

Scope

Fascism (FASC) publishes peer-reviewed articles in English, mainly but not exclusively by both seasoned researchers and postgraduates exploring the phenomenon of fascism in a comparative context and focusing on such topics as the uniqueness and generic aspects of fascism, patterns in the causal aspects/genesis of various fascisms in political, economic, social, historical, and psychological factors, their expression in art, culture, ritual and propaganda, elements of continuity between interwar and postwar fascisms, their relationship to national and cultural crisis, revolution, modernity/modernism, political religion, totalitarianism, capitalism, communism, extremism, charismatic dictatorship, patriarchy, terrorism, fundamentalism, and other phenomena related to the rise of political and social extremism.

Open Access

Fascism is a fully Open Access journal, which means that all content is freely accessible online. All articles are published under a non-exclusive Open Access license in exchange for an Article Publication Charge. This journal is partly funded by the Netherlands Organization of Scientific Research (NWO), therefore the APC is reduced (€645/US$855, excluding applicable taxes). The author(s) keep full copyright and give Brill permission to publish by signing a special Brill Open Consent to Publish. The Brill Open Consent to Publish will be sent to you by the responsible desk-editor. For more information on Brill Open go to: brill.com/brillopen or contact brillopen@brill.com.

Ethical and Legal Conditions

The publication of a manuscript in a peer-reviewed work is expected to follow standards of ethical behavior for all parties involved in the act of publishing: authors, editors, and reviewers. Authors, editors, and reviewers should thoroughly acquaint themselves with Brill's publication ethics, which may be downloaded here: brill.com/page/ethics/publication-ethics-cope-compliance.

Online Submission

Fascism uses online submission only. Authors should submit their manuscript online via the Editorial Manager (EM) online submission system at: editorialmanager.com/fasc.

First-time users of EM need to register first. Go to the website and click on the "Register Now" link in the login menu. Enter the information requested. During registration, you can fill in your username and password. If you should forget your Username and Password, click on the "send login details" link in the login section, and enter your e-mail address exactly as you entered it when you registered. Your access codes will then be e-mailed to you.

Instructions for Authors

Prior to submission, authors are encouraged to read the 'Instructions for Authors'. When submitting via the website, you will be guided stepwise through the creation and uploading of the various files. A revised document is uploaded the same way as the initial submission. The system automatically generates an electronic (PDF) proof, which is then used for reviewing purposes. All correspondence, including the editor's request for revision and final decision, is sent by e-mail.

Double-blinded Peer Review

FASC uses a double-blind peer review system, which means that manuscript author(s) do not know who the reviewers are, and that reviewers do not know the names of the author(s). All manuscripts received are evaluated by the editors and after pre-screening, submitted to one or two anonymous external referees. In a separate title page file, authors must provide the full title of the manuscript, as well as their current institutional affiliation with e-mail address, full postal address and telephone number where they can be reached, brief biographical data if desired, the abstract, keywords, and any acknowledgement texts. This page will not be accessible to the referees. All other files (manuscript, figures, tables, etc.) should not contain any information concerning author names, institutions, etc. The names of these files and the document properties should also be anonymised.

File Format

In any word processor: save and send the file in RTF or Word.doc format. Use a Unicode font, Brill suggests the Brill font (brill.com/about/brill-fonts). If you need to use other fonts, always send them along with the text file. The file name should include the author's name and an abbreviated title.

Contact Address

For any questions or problems relating to your manuscript please contact the Editors at: fascismjournal@niod.knaw.nl. For eventual questions about Editorial Manager, authors can also contact the Brill EM Support Department at: em@brill.com.

Submission Requirements

General

Submitted manuscripts should be double-spaced (including footnotes, which should appear at the bottom of the page). Keep formatting to an absolute minimum. Use italics only in your files to format the text which has to be typeset as italics. Indent paragraphs with a single tab.

