams that work closely together.

Authors are cordially invited to submit proposals and/or full manuscripts to either the series editor David Fasenfest (critical.sociology@gmail.com), the publisher Jason Prevost (prevost@brill.com), or by mail to Brill, Attn: Rosanna Woensdregt, P.O. Box 9000, 2300 PA Leiden, The Netherlands.
In Criminology and Marxism: A History of Criminal Selectivity, Valeria Vegh Weis rehabilitates the contributions and the methodology of Marx and Engels to analyse crime and punishment through capitalism (19th century to the present) in Europe and the United States.

READERSHIP: All interested in Criminology, Criminal Law, Sociology of Law, History of Punishment, Marxism and the Law, and the criminal justice system in Europe and the United States.

Valeria Vegh Weis, New York University, Buenos Aires University, Quilmes University, Argentinean Policeman University

Marxist Class Theory for a Skeptical World

Raju J Das, York University

In Marxist Class Theory for a Skeptical World is a critique of Analytical Marxist and Post-structuralist Marxist theories of class, and offers an alternative approach rooted in the ideas of Marx and Engels, as well as Lenin and Trotsky.

READERSHIP: All interested in class, inequality, capitalism, Marxist theory, state theory, the working class issues, labour geography/sociology/history.

The reviews, review essays and essays collected in this book examine the shift of development studies debate about labour markets and identity from the Third World to how they affect metropolitan capitalist nations.

READERSHIP: Undergraduate, postgraduate and academic researchers with an interest in agrarian issues, labour conditions, development studies, and political economy.

Valeria Vegh Weis rehabilitates, as well as Lenin and Trotsky.

The ideas of Marx and Engels, and offers an alternative approach rooted in the ideas of Marx and Engels, as well as Lenin and Trotsky.

The reviews, review essays and essays collected in this book examine the shift of development studies debate about labour markets and identity from the Third World to how they affect metropolitan capitalist nations.

READERSHIP: Undergraduate, postgraduate and academic researchers with an interest in agrarian issues, labour conditions, development studies, and political economy.

Labour Markets, Identities, Controversies Reviews and Essays, 1982-2016

Tom Brass

Raju J Das, York University

The reviews, review essays and essays collected in this book examine the shift of development studies debate about labour markets and identity from the Third World to how they affect metropolitan capitalist nations.

READERSHIP: Undergraduate, postgraduate and academic researchers with an interest in agrarian issues, labour conditions, development studies, and political economy.

Labour Markets, Identities, Controversies Reviews and Essays, 1982-2016

Tom Brass

Valeria Vegh Weis rehabilitates, as well as Lenin and Trotsky.

The ideas of Marx and Engels, and offers an alternative approach rooted in the ideas of Marx and Engels, as well as Lenin and Trotsky.

The reviews, review essays and essays collected in this book examine the shift of development studies debate about labour markets and identity from the Third World to how they affect metropolitan capitalist nations.

READERSHIP: Undergraduate, postgraduate and academic researchers with an interest in agrarian issues, labour conditions, development studies, and political economy.

Labour Markets, Identities, Controversies Reviews and Essays, 1982-2016

Tom Brass

Fresh insights into the actual meaning of ‘private’ in different higher education contexts, getting beneath the surface of easy labels to provide a deeper understanding of the actual effects of global policies in local contexts through ethnographies.

READERSHIP: Social scientists interested in ethnographic analyses of private universities, and anyone concerned with the layering of public and private in the contemporary world.

Rethinking Private Higher Education Ethnographic Perspectives

Edited by Daniele Cantini, University of Halle, Germany

Brad Bauerly

This study is an investigation into US political development as it emerged to deal with agrarian resistance to the transition to capitalism and agro-industrial development.

READERSHIP: All interested in American political development, the transition to capitalism, social movements, food regimes, international political economy, state theory, and food system research.

Critique of Rationality Judgement and Creativity from Benjamin to Merleau-Ponty

John Eustice O’Brien

Drawing on Walter Benjamin’s doctoral thesis on the Early German Romantics and Maurice Merleau-Ponty’s apperceptive phenomenology, John Eustice O’Brien proposes an original epistemology the proектив energy of aesthetic consciousness of human being in the social world.

READERSHIP: All interested in the question of rational judgment for research, politics and culture: institutes, laboratories, policy centers, NGOs; etc.

Brad Bauerly

This study is an investigation into US political development as it emerged to deal with agrarian resistance to the transition to capitalism and agro-industrial development.

READERSHIP: All interested in American political development, the transition to capitalism, social movements, food regimes, international political economy, state theory, and food system research.

Critique of Rationality Judgement and Creativity from Benjamin to Merleau-Ponty

John Eustice O’Brien

Drawing on Walter Benjamin’s doctoral thesis on the Early German Romantics and Maurice Merleau-Ponty’s apperceptive phenomenology, John Eustice O’Brien proposes an original epistemology the proектив energy of aesthetic consciousness of human being in the social world.

READERSHIP: All interested in the question of rational judgment for research, politics and culture: institutes, laboratories, policy centers, NGOs; etc.
Islam in a Post-Secular Society
Religion, Secularity and the Antagonism of Recalcitrant Faith
Dustin J. Byrd, Olivet College, MI

Islam in the Post-Secular Society offers an interpretation of the struggles that Muslims face within secular western society, and attempts to find a path for a future reconciliation.

Readership: All interested in Islam in the West, secularization theory, and the Frankfurt School’s critical theory of religion.

Politics of Precarity
Migrant Conditions, Struggles and Experiences
Edited by Carl-Ulrik Schierup, Linköping University and Martin Bak Jørgensen, Aalborg University

In Politics of Precarity: Migrant Conditions, Struggles and Experiences, edited by Carl-Ulrik Schierup and Martin Bak Jørgensen, the conditions of precarity caused by neoliberal globalization are linked to migrant struggles and experiences across the globe.

Readership: For students and scholars within migration studies, sociology, social anthropology and political economy as well as people interested in the effects of neoliberalism.

China: Promise or Threat?
A Comparison of Cultures
Horst J. Helle, University of Munich

China: Promise or Threat? compares China and the West, demonstrating that China has a strong private realm of family life but acts unrelentingly in matters of government and the law, while the reverse is true in the West.

Readership: For readers interested in the relationship between China and the West, globalization, international relations and in the tradition of Fei Xiaotong in China.

"Is the Turk a White Man?"
Race and Modernity in the Making of Turkish Identity
Murat Ergin, Koç University

In “Is the Turk a White Man?” Murat Ergin examines how the links between race and modernity has shaped the formation of Turkish identity.

