Scope

Erudition and the Republic of Letters (ERL) is a peer-reviewed journal devoted primarily to the history of scholarship, intellectual history, and to the republica literaria broadly conceived. It encapsulates multifarious aspects of higher learning as well as the manner in which such knowledge transcends confessional and geopolitical boundaries. This seems to be a propitious time for such an enterprise, as there exists a lively, and mostly young, community of scholars who carry out excellent and exciting work. Erudition and the Republic of Letters seeks to establish itself as the premier venue of its kind, and cater to the needs and aspirations of this community, while exhibiting the viability of the subject matter to students. The journal’s policy is to not impose arbitrary word limit, but allow the content of essays determine length. The journal includes scholarly articles as well as editions of texts and book reviews, from the late Middle Ages to the end of the Nineteenth Century. Erudition and the Republic of Letters may occasionally publish a primary source but it is devoted primarily to interpretative essays and reviews. By publishing such works, it aims to expand the available scholarly resources, and further invigorate the scholarly community.

If the submission includes figures, tables, or large sections of text that have been published previously, the author must have obtained written permission from the original copyright owner(s) to reproduce these items in the current manuscript in both the online and print publications of the journal. All copyrighted material must be properly credited in the manuscript. For more information on the reuse of figures, please go to brill.com/downloads/Rights-in-Images.pdf.

Ethical and Legal Conditions

The publication of a manuscript in a peer-reviewed work is expected to follow standards of ethical behavior for all parties involved in the act of publishing: authors, editors, and reviewers. Authors, editors, and reviewers should thoroughly acquaint themselves with Brill’s publication ethics, which may be downloaded here: brill.com/page/ethics/publication-ethics-cope-compliance.

Online Submission

Authors are strongly encouraged to submit their manuscript online via the Editorial Manager (EM) online submission system at editorialmanager.com/erl.

First-time users of EM need to register first. Go to the website and click on the "Register Now" link in the login menu. Enter the information requested. During registration, you can fill in your username and password. If you should forget this username and password, click on the "send login details" link in the login section, and enter your e-mail address exactly as you entered it when you registered. Your access codes will then be e-mailed to you.
Prior to submission, authors are encouraged to read the ‘Instructions for Authors.’ When submitting via the website, you will be guided through the creation and uploading of the various files. A revised document is uploaded the same way as the initial submission. The system automatically generates an electronic (PDF) proof, which is then used for reviewing purposes. All correspondence, including the editor’s request for revision and final decision, is sent by e-mail. Authors may also provide the names and email address of suitable or unsuitable reviewers.

File Formats
Various formats are allowed for the initial submission, including PDF files. The final revision must be as a source file in Word or another suitable word processor document.

Contact Address
For any questions or problems relating to your manuscript please contact the Editor-in-Chief Mordechai Feingold at: feingold@hss.caltech.edu. For questions about Editorial Manager, authors can also contact the Brill EM Support Department at: em@brill.com.

When submitting a manuscript, please note:
- The editorial board tries to keep the reviewing process as short as possible and to inform the author within two months after submission.
- The author receives proofs in about 6 weeks after acceptance. The paper will be published about 3 months after acceptance.

Submission Requirements

General
The journal is peer-reviewed, which means that all manuscripts will be refereed by the Editors with the help of external experts. Manuscripts that are submitted for initial consideration should therefore be complete, including all notes, bibliographical references, tables, etc.
Manuscripts must be clearly typewritten with numbered pages, double-line spacing and wide margins throughout.
Do not use desktop publishing features such as justification or centring. Do not hyphenate words at the end of a line. TAB should be restricted to a paragraph indent.
Final versions must be proofread carefully before submission and authors may be requested to make changes to their text in accordance with the readers’ comments. Please use your spelling and grammar check; final versions that are not corrected may be returned for renewed proofreading.
For general rules on style not touched upon in the style sheet (see below), please refer to the Chicago Manual of Style (16th ed., University of Chicago Press, 2010, online at: chicagomanualofstyle.org/home.html or the most recent edition).
The journal reserves the right to copy-edit contributions to conform to its style.
Language

Contributions to ERL must be written in English. Spelling should be consistent throughout.

Non-Roman Script and Transliteration

If a special font is used, please provide a copy of the font. Greek texts should be left in the original and will be printed in Greek characters. If possible, use Kadmos as your font. In all other cases, Greek words should be transliterated according to the system adopted by the IJMES. If possible, use TranslitLS font. Other non-Roman alphabets should be transliterated according to the style sheet in the Chicago Manual of Style and should be italicised. Latin and other foreign languages not requiring transcription should be italicised in the typescript.

Manuscript Structure

Contributions should be typed with numbered pages, numbered lines, double line spacing and wide margins throughout.

The Title of the manuscript should be in roman (capitals only for the first letter and the first letters of proper nouns) should be as brief and informative as possible. In addition, a short title should be provided, which should not exceed 50 characters, spaces included.

Authors names in roman with capitals as normally used by the author (e.g., M.P. Haley; Els Van Duyse; Johan G. van Rhijn; P.G. McDonald; D. Muller-Schwarze), first name or initials as preferred, names separated by commas and by ‘&’ between the last two names, with references to affiliation addresses as superscripts (e.g. 1), or 1,2 in ascending order).

