Call for Papers

Journal of Law, Religion and State

Editor-in-Chief: Gideon Sapir, Bar-Ilan University, Israel

brill.com/jlrs

The Journal of Law Religion and State provides an international forum for the study of the interactions between law and religion and between religion and state – and especially the interaction between all three. It seeks to explore these interactions from legal and constitutional as well as from internal religious perspectives.

The JLRS is a peer-reviewed journal that is committed to a broad and open discussion on a cross-cultural basis. We offer an efficient review process, high quality editorial work (including complementary language editing) and immediate pre-print publishing – all in order to get your excellent research to the readers as quick as possible, in its best form.

Submission of articles in the following areas: religion and state; legal and political aspects of all religious traditions; comparative research of different religious legal systems and their interrelations are welcomed, as are contributions from multidisciplinary and interdisciplinary perspectives.