Readership: All interested in the history of Turkey and contemporary Turkish society, and anyone concerned with race and modernization.

The Dialectic of Position and Maneuver
Understanding Gramsci’s Military Metaphor
Daniel Egan, University of Massachusetts Lowell

In The Dialectic of Position and Maneuver, Daniel Egan offers a critical analysis of the role played by military metaphors in Antonio Gramsci’s social theory.

Readership: Anyone interested in Gramsci, Marxist theory more generally, or contemporary left political strategy.

God, Guns, Gold and Glory
American Character and its Discontents
Lauren Langman, Loyola University of Chicago and George Lundskow, Grand Valley State University, Allendale, MI

God, Guns, Gold, and Glory, by Lauren Langman and George Lundskow, offers a Frankfurt School account of the rise and fall of the American Empire by examining its underlying social character which is necessary for a post capitalist, sane society.

Readership: Social scientists, students and educated readers concerned with the present course of American society by joining traditions of American Character studies with Critical Theory.

More details about all our products on brill.com
NASCAR, Sturgis, and the New Economy of Spectacle

Daniel Krier, Iowa State University, USA and William J. Swart, Augustana University, USA

NASCAR, Sturgis, and the New Economy of Spectacle vividly illustrates how legendary spectacles, such as those in NASCAR racing and the Sturgis Motorcycle Rally, generate a triple-circuit of profit.

READERSHIP: All interested in spectacle, capitalism, critical theory, political authoritarianism, immaterial production and the culture industry.

- October 2016
- ISBN 978 90 04 30060 6
- Hardback (xv, 233 pp.)
- List price EUR 115.- / US$ 138.-
- Studies in Critical Social Sciences, 91

Theory in Action

Theoretical Constructionism

Edited by Peter Sohberg, Norwegian University of Science and Technology and Håkon Leifur Ingarson.

READERSHIP: All interested in sociology, labor studies and history, race and ethnic studies, social and economic stratification, political economy, and American studies.

¬ October 2016
¬ ISBN 978 90 04 31417 7
¬ Hardback (xx, 203 pp.)
¬ List price EUR 115.- / US$ 138.-
¬ Studies in Critical Social Sciences, 92

The Poverty of Work

Selling Servant, Slave and Temporary Labor on the Free Market

David Van Arsdale, State University of New York at Onondaga Community College

The Poverty of Work offers ethnographic and historical accounts of employment agency labor. Employing sixty million temporary workers globally and growing, the case is made for rethinking the function of employment agencies and their impact on economic inequality.

READERSHIP: All interested in social theory, and anyone concerned with theory application as a methodological problem.

¬ July 2016
¬ ISBN 978 90 04 32337 7
¬ Hardback (xv, 213 pp. (incl. 21 figures & 3 tables))
¬ List price EUR 115.- / US$ 138.-
¬ Studies in Critical Social Sciences, 93

Labor Conflict and Capitalist Hegemony in Argentina

The Case of the Automobile Industry, 1990-2007

Agustín Santella, Universidad de Buenos Aires

Labor Conflict and Capitalist Hegemony in Argentina delves into the dynamics of labor conflict during Neoliberalism. How did workers react to market reforms and massive layoffs? This book aims at contributing to a new way of conceptualizing labor relations within Marxism.

READERSHIP: All interested in industrial relations under contemporary capitalism, especially in peripheral countries, and in collective action and labor contention.

¬ July 2016
¬ ISBN 978 90 04 29781 5
¬ Hardback (viii, 237 pp.)
¬ List price EUR 124.- / US$ 154.-
¬ Studies in Critical Social Sciences, 89

Malcolm X

From Political Eschatology to Religious Revolutionary

Edited by Dustin J. Byrd, Olivet College, USA and Seyed Javad Miri, Institute of Humanities and Cultural Studies, Iran

Malcolm X: From Political Eschatology to Religious Revolutionary offers a variety of historical, religious and philosophical perspectives into the significance of Malcolm X’s life and thought today.

READERSHIP: All interested in the history and thought of Malcolm X, Civil Rights / Human Rights movements of the 1960’s, African-American history and Islam in America.

¬ May 2016
¬ ISBN 978 90 04 30867 1
¬ Hardback (xii, 371 pp.)
¬ List price EUR 135.- / US$ 175.-
¬ Studies in Critical Social Sciences, 88

Human Rights, Hegemony, and Utopia in Latin America

Poverty, Forced Migration and Resistance in Mexico and Colombia

Camilo A. Pérez-Bustillo, and Karla V. Hernández Mares

Human Rights, Hegemony and Utopia in Latin America explores the evolving relationship between hegemonic and counter-hegemonic visions of human rights, within the context of cases in contemporary Mexico and Colombia, and their broader implications.

READERSHIP: All interested in human rights, contemporary Mexico and Colombia, migrant rights and the rights of indigenous peoples in Latin America and globally.

¬ June 2016
¬ ISBN 978 90 04 29783 8
¬ Hardback (xvii, 252 pp. (incl. 58 color illustrations))
¬ List price EUR 129.- / US$ 167.-
¬ Studies in Critical Social Sciences, 87
Eros and Revolution
The Critical Philosophy of Herbert Marcuse
Javier Sethness Castro

Capitalism's Future
Alienation, Emancipation and Critique
Edited by Daniel Krier, Iowa State University and Mark P. Worrell, SUNY Cortland

The Origins of Collective Decision Making
Andy Blunden

Power and Resistance
US Imperialism in Latin America
James Petras, Binghamton University, New York (emiritus) and Saint Mary's University, Halifax, Canada and Henry Veltmeyer, Universidad Autónoma de Zacatecas, Mexico

Globalizing Cultures
Theories, Paradigms, Actions
Edited by Vincenzo Mele, University of Pisa, and Marina Vujnovic, Monmouth University, NJ

The Future of Work
Super-exploitation and Social Precariousness in the 21st Century
Adrián Sotelo Valencia, Centro de Estudios Latinoamericanos de la FCPyS-UNAM

Present a comprehensive intellectual and political biography of the critical theorist Herbert Marcuse (1898-1979), investigating the Hegelian-Marxist, Romantic, existentialist, social-psychological, and anti-authoritarian dimensions of his thought.

READERSHIP: All interested in Critical Theory, Marxism, anarchism, social and political psychology, radical philosophy, existentialism, Romanticism, feminism, ecology, anti-militarism, and revolutionism.

In Capitalism's Future: Alienation, Emancipation and Critique, sociologists, philosophers and cultural theorists critique economic and political dynamics of contemporary capitalism.

READERSHIP: All interested in capitalism, Marxist theory, political authoritarianism, alienation, commodity-fetishism in the fields of sociology, philosophy, political science and cultural studies.