Affiliation: the institute where the work was done should be indicated under the authors’ names, with the first letters of major words in capitals. When the authors are based at different institutes, this should be indicated in superscript in front of the institute (e.g. ‘Leiden University – corresponding to the references under ‘authors’).

E-mail addresses of corresponding authors may be added as footnotes.

Summary and Keywords

Each article should be accompanied by an abstract in English of 150 words or less, which should mention all the principal facts and conclusions set forth in the paper. A similar summary in another relevant language may be added, but this is not required.

Three to eight keywords should be given.
Footnotes
Please use footnotes, not endnotes. Footnotes should be brief and limit themselves to what is necessary to document an argument. They should be numbered consecutively throughout the paper. Please place footnote numbers at the end of sentences after punctuation.

Notes
Notes will be published as footnotes, therefore please include notes as such. Captions (including proper acknowledgements) should be placed at the appropriate position in the article text or sent separately.

Headings
Main headings in bold (Summary, Introduction, Material and methods, Results, Discussion, Acknowledgements, References or other variants if appropriate), capitals only for first letter of each sentence and first letters of proper nouns, separated from the subsequent text by an empty line.
Second level headings in italics, flush left, capitals only for first letter of each sentence and first letters of proper nouns, separated by an empty line from the text that follows.
Sub-subheadings in roman type, aligned to the left, capitals only for first letter of each sentence and proper nouns, separated by an empty line from the preceding text, the following text starts on the next line.

Abbreviations
Abbreviations should be followed by ‘.’ unless the abbreviation is written with the last letter of the original word at the end position (thus: i.e. – e.g. – cf. – etc. but eds – Dr – edn) – measures (such as mm cm m s l) without ‘.’.

Bold
Bold should only be used in exceptional cases of extra emphasis or in some formulas.

Capital Letters
Capitals should only be used for first letters of sentences, first letters proper nouns and first letters of specific words (e.g. tables, figures, experiments, behaviour patterns) that should be emphasized; small capitals for words that should be printed in capitals (e.g. ANOVA, MANOVA)

Italics
Italics should only be used for scientific species names, words that need to be emphasized (no italics for: e.g., i.e., et al., etc., cf.) and for mathematical and statistical variables such as p, F, U, t, N, r, but not for SD (standard deviation), SE (standard error), df (degrees of freedom) and NS (non significant).
Quotations
Use single quotation marks (’) for isolated words or conceptions, double for literal quotes (“).

References
Full bibliographical references should be given in the following form:
Short bibliographical references in the footnotes ought to be limited to short titles, of the following form:

Figures and Tables
All figures and tables must be cited consecutively in the text. References to tables and figures should consist of the complete word, first letter capital (also in the middle of a sentence or in brackets) + number in Arabic numerals.

Tables should be kept as simple as possible with at least 3 horizontal lines and additional lines if appropriate, data ordered in a convenient way. The title should give all details that are needed to understand the table except obvious footnotes.

Figures should be submitted as separate source files in .eps, .tif, or .jpg format, in a size suitable for the typesetting area of the journal which is 118 x 180 mm. The resolution of these files should be at least 300 dpi for half-tone figures, and 600 dpi for line drawings. Number the files, and indicate in the manuscript where they are to appear (Fig. 1 here).

The text in a figure must be legible, and font size should not be smaller than 7 pt. The size of this lettering for any text in a figure should be the same for all figures in the manuscript.

Figure captions should not be attached to the figures but should be typed on separate pages and attached to the end of the manuscript.
Copyright
The use of general descriptive names, trademarks, etc., in this publication, even if the former are not specifically identified, is not to be taken as a sign that such names are exempt from the relevant protective Instructions to Authors’ laws and regulations and may accordingly be used freely by anyone.

Publication

Proofs
Upon acceptance, a PDF of the article proofs will be sent to the corresponding author by e-mail to check carefully for factual and typographic errors. Authors are responsible for checking these proofs and are strongly urged to make use of the Comment & Markup toolbar to note their corrections directly on the proofs. At this stage in the production process only minor corrections are allowed. Alterations to the original manuscript at this stage will result in considerable delay in publication and, therefore, are not accepted unless charged to the author. Proofs should be corrected and returned to the managing editor as quickly as possible.

E-offprints
A PDF file of the article will be supplied free of charge by the publisher to authors for personal use. Brill is a RoMEO yellow publisher. The Author retains the right to self-archive the submitted (pre-peer-review) version of the article at any time. The submitted version of an article is the author’s version that has not been peer-reviewed, nor had any value added to it by Brill (such as formatting or copy editing). The Author retains the right to self-archive the accepted (peer-reviewed) version after an embargo period of 12 months. The accepted version means the version which has been accepted for publication and contains all revisions made after peer reviewing and copy editing, but has not yet been typeset in the publisher’s lay-out. The publisher’s lay-out must not be used in any repository or on any website (brill.com/resources/authors/publishing-books-brill/self-archiving-rights).

Consent to Publish

Transfer of Copyright
By submitting a manuscript, the author agrees that the copyright for the article is transferred to the publisher if and when the article is accepted for publication. For that purpose the author needs to sign the Consent to Publish form which will be sent with the first proofs of the manuscript.
Open Access

Should the author wish to publish the article in Open Access he/she can choose the Brill Open option. This allows for non-exclusive Open Access publication under a Creative Commons license in exchange for an Article Publication Charge (APC), upon signing a special Brill Open Consent to Publish Form. More information on Brill Open can be found on brill.com/brillopen.
