

Scope

China and Asia: A Journal in Historical Studies (CAHS) is a peer-reviewed English-language forum for historical research on relations between China and other regions of Asia during both the pre-modern and modern periods. Its purpose is to promote communication and exchange among the global Asian studies community, especially among scholars based in Asian countries. CAHS publishes manuscripts focusing on the political, economic, social and cultural interactions between China and other parts of Asia, as well as studies covering a broader geographic area with Asia as a central part. The journal welcomes contributions representing diverse perspectives, and will give special attention to submissions from emerging scholars and scholars based in underrepresented regions. Occasionally, CAHS will publish special issues on selected topics. Colleagues who are interested in organizing and editing special issues should contact the editors directly. China and Asia also publishes reviews of books relevant to the themes of the journal. Colleagues and scholars who want to recommend books for review or write reviews for the journal should contact our book review editors.

Ethical and Legal Conditions

The publication of a manuscript in a peer-reviewed work is expected to follow standards of ethical behavior for all parties involved in the act of publishing: authors, editors, and reviewers. Authors, editors, and reviewers should thoroughly acquaint themselves with Brill's publication ethics, which may be downloaded here: brill.com/page/ethics/publication-ethics-cope-compliance.

Online Submission

CAHS now has online submission only. Authors should submit their manuscript online via the Editorial Manager (EM) online submission system at: editorialmanager.com/cahs.

First-time users of EM need to register first. Go to the website and click on the "Register Now" link in the login menu. Enter the information requested. During registration, you can fill in your username and password. If you should forget your Username and Password, click on the "send login details" link in the login section, and enter your e-mail address exactly as you entered it when you registered. Your access codes will then be e-mailed to you.

Prior to submission, authors are encouraged to read the "Instructions for Authors". When submitting via the website, you will be guided stepwise through the creation and uploading of the various files.

A revised document is uploaded the same way as the initial submission. The system automatically generates an electronic (PDF) proof, which is then used for reviewing purposes. All correspondence, including the editor's request for revision and final decision, is sent by e-mail.

Double-blinded Peer Review

CAHS uses a double-blind peer review system, which means that manuscript author(s) do not know who the reviewers are, and that reviewers do not know the names of the author(s). When you submit your article via Editorial Manager, you will be asked to submit a separate title page that includes the full title of the manuscript, the names and complete contact details of all authors, the abstract, keywords, and any acknowledgement texts. This page will not be accessible to the referees. All other files (manuscript, figures, tables, etc.) should not contain any information concerning authors' names, institutions, etc. The names of these files and the document properties should also be anonymized.

Contact Address

For any questions or problems relating to your manuscript please contact Ms. Zoe Chueng and Dr. Xiaorong Han at zoe.cheung@polyu.edu.hk; xiaorong.han@polyu.edu.hk. For questions about Editorial Manager, authors can also contact the Brill EM Support Department at: em@brill.com.

Books for Review

Books for review should be sent to the following address: cahs.journal@polyu.edu.hk.

Submission Requirements

Language

All materials should be written in American English, and English translation of all quotations in another language must be provided.

Types of Contributions

Articles, research notes and book reviews are accepted for publication.

Unicode Fonts and Non-Roman Scripts

The Editors require the use of Unicode fonts. We suggest use of the Brill letter font and SimSun for Chinese characters. For more information, please see brill.com/about/brill-fonts.

Length

Articles should not be longer than 13,000 words, including quotations and footnotes.

For longer articles, authors should contact the editor. All articles must include a brief abstract of up to 250 words that summarizes the essential points and findings, five to six keywords, and a brief CV with contact information.

The length of each book review should be within 2000 words.

Manuscript Structure

Articles

Articles should be organized as follows: title, abstract, keywords, body text, footnotes, and bibliography.

Book reviews

Book reviews should be organized as follows: Author/Editor(s) [surname, given name, followed by initial(s)]. Year of publication. Title (including subtitle) in italics. City: Publisher, number of pages, cover (HB or PB), price, ISBN. This information is followed by a blank line, after which the review starts. The reviewer's name (flush right) and affiliation (flush left) should be placed at the end.

Abstract

Articles should include an English abstract of up to 150 words. It should be headed by the word Abstract.

Keywords

An article should be provided with 5-6 keywords for indexing purposes. They should be placed below the abstract. The keywords should be lower case and headed by the word Keywords.

Headings

Limit manuscript sections and sub-sections to 3 heading levels. Set headings flush left with sentence-style capitalization. First-level headings should be bold. Second-level headings should be both bold and italic. Third level headings should be italic but not bold (This is not how the headings will appear in print, but it will guide the editors and compositor).

Illustrations

Each illustration must be submitted electronically as a .tiff, .eps, or .jpg. The author will be responsible for providing the illustrations in a form that is suitable for publication, for obtaining permissions, and for paying any permission, use, or processing fees involved with the illustrations, if the copyright does not rest with them.

References

For notes and bibliography, the journal follows The Chicago Manual of Style, 16th Edition. For more information and examples, please go here: chicagomanualofstyle.org/tools\_citationguide/citation-guide-1.html.

Footnotes

The full reference should be used at first mention, including specific page referenced, and can be abbreviated for all other instances.

Asian Languages

For the Romanization of Asian languages, the use of Chinese, Japanese and Korean characters, and the citation of Asian language sources, CAHS follows the style sheet of the Harvard Journal of Asiatic Studies, which is available at hjas.org/submissions/style-sheet.

Publication

Proofs

Upon acceptance, a PDF of the article proof sheets will be sent to the author by e-mail to check for factual and typographic errors. In the event of a multi-authored contribution, proof sheets are sent to the first named author unless otherwise requested. Authors are responsible for checking these proofs and are strongly urged to make use of the Comment & Markup toolbar to note their corrections directly on the proof sheets. At this stage in the production process only minor corrections are allowed. Significant alterations to the original manuscript at this stage will result in considerable delay in publication and, therefore, are not accepted unless charged to the author. Proof sheets should be returned promptly.

E-Offprints

A PDF file of the article will be supplied free of charge by the publisher to authors for personal use. Brill is a RoMEO yellow publisher. The Author retains the right to self-archive the submitted (pre-peer-review) version of the article at any time. The submitted version of an article is the author's version that has not been peer-reviewed, nor had any value added to it by Brill (such as formatting or copy editing). The Author retains the right to self-archive the accepted (peer-reviewed) version after an embargo period of 12 months. The accepted version means the version which has been accepted for publication and contains all revisions made after peer reviewing and copy editing, but has not yet been typeset in the publisher's lay-out. The publisher's lay-out must not be used in any repository or on any website (brill.com/resources/authors/publishing-books-brill/self-archiving-rights).

Consent to Publish

Transfer of Copyright

By submitting a manuscript, the author agrees that the copyright for the article is transferred to the publisher if and when the article is accepted for publication. For that purpose the author needs to sign the Consent to Publish form which will be sent with the first proofs of the manuscript.

Open Access

Should the author wish to publish the article in Open Access, he/she can choose the Brill Open option. This allows for non-exclusive Open Access publication under a Creative Commons license in exchange for an Article Publication Charge (APC), upon signing a special Brill Open Consent to Publish Form. More information on Brill Open can be found on brill.com/brillopen.