The Origins of Collective Decision Making, identifies three paradigms of collective decision making – Counsel, Majority and Consensus, and discovers their origins in traditional, medieval and modern times, and traces their evolution over centuries up to the current juncture.

READERSHIP: Social movement and academics in social movements, labour movement history, deliberative democracy; undergraduates in sociology, political science, etc.

This book focuses on US imperialism today in Latin America. It concerns the projection of state power as a means of advancing the economic interests of the US capitalist class and maintaining its hegemony over the world capitalist system.

READERSHIP: Anyone concerned with understanding the dynamics, social impacts and political responses to the workings of capitalism and imperialism in Latin America.

Through a comparative analysis of representations of globalization the book examines the way cultures and individuals oppose, resist and re-center globalization and how people negotiate a sense of identity and belonging in a global context.

READERSHIP: All interested in global and cultural studies, with reference to resistance and social movements, gender inequality and empowerment, cultural and ethnic identity.

This book offers the paradigmatic transition from social and labour relations based on job security, comprehensive collective agreements and guaranteed social rights, towards new social relations.

READERSHIP: All interested in sociology of work and problems of dependency in Latin America.

More details about all our products on brill.com
Marx in the Age of Digital Capitalism
Edited by Christian Fuchs, University of Westminster and Vincent Mosco, Queen’s University

Presents 16 contributions showing how Marx’s analyses of capitalism, the commodity, class, labour, work, exploitation, surplus-value, dialectics, crises, ideology, class struggles, and communism help us to understand the Internet and social media in 21st century digital capitalism.

Readership: All students, scholars, activists, citizens interested in Marx, Internet and Digital Media Studies.

October 2015
List price EUR 181.- / US$ 234.-
Hardback (xii, 549 pp.)
ISBN 978 90 04 29138 6

Marx and the Political Economy of the Media
Edited by Christian Fuchs, University of Westminster and Vincent Mosco, Queen’s University

18 contributions showing how Marx’s analyses of capitalism, the commodity, class, labour, work, exploitation, surplus-value, dialectics, crises, ideology, and communism help us to understand media, cultural and communications in 21st century informational capitalism.

Readership: All students, scholars, activists, citizens interested in Marx, media, culture and communication studies.

October 2015
List price EUR 186.- / US$ 241.-
Hardback (xiii, 614 pp.)
ISBN 978 90 04 29140 9

Utopia and the Dialectic in Latin American Liberation
Eugene Gogol and Latin American Colleagues

This book examines the concept of utopia in Latin American thought and practice, and asks where there is a resonance with the dialectic as Hegel developed it. Within this context, emancipatory Latin American social movements are discussed.

Readership: Activists and academics interested in today’s Latin American social movements and their relation to developing emancipatory philosophy.

October 2015
List price EUR 149.- / US$ 193.-
Hardback (xi, 433 pp.)
ISBN 978 90 04 28756 3

The Reproductive Bargain
Deciphering the Enigma of Japanese Capitalism
Heidi Gottfried, Wayne State University

The Reproductive Bargain reveals the institutional sources of labor insecurities behind Japan’s postwar employment system. This economic juggernaut’s decline cannot be understood without reference to the reproductive bargain.

Readership: All interested in gender, employment relations, and politics and understanding the dynamics of Japanese capitalism and the reproductive bargain.

May 2015
List price EUR 115.- / US$ 149.-
Studies in Critical Social Sciences, 77

Confronting Gouldner
Sociology and Political Activism
James J. Chriss, Cleveland State University

In Confronting Gouldner James J. Chriss analyses the critical theory of sociologist Alvin W. Gouldner, exploring such issues as social justice, marriage and family, religion, political activism, public sociology, deviancy and crime, and the problem of the communist dictator.

Readership: Primary readership includes those interested in sociological theory, critical theory, communism, Marxism, political activism, and public sociology.

February 2015
List price EUR 115.- / US$ 149.-
Studies in Critical Social Sciences, 76

Settlement Sociology in the Progressive Years
Faith, Science, and Reform
Joyce E. Williams, Texas Woman’s University, and Vicky M. MacLean, Middle Tennessee State University

The Progressive Era roots of sociology as a public enterprise for reform are restored to the canon and given recognition by tracing key works of early sociological practitioners in the leading settlement houses of Chicago, New York and Boston.

Readership: Faculty, students, and libraries interested in the history of the social sciences, the progressive era, and settlement houses, women’s studies, and history.

June 2015
List price EUR 149.- / US$ 193.-
Studies in Critical Social Sciences, 75

More details about all our products on brill.com
Constructing Marxist Ethics
Critique, Normativity, Praxis
Edited by Michael J. Thompson, William Paterson University

Constructing Marxist Ethics offers a series of compelling essays that reassess the role of ethics and moral values in Marxist theory and philosophy.

A Dialectical Pedagogy of Revolt
Gramsci, Vygotsky, and the Egyptian Revolution
Brecht De Smet, Ghent University

In A Dialectical Pedagogy of Revolt Brecht De Smet integrates the political thought of Antonio Gramsci with the cultural psychology of Lev Vygotsky into an original perspective on revolutionary subjectivity that is deployed to understand the Egyptian "Tahrir" Revolution.

Trouble in the University
How the Education of Health Care Professionals Became Corrupted
Mildred A. Schwartz, University of Illinois at Chicago and New York University

This volume applies a critical lens to our understanding of how mass communication impacts our understanding of and potential for meaningful social change in the global political economy.

Extractive Imperialism in the Americas
Capitalism's New Frontier
James Petras, Binghamton University and Henry Veltmeyer, Saint Mary's University and Universidad Autónoma de Zacatecas.

In Trouble in the University Mildred A. Schwartz accounts for the corruption of the University of Medicine and Dentistry of New Jersey as resulting from its organization and network relations and shows those findings to apply in general to higher education tied to health care.

A New Kind of Public
Community, Solidarity, and Political Economy in New Deal Cinema, 1935-1948
Graham Cassano, Oakland University

This book explores the changing face of US imperialism in the context of a system that is in crisis. At issue are the devastating effects of the turn of many multinational corporations towards 'extractivism'—a pillage of society's natural resources.

Readership: Those interested in international political economy, international development studies, political ecology, and Latin American development.

Readership: All those interested in the history of American cinema, the sociology of the labor movement, and anyone concerned with applied cultural theory and postmodern Marxism.

Readership: All interested in higher education, health care education, organizations and their dysfunctions, public administration, public policy, political and systemic corruption.

Trouble in the University
Mildred A. Schwartz accounts for the corruption of the University of Medicine and Dentistry of New Jersey as resulting from its organization and network relations and shows those findings to apply in general to higher education tied to health care.

