Scope

The Asia-Pacific Journal of Ocean Law and Policy (APOC) explores ocean law and policy issues in the most economically dynamic region in the world: the Asia-Pacific. These ocean spaces are crucial to international trade and are becoming increasingly important in terms of marine resources and services. Hotly contested, the region is subject to enhanced threats such as pollution, conflicting activities, over-exploitation and environmental degradation. Escalating ocean governance challenges coupled with mounting tensions in the region have made studies focusing on this area an especially pertinent topic for scholarly research and consideration in securing and maintaining peace in the Asia-Pacific region and beyond.

Ethical and Legal Conditions

The publication of a manuscript in a peer-reviewed work is expected to follow standards of ethical behavior for all parties involved in the act of publishing: authors, editors, and reviewers. Authors, editors, and reviewers should thoroughly acquaint themselves with Brill’s publication ethics, which may be downloaded here: brill.com/page/ethics/publication-ethics-cope-compliance.

Online Submission

The Asia-Pacific Journal of Ocean Law and Policy uses online submission only. Authors should submit their manuscript online via the Editorial Manager (EM) online submission system at: editorialmanager.com/apoc. First-time users of EM need to register first. Go to the website and click on the “Register Now” link in the login menu. Enter the information requested. During registration, you can fill in your username and password. If you should forget your Username and Password, click on the "send login details" link in the login section, and enter your e-mail address exactly as you entered it when you registered. Your access codes will then be e-mailed to you.

Prior to submission, authors are strongly encouraged to read the ‘Instructions for Authors’. When submitting via the website, you will be guided stepwise through the creation and uploading of the various files. A revised document is uploaded the same way as the initial submission. The system automatically generates an electronic (PDF) proof, which is then used for reviewing purposes. All correspondence, including the editor’s request for revision and final decision, is sent by e-mail.

An eventual revised manuscript is uploaded the same way as the initial submission. The system automatically generates an electronic (PDF) proof, which is then used for reviewing purposes. All correspondence, including the editor’s request for revision and final decision, is sent by e-mail.

File Format
Please upload source files and not pdf files. Any figure files should be uploaded separately, and should have high density of at least 300 dpi at a size suitable for printing.

Submission Requirements

Language
Manuscripts should be written in English. Spelling (British or American) should be consistent throughout.

Abstract and Keywords
Authors should include an abstract of approximately 150 words as well as 5-8 keywords.

Manuscript Structure

General
Articles, notes, and book reviews should be submitted in Microsoft Word via the Journal's on-line submission system. All manuscripts will be subjected to a peer-review process by the Editorial Committee. All submissions must be original.

Font
The abstract and footnotes should be typed in 10 point Times New Roman. All other text should be 12 point Times New Roman.

Paragraphs
The first paragraph of new sections should be flush left. Subsequent paragraphs should be indented by 0.25” or 0.5 cm.

Titles
Contributions should include a title that is both descriptive and concise. All submissions should be single spaced (12-pt font) pages, including abstract, keywords, tables, figures, notes and appendices. The text file should be typed as flat text, with as little formatting as possible.
Author's Name
Authors' names should be shown in full. If the author wishes to indicate the surname first, it should be capitalized.

Diplomatic and Consular Law in the Age of the Internet - Does the Tradition Still Hold?

CHOI Won-Mog

Autobiographical Note
Autobiographical details should appear as the first numbered footnote of each contribution and acknowledgements (if any) may also be included.

Professor of Law (Korea), Ewha Law School, Ewha Womans Univ. I wish to thank A, B, and C for comments on an earlier draft.

Abstract and Keywords
All manuscripts should be accompanied by an abstract of 150 words or less in 12 point Times New Roman and 3-8 keywords. This text should be not italicized, and indented both left and right by 0.25” or 0.5 cm.

Headings
When numbering the sections of the manuscript, please use the following heading style:

1 Introduction
2 Impact of Internet on Diplomacy - Emergence of “Internet Diplomacy”
  2.1 Cyber Negotiation
  2.2 Diplomacy in Public Opinion
3 Internet and Law of Diplomatic Immunity and Privilege
  3.1 Inviolability of Premises
  3.2 Inviolability of Archives and Documents
  3.3 Freedom of Communication
  3.3.1 Official Correspondence
4 Internet and Law of Settlement of International Disputes
5 Conclusion

Capitalization
Where reference is made to a specific office, organization, or body then the first letter of this should be capitalized. Where the reference is general or non-specific then lower-case letters should be used.
“A court must decide the case before it. The International Court of Justice is no exception. The Court cannot reinterpret...”
Titles of cited works will be capitalized in “title case”. The following should therefore be capitalized: (i) the first word; (ii) if there is a subtitle, the first letter of the first word of the subtitle; (iii) all other words in the title except articles (“the”, “a”, “an”), conjunctions (“and”, “but”, “or”, etc.), and prepositions of fewer than five letters (“on”, “with”, but “Amongst”, “Between”).

