Instructions for Authors

Scope

The Asian International Studies Review (AISR) is a scholarly, peer-reviewed journal, published biannually in May and November in coordination with the Ewha Graduate School of International Studies (GSIS) and the Institute for International and Area Studies (IIAS). It is a registered journal at the Korea Research Foundation, has been listed by the Korea Citation Index (KCI) since 2010, and in 2018 was accepted for listing with Scopus. The Asian International Studies Review is the official journal of both the Korean International Studies Association (KISA) and the Asian Political and International Studies Association (APISA). The principal aim of the Asian International Studies Review is to advance international studies research broadly defined to include international relations, international economics, international security, international law, development cooperation, comparative politics, international trade and investment, international business, and Asian and cross-cultural studies. It also supports networking and the exchange of ideas between academics and practitioners across disciplines, countries, and regions in order to give a greater voice to scholars of the international interactions of Asia and to Asian-based scholars of international affairs.

Ethical and Legal Conditions

The publication of a manuscript in a peer-reviewed work is expected to follow standards of ethical behavior for all parties involved in the act of publishing: authors, editors, and reviewers. Authors, editors, and reviewers should thoroughly acquaint themselves with Brill's publication ethics, which may be downloaded here: brill.com/page/ethics/publication-ethics-cope-compliance.

Online Submission

The Asian International Studies Review uses online submission only. Authors should submit their manuscript online via the Editorial Manager (EM) online submission system at: editorialmanager.com/aisreditorialmanager.com/aisrbrill. First-time users of EM need to register first. Go to the website and click on the "Register Now" link in the login menu. Enter the information requested. During registration, you can fill in your username and password. If you should forget your Username and Password, click on the "send login details" link in the login section, and enter your e-mail address exactly as you entered it when you registered. Your access codes will then be e-mailed to you. Prior to submission, authors are encouraged to read the “Instructions for Authors.” When submitting via the website, you will be guided stepwise through the creation and uploading of the various files. A revised document is uploaded the same way as the initial submission. The system automatically generates an electronic (PDF) proof, which is then used for reviewing purposes. All correspondence, including the editor’s request for revision and final decision, is sent by e-mail.

Double-blind Peer Review
The Asian International Studies Review uses a double-blind peer review system, which means that manuscript author(s) do not know who the reviewers are and that reviewers do not know the names of the author(s).

When you submit your article via Editorial Manager, you will be asked to submit a separate title page that includes the full title of the manuscript, the names and complete contact details of all authors, the abstract, keywords, and any acknowledgement texts. This page will not be accessible to the referees. All other files (manuscript, figures, tables, etc.) should not contain any information concerning author names, institutions, etc. The names of these files and the document properties should also be anonymized.

Contact Address
Submission and publication/operational queries should be submitted to the Managing Editor, Emily Sung, at isr@ewha.ac.kr. Editorial queries should be submitted to the Editor-in-Chief, Brendan M. Howe, at bmg.howe@gmail.com. For questions about Editorial Manager, please contact the Brill EM Support Department at em@brill.com.

Submission Requirements

Language
The Asian International Studies Review publishes articles in English. Contributions should be grammatically correct and in good literary style. All spelling should be consistent.

Font
Ordinary Roman style text Arial and Times New Roman that come with Microsoft Windows are fine. For extended characters, authors should ensure that they use a Unicode friendly font such as the Brill (brill.com/about/brill-fonts).

Unicode and Non-Roman Fonts
The Editors request the use of Unicode fonts only, as the Brill (brill.com/page/BrillFont/brill-typeface). It presents complete coverage of the Latin script with the full range of diacritics and linguistics (IPA) characters used to display any language from any period. If you have any questions about fonts or any other issue, please contact the editor.
Instructions for Authors

Length
The Asian International Studies Review invites scholars and practitioners of all levels of seniority and types of experience to submit standard research articles of 7,000-10,000 words.

Manuscript Structure

Abstract and Keywords
All manuscripts should be accompanied by an abstract in English of no more than 150 words and a list of no more than six or seven keywords.

Headings
The First Level Heading
The Second Level Heading

References
Footnotes may be used for supplemental information, but references should be given as in-text citations following APA style, with a list of references (labeled “References”) at the end of the article. A list of references is required for all contributions. For guidance on in-text citation according to APA style, you may visit owl.english.purdue.edu/owl/resource/560/02/ or blog.apastyle.org/apastyle/2011/01/writing-in-text-citations-in-apa-style.html or any number of other resources on the internet.

For the References section:
- Do not use dashes for repeated author names.
- Capitalization of titles in both headline-style or sentence-style is allowed. Please follow the same capitalization style as in the original title.
- Reverse italics in titles are permitted when applicable.
- The Reference List should be presented in roman script. Use a transcribed version of the reference where necessary. The original script can be included within square brackets.
- For types of references not listed below, you may consult owl.english.purdue.edu/owl/resource/560/02/.

The Asian International Studies Review strongly prefers full author and editor first names instead of initials. Please note that this means that an author's personal name(s) should as a rule be presented in full, but if only the initial is given in the original, please use that instead. The examples below are merely for structural guidance, and first names should be provided when available.

Proofs
Upon acceptance, a PDF of the article proofs will be sent to authors by e-mail to check carefully for factual and typographic errors. Authors are responsible for checking these proofs and are strongly urged to make use of the Comment & Markup toolbar to note their corrections directly on the proofs. At this stage in the production process, only minor corrections are allowed. Alterations to the original manuscript at this stage will result in considerable delay in publication and, therefore, are not accepted unless charged to the author. Proofs should be returned promptly.
Instructions for Authors

E-offprints
A PDF file of the article will be supplied free of charge by the publisher to authors for personal use. Brill is a RoMEO yellow publisher. The Author retains the right to self-archive the submitted (pre-peer-review) version of the article at any time. The submitted version of an article is the author's version that has not been peer-reviewed, nor had any value added to it by Brill (such as formatting or copy editing). The Author retains the right to self-archive the accepted (peer-reviewed) version without any embargo period. The accepted version means the version which has been accepted for publication and contains all revisions made after peer reviewing and copy editing but has not yet been typeset in the publisher's lay-out. The publisher's lay-out must not be used in any repository or on any website (brill.com/resources/authors/publishing-books-brill/self-archiving-rights).

Consent to Publish

Transfer of Copyright
By submitting a manuscript, the author agrees that the copyright for the article is transferred to the publisher if and when the article is accepted for publication. For that purpose, the author needs to sign the Consent to Publish form which will be sent with the first proofs of the manuscript.

Open Access
Should the author wish to publish the article in Open Access, he/she can choose the Brill Open option. This allows for non-exclusive Open Access publication under a Creative Commons license in exchange for an Article Publication Charge (APC), upon signing a special Brill Open Consent to Publish form. More information on Brill Open can be found on brill.com/brillopen.