Readership: All interested in this book will be those following Marxist theory and philosophy, critical social theory, critical theory, moral philosophy, ethical theory and political theory.

More details about all our products on brill.com
Social Structures of Direct Democracy
On the Political Economy of Equality
John Asimakopoulos, City University of New York

John Asimakopoulos develops a political economy of structural equality making strong empirical arguments for radical transformation toward direct democracy by filling positions of political and economic authority with randomly selected citizens.

READERSHIP: All concerned with social theory, political philosophy, or political economy.

The Dialectics of the Religious and the Secular
Studies on the Future of Religion
Edited by Michael R. Ott, Grand Valley State University

In The Dialectics of the Religious and the Secular, fifteen international scholars address the question of the relevancy, meaning, and future of religion within the increasing antagonisms between the religious and secular realms of modern civil society and its globalization.

Collaborative Projects - An Interdisciplinary Study
Edited by Andy Blunden

Collaborative Projects demonstrates that the concept of 'project' may unify research across a range of human sciences, and presents eleven diverse research projects and a philosophical introduction to prove it.

Revolt Against Authority
Laura Westra, University of Windsor and University of Milano, Bicocca

Charting the protesters and social movements "illegality" opposing authority this volume argues that they should be, nevertheless, considered the defenders of law and order.

READERSHIP: General interest in law, sociology, international law and political science, on the part of both students and scholars.

Class, Culture and the Agrarian Myth
Tom Brass

Using examples from different historical contexts, this book examines the relationship between class, nationalism, modernity and the agrarian myth.

READERSHIP: The book is aimed at those with an interest in agrarian issues, and the impact on economic development of popular culture, nationalism and populism.

Come Hell or High Water: Feminism and the Legacy of Armed Conflict in Central America
Tine Destrooper, European University Institute

This book explores the motivations, strategies and priorities of women's activists in Guatemala and Nicaragua. She explains how these priorities were shaped by the legacy of armed conflict and the presence of international aid agencies.

READERSHIP: All interested in the relationship between international organizations, post-conflict societies and social mobilization, in gender issues and Central America.
Empires and Walls: Globalization, Migration, and Colonial Domination

Mohammad A. Chaichian, Mount Mercy University

A compelling comparative-historical analysis of ancient and contemporary walls and barriers that imperial powers have erected in order to subjugate the colonized subjects and control population movements within the empire.

Readership: All interested in the political economy of empires and imperial domination, colonialism, immigration and border control issues.

Critical Practice from Voltaire to Foucault, Eagleton and Beyond: Contested Perspectives

John E. O’Brien

Questioning the resistance to change of the West in constant crisis, and framed by early writings of Max Horkheimer and others, John E. O’Brien’s historical-materialist method explores the contested perspectives of Voltaire, Schiller, Baudrillard, Foucault, Eagleton and Hayden White.

Readership: All interested in cultural criticism, the historical-materialist method, the crisis of modernity and the future for the West and The Rest.

In the Hotel Abyss: An Hegelian-Marxist Critique of Adorno

Robert Lanning, Mount Saint Vincent University

This book is an analysis of a selection of Adorno’s work distinguishing his dialectics from Hegel, Marx and other members of the Frankfurt School (Benjamin, Kraeauer, Marcuse) in the analysis of jazz, popular music, radio and pre-war pro-fascist propaganda.

Readership: Intended for specialists in Critical Theory, dialectics and Marxism, as well as activists’ discussions about the relevance of theory and its relation to praxis.

Industrial Colonialism in Latin America: The Third Stage

Víctor M. Figueroa Sepúlveda, Universidad Autónoma de Zacatecas

Figueroa’s critical analysis of present imperialism and the neoliberal mode of knowledge creation provides fresh insights into contemporary underdevelopment and the prerequisites for genuine development in the region.

Readership: All those interested in Latin American development, including sociologist, economists and political scientists.

Modern Colonization by Medical Intervention: U.S. Medicine in Puerto Rico

Nicole Trujillo-Pagán, Wayne State University

This volume explores the establishment of US colonial rule over Puerto Rico through the appropriation and usurpation of the status of local physicians, the undermining of their political legitimacy, and its role in the development of capitalism in the colony.

Readership: All interested in the history of medicine, Puerto Rico, comparative-historical methods, political sociology and/or colonialism.

American Anarchism

Steve J. Shone, Gonzaga University

Steve Shone’s American Anarchism is a work of political theory that emphasizes the relevance of nineteenth century American Anarchism to contemporary politics.

Readership: American Anarchism is aimed at a scholarly market, but will appeal to some general readers, particularly those dissatisfied with the stagnation of conventional politics.
Max Weber’s Theory of Personality
Individuation, Politics and Orientalism in the Sociology of Religion
Sara R. Farris, Goldsmiths University of London

This book shows its complex development within three related problematics associated with Weber’s influential comparative historical sociology – individuation, politics and orientalism.

READERSHIP: All those interested in Max Weber, sociology of religion, sociological theory, political theory, history of ideas, anthropology.

Anarchy and Society
Reflections on Anarchist Sociology
Jeff Shantz, Kwantlen Polytechnic University and Dana M. Williams, Valdosta State University, GA

Anarchy and Society constructs a tentative synthesis of sociological and anarchist thought, providing a roadmap to a future ‘anarchist sociology’.

READERSHIP: All interested in activist, radical, utopian, or prefigurative sociology, and all interested in sociologically-oriented anarchist theory.

Stateless Citizenship
The Palestinian-Arab Citizens of Israel
Shourideh C. Molavi, York University

In Stateless Citizenship, Shourideh C. Molavi examines the mechanisms of exclusion of Palestinian citizens in the Zionist incorporation regime, and centres our analytical gaze on the paradox that it is through the provision of Israeli citizenship that Palestinians are deemed stateless.

READERSHIP: For all interested in the Israel-Palestine conflict.

The Supranational Corporation
Beyond the Multinationals
Laura Westra, University of Windsor and University of Milano, Bicocca

This work lays bare corporate actions both domestic and international, under the guise of legal “personhood,” and shows how corporations flout laws and act as controlling powers beyond the constraints imposed on legal state citizens.

READERSHIP: General interest in law, sociology, international law and political science, on the part of both students and scholars.

Modernity and Terrorism
From Anti-Modernity to Modern Global Terror
Milan Zafirovski, University of North Texas and Daniel G. Rodeheaver, University of North Texas

Zafirovski and Rodeheaver analyze the nature, types, and causes of terrorism. The book redefines terrorism in a novel comprehensive way, considers counter-state and state terrorism, and identifies and predicts conservative anti-modernity as the main cause of terrorism.

