

now available on microfiche

The Jerusalem Post Clippings Archive

Prominent People and JP specialists, 1933-1977

The Post Archives classified clippings collection from 1933-1977, concerning prominent people and Post specialists, is now available in microfiche edition. 1,929 microfiches, positive, silver-halide. Order no. KJ-95-1/1

The Jerusalem Post is unique in modern journalism as the only daily English language newspaper which has recorded the events in Mandatory Palestine, Israel, and the Middle East over the past fifty years.

For the researcher, teacher and journalist the clippings provide a running commentary by recognized, Israeli affairs experts on political, economic and cultural developments.

The microfiche edition of clippings covers 535 persons. One can order the entire collection or, it is also possible to order a series of clippings concerning particular individuals. The whole collection is offered at a reduced price.

For additional information and for clippings dated after 1977 please write to:
Jerusalem Post Archives, POB 81, Jerusalem, Israel.
Telex: 25421. Tel.: 02-528181.

Guide

The Guide to the collection, listing the names of the 535 persons represented in the collection, is available free on request.

The Jerusalem Post Newspaper in micro-edition.

The Jerusalem Post and Palestine Post, preceded by the Palestine Bulletin and the earlier Palestine Weekly, established 1919 (December), are all available on microfiche for the period 1919 (December) - 1931 (April) and on 35 mm microfilm from 1925 (January) onwards.

The Jerusalem Post and its predecessors, 1919 (December) - 1985 will be given until the Cabinet has recommended it and received the approval of the Knesset. I am sure that the two sides tried to proceed calmly on the road. The Secretary held a frank talk with Defense and Foreign Affairs.

ROOSEVELT DEAD
WASHINGTON, Thursday (R).—The death of President Roosevelt was announced this evening from the White House in a statement which came as a tremendous shock to the public. The President died suddenly of cerebral haemorrhage this afternoon at Warm Springs, Georgia, said the announcer.