Italics
Foreign words should be italicized.

Abbreviations and Contractions
A full stop (.) should be used in conjunction with all abbreviations and contractions except in the case of proper names. Please also note that there should not be a space between the periods. For example, “Company” is abbreviated to “Co.”, “exempli gratia” is abbreviated to “e.g.”, “free trade agreements” is abbreviated to “F.T.A.s”, and “Limited” is contracted to “Ltd.”, whereas the “United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization” is abbreviated to “UNESCO”, the “International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights” is abbreviated to “ICCPR”, and the “Reciprocal Enforcement of Commonwealth Judgments Act” is abbreviated to “RECJA”.

References and Citations
It is the contributor’s responsibility to ensure that all references and citations are correct.
The first time you cite a source, use the full citation in the footnote.
Please mention the DOI for journal articles whenever available.
Ibid., as an abbreviation for ibidem may be used for a second footnote identical to the one above.
Subsequent references use the author’s last name, (short title if the author cited has more than one reference), and page number.
Name, supra note X at XX.

Journal Articles

Following citation:
AUTHOR, supra note 43, at 50.

Books
A. Author & B. Author, The Title of the Book, 1-10 (Publisher, City, 2021).

Quotations
Quotations should be clearly indicated and it is vital that they are accurate. Use double quotation marks and single quotes within double quotes: “God said, ‘Let there be light.’” However, single quotes are used if they are in the original text quoted. Where letters or words are replaced or inserted within a quotation, the replacement or inserted letters or words should be indicated in square brackets “[ ]”. Where words, phrases, or sentences are omitted within a quotation, the omission should be indicated by ellipses “...”. No indication of punctuation before or after the ellipsis is necessary.

Block Quotes
Where the quotation will run to more than forty words it should be typed as a separate paragraph in 10 point Times New Roman, left-indentated and right-indentated by 0.25” or 0.5 cm.

Notes and Book Reviews
Notes and book reviews have a 3000-word limit (including footnotes) and should be in 10 point Times New Roman. Footnotes should also be kept to a minimum. Reviewers should include all relevant information relating to the manuscript. It should include the title of the note or book reviewed in italics, and the edition of the book being reviewed in parentheses “( )” if more than one edition of the book has been published. This should be followed by the name(s) of the author(s)/editor(s) with surname/family name in all capitals.
Instructions for Authors

Book Reviews
The following publication information should also be included: place of publication, name of publisher, year of publication, total number of pages inclusive of the index (separate subtotals for preliminary matter, the tables and main text should be provided where they are separately numbered), the type of binding (softcover/hardcover), and the price of the book.

Publication

Proofs
Upon acceptance, a PDF of the article proofs will be sent to each author by e-mail to check carefully for factual and typographic errors. Authors are responsible for checking these proofs and are strongly urged to make use of the Comment & Markup toolbar to note their corrections directly on the proofs. At this stage in the production process only minor corrections are allowed. Alterations to the original manuscript at this stage will result in considerable delay in publication and, therefore, are not accepted unless charged to the author. Proofs should be returned within 7 days of receipt to the journal manager.

E-Offprints
A PDF file of the article will be supplied free of charge by the publisher to authors for personal use. Brill is a RoMEO yellow publisher. The Author retains the right to self-archive the submitted (pre-peer-review) version of the article at any time. The submitted version of an article is the author's version that has not been peer-reviewed, nor had any value added to it by Brill (such as formatting or copy editing). The Author retains the right to self-archive the accepted (peer-reviewed) version without any embargo period. The accepted version means the version which has been accepted for publication and contains all revisions made after peer reviewing and copy editing, but has not yet been typeset in the publisher's lay-out. The publisher's lay-out must not be used in any repository or on any website (brill.com/resources/authors/publishing-books-brill/self-archiving-rights).

Consent to Publish

Transfer of Copyright
By submitting a manuscript, the author agrees that the copyright for the article is transferred to the publisher if and when the article is accepted for publication. For that purpose the author needs to sign the Consent to Publish form which will be sent with the first proofs of the manuscript.

Open Access
Should the author wish to publish the article in Open Access he/she can choose the Brill Open option. This allows for non-exclusive Open Access publication under a Creative Commons license in exchange for an Article Publication Charge (APC), upon signing a special Brill Open Consent to Publish Form. More information on Brill Open can be found on brill.com/brillopen.