READERSHIP: All academics, libraries, and practitioners interested in the character, forms, and factors of contemporary global terrorism, and anyone concerned with modernization.

Religious Fundamentalism in the Middle East
A Cross-National, Inter-Faith, and Inter-Ethnic Analysis
Mansoor Moaddel, Eastern Michigan University and Stuart A. Karabenick, University of Michigan

In Religious Fundamentalism in the Middle East, Moaddel and Karabenick explain variations in fundamentalist beliefs and attitudes on both macro and micro level.

READERSHIP: This book would be of interest to sociologists of religion, Middle East, and Islam, comparative fundamentalism.

More details about all our products on brill.com
Reinventing Race, Reinventing Racism
Edited by John J. Betancur, University of Illinois at Chicago and Cedric Herring, University of Illinois at Chicago

Reinventing Race, Reinventing Racism provides fresh theoretical insights and policy solutions that address intractable new forms of racism. This accessible book tackles important and timely issues that continue to affect the lives of Americans of all shades and ethnicities.

READERSHIP: All readers interested in accessible treatments of the intersection of race and public policy in contemporary America.

Messages from Georg Simmel
Horst J. Helle, Ludwig-Maximilians-Universität München

As a founder of humanist sociology Simmel sent several important messages, identified and explained here as referring to interpretation, evolution, interaction, and alienation. Simmel’s ideas on these issues are confronted and compared with those of Karl Marx and Max Weber.

READERSHIP: All those interested in the social sciences and other humanities on issues of social development, and interested in critical thinking.

Economic Nationalism and Globalization
Lessons from Latin America and Central Europe
Henryk Szlajfer, Warsaw University and Polish Academy of Sciences

This book offers, against the background of developments in Latin America and Central Europe in times of globalization from late 19th century until late 1990s, a reinterpretation of economic nationalism both as an analytical category and historical experience.

READERSHIP: All those interested in economic history of and theorizing on underdevelopment and globalization and attempts at industrialization.

Theorizing Globalization
A Critique of the Mediatization of Social Theory
Marko Ampuja, University of Helsinki

In Theorizing Globalization Marko Ampuja offers a critical reassessment of mainstream perspectives on globalization, challenging their media-centrism and their lack of historical materialist analysis of global capitalism and the power of neoliberalism.

READERSHIP: Sociologists, media researchers, activists, students of globalization and anyone interested in the critical study of globalization and global media.

Capital Accumulation and Migration
Dennis C. Canterbury, Eastern Connecticut State University

In Capital Accumulation and Migration Dennis C. Canterbury explores the subject of capital accumulation and migration under neoliberal capitalism.

READERSHIP: All interested in the subject of capital accumulation, migration and development.

Toward a Dialectic of Philosophy and Organization
Eugene Gogol

In Toward a Dialectic of Philosophy and Organization revolutions and revolutionary movements of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries are examined through the lens of the Hegelian-Marxian dialectic(s) and Marx’s concept of revolutionary organization.

READERSHIP: Anyone interested in dialectical thought in Hegel and Marx and its relevance for social transformation historically and today.

More details about all our products on brill.com
Concepts: A Critical Approach
Andy Blunden
This book offers an overview of theories of the Concept, drawing on the philosopher Hegel and the Soviet psychologist Lev Vygotsky. Concepts are shown to be both units of the mind and units of a cultural formation.

The Neoliberal Pattern of Domination: Capital’s Reign in Decline
José Manuel Sánchez Bermúdez, Universidad Autónoma de Nayarit
An examination of the domination of neoliberal capital, showing how it renders impossible the unity of human beings dispossessed from the means of production and subsistence.

Faces of State Terrorism
Laura Westra, University of Windsor, University of Milano, Bicocca, and Royal Roads University, Victoria, B.C.
This book examines the numerous illegal measures states use, from unlawful imprisonment and curtailing of civil liberties to torture, in the name of responding to terrorism.

Liberal Bourgeois Protestantism: The Metaphysics of Globalization
Paul C. Mocombe, West Virginia State University
This work analyzes the Protestant metaphysical origins and basis underlying the sociological process of globalization. Specifically, it outlines the different conceptions of globalization in the sociological literature.

The Underground Church: Nonviolent Resistance to the Vatican Empire
Kathleen Kautzer, Regis College
Drawing on theories of religious movements and nonviolent resistance strategies, this book analyzes the Reform Movement of liberal American Catholics who for over four decades have sustained a movement to expand on the reforms and visions of Vatican II.

The Entropy of Capitalism
Robert Biel, University College London
Within the context of the ecological crisis of the twenty-first century, the book integrates Marxism and systems theory to reveal finance capital and the ‘war on terror’ as complementary responses of a capitalism reduced to parasitising upon symptoms of chaos.

Readership: Those interested in educational psychology, education and development, Critical Theory, Linguistics, Hegel, Marxism, Social and Political Science.

Readership: All those interested in the domination of neoliberal capital over contemporary society, its theory and history, including economists, political scientists and concerned citizens.

Readership: General interest in law, sociology, international law and political science, on the part of both students and scholars.

Readership: All those interested in globalization, critical theory, and philosophy.

Readership: The book should appeal to scholars in the field of religious movements, peace studies, and Catholic theology, as well as the persons who are involved in the liberal Reform Movement.

Readership: Anyone in the fields of political economy/ ecology, labour movement and grassroots activists, everyone interested in understanding the current crisis and the way forward.

More details about all our products on brill.com
Neoliberalism and National Culture
State-Building and Legitimacy in Canada and Québec
Cory Blad, Manhattan College

Canada and Québec are presented in historical comparative context as examples of how neoliberal states achieve global political economic integration while relying on cultural legitimation to maintain social policies working

READERSHIP: All those interested in state theory, globalization, nationalism/national culture, neoliberalism, Canada, Québec, social policy, migration, and cultural pluralism.

The Age of Knowledge
The Dynamics of Universities, Knowledge and Society
Edited by James Dzisah, Nipissing University, North Bay, Canada and Henry Etzkowitz, Stanford University

The book emphasizes that the ongoing transformations of knowledge, must be understood as a reflection of the larger changes in the constitutive social structures within which they are invariably produced, translated and reproduced.

READERSHIP: All those interested in Innovation Policy, Education, Social and Health Policy, Knowledge Management and Transfer, Sociology of Science, Transnationalism.

The Cuban Revolution as Socialist Human Development
Henry Veltmeyer, Universidad Autónoma de Zacatecas (Mexico) and Saint Mary’s University (Canada) and Mark Rushton

The book argues that the Cuban Revolution should be understood as a model of socialist human development. Several particular features of this model were critical to the survival of the Cuban Revolution under conditions of neoliberal globalization.

READERSHIP: All those interested in agrarian issues, labour conditions, development studies, political economy, and the sociology of development.

Labour Regime Change in the Twenty-First Century
Unfreedom, Capitalism and Primitive Accumulation
Tom Brass

The object is to assess the validity, in the light of current economic development, of the epistemology structuring different historical interpretations linking capitalism, unfreedom and primitive accumulation.

READERSHIP: Anyone interested in a scientific understanding of the fundamental workings of capitalism as an economic system.

Crisis of Capitalism
Compendium of Applied Economics (Global Capitalism)
Luciano Vasapollo, Università La Sapienza in Rome and the Universidad de Habana, Cuba

This book provides a comprehensive methodological and philosophical inquiry into, and a comprehensive scientific analysis of, the fundamental economic dynamics of capitalism as a world system.

READERSHIP: All those interested in fair and affordable housing, urban inequality, racial discrimination, social justice, and the rise of neoliberalism.

Fair and Affordable Housing in the U.S.
Trends, Outcomes, Future Directions
Edited by Robert Mark Silverman, University at Buffalo and Kelly L. Patterson, University at Buffalo

This edited book examines trends, outcomes and future directions of U.S. fair and affordable housing policy. It focuses on four areas of interest: fair housing policy, affordable housing finance, equitable approaches to land use, rent vouchers, and homeownership policy.

READERSHIP: Anyone interested in fair and affordable housing, urban inequality, racial discrimination, social justice, and the rise of neoliberalism.
Covert Racism
Theories, Institutions, and Experiences
Edited by Rodney D. Coates, Miami University

This book presents a series of problems in conventional social thought and the alternatives Marx’s approach poses. It demonstrates how sound social science abstraction cannot but have political, often radical, implications.

READERSHIP: All those interested in race and ethnic relations, the history of race in America, the rearticulation of race, and the means of understanding how to transform the racial matrix.

Marx and the Politics of Abstraction
Paul Paolucci, Eastern Kentucky University

In this work Laura Westra draws our attention to the failure of international law to promote and protect the rights of society in the face of the ravages of neoliberal agendas in an era of globalization.

READERSHIP: General interest in law, sociology, on the part of both students and scholars.

Globalization, Violence and World Governance
Laura Westra, University of Windsor

Through a careful analysis of the former Soviet Union and China, and South Asian societies of India and the Philippines, this volume examines the creation of a state capitalism, its roll in economic development, and its impact on social change.

READERSHIP: All interested in the role of capitalism in the development of national economies, in so-called socialist states and non-traditional states.

State Capitalism, Contentious Politics and Large-Scale Social Change
Edited by Vincent Kelly Pollard

After challenging the multicultural effort to “provincialize” the history of Western civilization, this book argues that the roots of the West’s exceptional creativity should be traced back to the uniquely aristocratic warlike culture of Indo-European speakers.

READERSHIP: Educated laymen, academics, and students interested in the rise of the West, comparative historical sociology, and world history, as well as historians of Europe and Indo-Europeanists.

The Uniqueness of Western Civilization
Ricardo Duchesne, The University of New Brunswick, Saint John, Canada

This collection focuses on the multiple consequences of neoliberal policies in Chile and places its “showcase” status and its re-democratization process into serious question. The volume argues that breaking the status quo is possible, urgent and necessary.

READERSHIP: All students and specialists in Latin American Studies, International Studies, Comparative Sociology of Development; Comparative Politics.
These essays are a distillation of Jerome Braun’s work in interdisciplinary social science. Thus they exemplify pragmatic critical theory by dealing with culture and personality, cohesiveness and nihilism in modern societies, and the relation between community and democracy.

READERSHIP: Those interested in political and cultural sociology, sociology of alienation, sociology of culture, political science, political anthropology, political psychology, cultural studies.

Religion and the New Atheism
A Critical Appraisal
Edited by Amarath Amarasingam, Laurier-Waterloo University

This book brings together eminent and rising scholars from religious studies, science, sociology of religion, sociology of science, philosophy, and theology in order to engage the new atheism and place it in the context of broader debates in these areas.

READERSHIP: All those interested in contemporary religion, religion and science, the sociology of religion, philosophy of religion, sociology of science and cultural studies.

Weaving Transnational Solidarity
From the Catskills to Chiapas and Beyond
Katherine O’Donnell, Hartwick College

A scholar-activist, ethnographic case study which contributes to understanding collective organization, indigenous rights, and the solidarity process within transnational social movements and critically reflects on Fair Trade, health, and education solidarity.

READERSHIP: All interested in social movements, Latin America, human rights, social justice, fair trade, feminist studies, indigenous rights, solidarity economics, public sociology and anthropology.

To Break Our Chains
Social Cohesiveness and Modern Democracy
Jerome Braun

The US forced the EU to liberalize the Lomé Conventions, but the EU fired back with the EPAs, characterized by supposedly free market policies but which in reality yokes the ACP countries trade to the EU and excludes the US.

READERSHIP: Students, academics, development practitioners, civil society agencies and activists, and the general reader interested in current political economy issues.

European Bloc
Imperialism
Dennis C. Canterbury, Eastern Connecticut State University

A critical review of Cultural-Historical Activity Theory, the psychology originating from Lev Vygotsky (1896-1934). Tracing its roots in Goethe, Hegel and Marx, the author builds a concept of activity transcending the division between individual and social domains in human sciences.

READERSHIP: All those interested in Cultural Psychology, particularly in educational psychology, education and child development.

Imperialism, Crisis and Class Struggle
The Enduring Verities and Contemporary Face of Capitalism. Essays in Honour of James Petras
Edited by Henry Veltmeyer, Saint Mary’s University

This written in honour of James Petras, address some of the most critical issues of our time: those of imperialism, crisis and class struggle. These allow the authors to identify both the ‘the enduring verities and contemporary face of capitalism’ and Petras’ contributions.

READERSHIP: Academic libraries, specialists and students of political economy, global development and imperialism, activists in the struggle for social justice.

From the Catskills to Chiapas and Beyond
Katherine O’Donnell, Hartwick College

To Break Our Chains
Social Cohesiveness and Modern Democracy
Jerome Braun

Weaving Transnational Solidarity
From the Catskills to Chiapas and Beyond
Katherine O’Donnell, Hartwick College

European Bloc
Imperialism
Dennis C. Canterbury, Eastern Connecticut State University

Imperialism, Crisis and Class Struggle
The Enduring Verities and Contemporary Face of Capitalism. Essays in Honour of James Petras
Edited by Henry Veltmeyer, Saint Mary’s University

More details about all our products on brill.com
Manifesto of the Critical Theory of Society and Religion (3 vols.)
The Wholly Other, Liberation, Happiness and the Rescue of the Hopeless
Rudolf Siebert, Western Michigan University

The Manifesto develops further the Critical Theory of Religion intrinsic to the Critical Theory of Society of the Frankfurt School into a new paradigm of the Psychology, Sociology, Philosophy and Theology of Religion.

READERSHIP: All interested in psychology and social psychology, sociology and anthropology, philosophy and theology and comparative religion.

- August 2010
- ISBN 978 90 04 18436 7
- Hardback (3 volumes; xxi, 1876 pp.)
- List price US$ 361.- / EUR 293.-
- Studies in Critical Social Sciences, 20

Social Change, Resistance and Social Practices
Edited by Richard A. Dello Buono, Manhattan College, and David Fasenfest, Wayne State University

About central contradictions of 21st Century North America with cutting-edge approaches to conflict-driven social change. Diverse forms of social movement resistance are analyzed by distinguished critical sociologists.

READERSHIP: Everyone interested in neoliberalism, migration, social movements, and forms of resistance to repressive global economic changes.

- January 2010
- ISBN 978 90 04 17993 6
- Hardback (x, 268 pp.)
- List price US$ 172.- / EUR 140.-
- Studies in Critical Social Sciences, 17

The Apprentice’s Sorcerer
Liberal Tradition and Fascism
Ishay Landa, Israeli Open University

This book contends incisively that fascism, far from being the antithesis of liberalism, ought to be seen centrally as an effort to unknot the longue durée tangle of the liberal order, as it finally collided, head on, with mass democracy.

READERSHIP: Those interested in modern history, political theory, history of modern ideologies, Marxist historiography, history of fascism and liberalism.

- November 2009
- ISBN 978 90 04 17951 6
- Hardback (xii, 372 pp.)
- List price US$ 172.- / EUR 140.-
- Studies in Critical Social Sciences, 18

Crisis, Politics and Critical Sociology
Edited by Graham Cassano, Oakland University and Richard A. Dello Buono, Manhattan College

This volume seeks to understand the roots of our current social and economic crisis on a number of themes including the legacy of critical sociology, the significance of the new Obama administration, and the relationship of social theory to social practice.

READERSHIP: Everyone concerned with the current political and economic conditions in the US and world.

- November 2009
- ISBN 978 90 04 17948 6
- Hardback (xii, 364 pp.)
- List price US$ 172.- / EUR 140.-
- Studies in Critical Social Sciences, 19

Western Europe, Eastern Europe and World Development 13th-18th Centuries
Collection of Essays of Marian Malowist
Edited by Jean Batou, and Henryk Szlajfer

This book collected the main articles of Marian Malowist, one of the most fertile Polish historian of the 20th century, on the central issue of our times: the wide and widening gulf between the core and the periphery, the North and the South, western and eastern Europe.

READERSHIP: All those interested in early modern history of Europe, Africa and Asia, on world history, on the historical origins of development and underdevelopment.

- October 2009
- ISBN 978 90 04 17917 2
- Hardback (xv, 438 pp.)
- List price US$ 172.- / EUR 140.-
- Studies in Critical Social Sciences, 16

Profitable Ideas
The Ideology of the Individual in Capitalist Development
Michael O’Flynn, Open University and University of Limerick

This book scrutinises the development of liberal individualism in terms of its social function, connecting related doctrine and principle to the opportunities and obstacles to capital accumulation over the course of modern history.

READERSHIP: All concerned with the development of political ideas in their connection with socio-economic change.

- August 2009
- ISBN 978 90 04 17804 5
- Hardback (xii, 200 pp.)
- List price US$ 129.- / EUR 105.-
- Studies in Critical Social Sciences, 15
Studies in Critical Social Sciences Book Series

More details about all our products on brill.com

---

The Destiny of Modern Societies

The Calvinist Predestination of a New Society

Milan Zafirovski, University of North Texas

Applying the idea of the destiny of societies or nations, the book argues, demonstrates, and illustrates the Calvinist societal “predestination”, through the Puritan determination, of American society.

Engaging Social Justice

Critical Studies of 21st Century Social Transformation

Edited by David Fasenfest, Wayne State University

Identifying the causes of and potential for an alternative to neoliberalism, this book offers case studies of new social movements, new forms of autonomy, and new possibilities for a progressive future.

Hybrid Identities

Theoretical and Empirical Examinations

Edited by Keri E. Iyall Smith, Suffolk University and Patricia Leavy, Stonehill College

Combining theoretical and empirical analysis, this book presents the emerging theoretical work analyzing hybrid identities while also illustrating the application of these theories in empirical research.

---

Dialectic of Solidarity

Labor, Antisemitism, and the Frankfurt School

Mark P. Worrell, SUNY Cortland

Dialectic of Solidarity draws upon unpublished research reports of the Frankfurt School and represents a unique and multidimensional view of the political imagination of the wartime American worker and the problem of antisemitism.

Liberal Modernity and Its Adversaries

Freedom, Liberalism and Anti-Liberalism in the 21st Century

Milan Zafirovski, University of North Texas

The book rediscovers liberal modernity as the master process and destination of Western civilization, and its anti-liberal adversaries, notably conservatism, as the ghosts of a dead past. The anti-liberal rumors of the ‘dead’ of liberalism are ‘greatly exaggerated’.

---

The Future of Religion

Toward a Reconciled Society

Edited by Michael R. Ott, Grand Valley State University

The work of international scholars who address the contemporary globalizing antagonism between religion and secularity, in the theoretical and practical pursuit for this antagonism's reconciliation in a more just, humane and peaceful future society and world.

---

Readership: All those interested in comparative and historical sociology, social theory, economics, political science, history and other social sciences, critical academies.

Readership: Everyone interested in economic and social justice, progressive politics, anti-neoliberal struggling, and global social movements.

Readership: Those interested in theoretical and empirical examinations of cross-cultural life and identity in the social sciences, humanities, or cultural studies.

Readership: Those interested in the Frankfurt School, American labor during World War Two, antisemitism, sociological theory, and the sociology of gender and ethnicity.

Readership: Readership includes sociologists, political scientists, historians, economists and other social scientists, graduate students in sociology and related disciplines.

---

June 2009
ISBN 978 90 04 17629 4
Hardback (x, 622 pp.)
List price US$ 222.- / EUR 180.-
Studies in Critical Social Sciences, 14

June 2009
ISBN 978 90 04 17654 6
Hardback (vi, 350 pp.)
List price US$ 150.- / EUR 122.
Studies in Critical Social Sciences, 13

August 2008
ISBN 978 90 04 17039 1
Hardback (xii, 412 pp.)
List price US$ 150.- / EUR 122.
Studies in Critical Social Sciences, 12

August 2008
ISBN 978 90 04 17039 1
Hardback (viii, 350 pp.)
List price US$ 150.- / EUR 122.
Studies in Critical Social Sciences, 11

August 2008
ISBN 978 90 04 16886 2
Hardback (xvii, 500 pp.)
List price US$ 150.- / EUR 122.
Studies in Critical Social Sciences, 10

June 2007
ISBN 978 90 04 16052 1
Hardback (x, 382 pp.)
List price US$ 150.- / EUR 122.
Studies in Critical Social Sciences, 9
Marx's Scientific Dialectics
A Methodological Treatise for a New Century
Paul Paolucci, Eastern Kentucky University

This book examines both problems in traditional readings of Marx's texts and how he used several methods of science to inform his dialectical thinking, historical materialist research, political economic analyses, and his communist project.

READERSHIP: All those interested in classical social theory, Marxism, dialectics, sociological method, and the history and possible future of capitalist society.

- June 2007
- ISBN 978 90 04 15860 3
- Hardback (xii, 332 pp.)
- List price US$ 150.- / EUR 122.-
- Studies in Critical Social Sciences, 8

Imperialism, Neoliberalism and Social Struggles in Latin America
Edited by Richard A. Dello Buono, Manhattan College and José Bell Lara, University of Havana

This collection focuses on the social consequences of neoliberal crises in Latin America. It includes a critical analysis of ruling leftist governments in the region and discusses the larger constraints facing organized attempts to politically transform the Americas.

READERSHIP: All students and specialists in Latin American Studies, International Studies, Comparative Sociology of Development; Comparative Politics.

- November 2006
- ISBN 978 90 04 15365 3
- Hardback (x, 582 pp.)
- List price US$ 150.- / EUR 122.-
- Studies in Critical Social Sciences, 7

Marx, Critical Theory, and Religion
A Critique of Rational Choice
Edited by Warren S. Goldstein, University of Central Florida

This collection of essays brings together scholars who use frameworks provided by Marx and Critical Theory in analyzing religion. Its goal is to establish a critical theory of religion within sociology of religion as an alternative to rational choice.

READERSHIP: All interested in sociological theory and religion, particularly those specializing in Marxism, critical theory and sociology of religion.

- June 2006
- ISBN 978 90 04 15238 0
- Hardback (x, 410 pp.)
- List price US$ 150.- / EUR 122.-
- Studies in Critical Social Sciences, 6

Globalization and the Environment
Edited by Andrew Jorgenson, Washington State University and Edward Kick, North Carolina State University

The articles in this volume examine how the world-economy and related non-economic forms of global structuring have impacted the natural environment and the living conditions of human populations across the globe, in areas as diverse as Ancient Egypt and the modern Amazon.

READERSHIP: All those interested in the environment, global warming, deforestation, globalization and global issues, technological change and human well-being.

- May 2006
- ISBN 978 90 04 15132 1
- Hardback (vii, 354 pp.)
- List price US$ 150.- / EUR 122.-
- Studies in Critical Social Sciences, 5

Culture, Power, and History
Studies in Critical Sociology
Edited by Stephen Pfohl, Boston College, Aimee Van Wagenen, Boston College, Patricia Arend, Boston College, Abigail Brooks, Boston College, and Denise Leckenby, Boston College

This volume brings together theoretical meditations and empirical studies of the intersection of culture, power and history in social life. Contributors bring a diversity of critical sociological perspectives and subject matters to this important edited book.

READERSHIP: Those interested in critical sociology, cultural studies, sociology of race, studies of gender, critical inquiries of power, media studies, ethnography and the history of sociology.

- October 2005
- ISBN 978 90 04 14659 4
- Hardback (vii, 354 pp.)
- List price US$ 150.- / EUR 122.-
- Studies in Critical Social Sciences, 4

Transforming Globalization
Challenges and Opportunities in the Post 9/11 Era
Edited by Bruce Podobnik, Lewis and Clark College and Thomas Reifer, University of San Diego

This collection of studies examines the prospects facing the coalition of workers, environmentalists, and other progressive activists that has been created to resist neoliberal forms of globalization in the post 9/11 period.

READERSHIP: All those interested in sociology, labor studies, environmental studies, international affairs, political science, history, and global studies will find this volume to be of interest.

- August 2005
- ISBN 978 90 04 14583 2
- Hardback (vii, 206 pp.)
- List price US$ 104.- / EUR 85.-
- Studies in Critical Social Sciences, 3
Race and Ethnicity
Across Time, Space and Discipline
Edited by Rodney D. Coates, Miami University

This edited volume provides a critical re-appraisal of race and ethnicity through a multi-disciplinarian, geographically varied, and historically diverse set of lenses.

Enriching the Sociological Imagination
How Radical Sociology Changed the Discipline
Edited by Rhonda F. Levine, Colgate University

This unique book presents classical articles from The Insurgent Sociologist along with critical reflections by their distinguished authors.

Readership: All interested in studies associated with race and ethnicity from the classics, sociology, history, criminal justice, cultural and literary theory, education, and political science.

Readership: All those interested in radical sociology, sociology of knowledge, political sociology, social class, social theory, the history of sociology and public sociology.

Print Book Orders and Journal Subscriptions

Customers outside the Americas
BRILL
c/o Turpin Distribution
Stratton Business Park
Pegasus Drive
Biggleswade
Bedfordshire SG18 8TQ
United Kingdom
T +44 (0) 1767 604-954
F +44 (0) 1767 601-640
brill@turpin-distribution.com

Customers in the Americas
BRILL
143 West Street
New Milford, CT 06776
USA
T (844) 232-3707
toll free, US & Canada only
F +1 (860) 350-0041
fbrilina@turpin-distribution.com

All customers can order via our website brill.com. To make sure the ordering process is safe Brill uses the latest encryption technology and other methods to protect your credit card information.

Online Resources and Primary Sources

Customers outside the Americas
BRILL
P.O. Box 9000
2300 PA Leiden
The Netherlands
T +31 (0) 71-53 590
F +31 (0) 71-53 53 23
sales-nl@brill.com

Customers in the Americas
BRILL USA
2 Liberty Square, Eleventh Floor
Boston, MA 02109
USA
T (844) 232-3707
toll free, US only
F +1 (860) 350-0039
sales-us@brill.com

More details about all our products on brill.com