For questions concerning editorial style, consult The Chicago Manual of Style, 16th ed. (Chicago: University of Chicago Press, 2010) online at: chicagomanualofstyle.org/tools_citationguide.html. It contains numerous sample entries for notes, and authors are encouraged to consult them. Also see examples in these Instructions for references, on p. 4.

Instructions for Authors

Language

Manuscripts should be written in English. American and British spelling should not be mixed: spelling should be consistent throughout. The preferred form in English is American English, unless the author is a native speaker of British English. The text must be grammatically correct and in good literary style. The manuscript should have been checked before submission by a qualified native speaker.

Where both -ise and -ize spellings are possible, the latter should be used, e.g. in “standardize”, “italicize”, “realize”; but note that exercise, circumcise, compromise and many other words must be spelled with -ise. For questions concerning spelling, hyphenation, and punctuation, consult Webster’s Third New International Dictionary and Merriam-Webster’s Collegiate Dictionary, 10th ed.

Unicode Fonts

Using Unicode fonts will reduce the risk of error in typesetting non-Roman text or diacritics. For more information on fonts and Unicode, see brill.com/fileasset/downloads_static/static_fonts_latinipaunicodelist.pdf; for more details on how to handle special scripts and transliteration, see brill.com/page/fonts/fonts-scripts-and-unicode.

Length

Articles should consist of approximately 8500 words.

Manuscript Structure

Abstract and Keywords

Submissions must include an abstract of a maximum of 250 words and five to eight keywords.

Headings

All headings should be aligned flush left and unnumbered.

Footnotes

This journal uses footnotes and not endnotes or a bibliography. Footnotes should be numbered consecutively (using Arabic rather than Roman numerals), double-spaced, and in the same font size as the main text. A note number may be used only once: sub-numbering of notes (e.g. note 30a) is not acceptable. Authors should eliminate lengthy discursive notes either by omitting the material or by working it into the narrative body of the text.

All references should be given in full at first mention. Subsequent citations can be abbreviated. See the examples at: chicagomanualofstyle.org/tools_citationguide.html.

Because such content is subject to change, include an access date or, if available, a date that the site was last modified.

Quotations

If they are brief (5 lines or fewer), quotations should be run on with the text. The practice in the United Kingdom and elsewhere is that single marks are used first (') and then (") double quotation marks. Longer quotations should be indented, without quotation marks. All indented quotations should be typed double-spaced.

Instructions for Authors

Translations & Abbreviations

Names of non-English organizations, non-English book titles and non-English expressions in the running text are written in italics in the original language. The abbreviation or/and English translation is written between square brackets (not in italics).

Comitati d'Azione per l'Universalità di Roma [CAUR; Committees of Action for the Universality of Rome]
Gli amori degli uomini [The Sexual Relations of Mankind]

Figures

All figures must be cited consecutively in the text. Figures should be submitted as separate source files in .eps, .tif, or .jpg format, in a size suitable for the typesetting area of the journal. The resolution of these files should be at least 300 dpi for half-tone figures, and 600 dpi for line drawings. Number the files and clearly mark the spot where the photo should be inserted ("insert ill. 2"). Photocopies or scans from books are not acceptable, since they will reproduce very poorly. For art images, captions should include the artist's name (if relevant/known), title and/or description of the artwork, year of the artwork, year or time period (if known), medium, size, and archival location.

Figure Captions

Provide a list of captions for all illustrations and photographs at the very end of the article, typed double spaced. Identify the illustration by its number, describe it with a concise caption (include the location and date, if relevant/known), cite the full source, and acknowledge credit (permission granted). For art images, captions should include the artist's name (if relevant/known), title and/or description of the artwork, year of the artwork, year or time period (if known), medium, size, and archival location.

Tables

Tables should be numbered and identified by number and by title. (For example: Table 3 Agricultural Production, 1935-1945.) Where necessary, include source and/or credit.

Numbers

Spell out numbers from zero to ninety-nine; century numbers (nineteenth century); round numbers such as one hundred or one thousand; fractions and numbers that begin a sentence.

Publication

Proofs

Upon acceptance, a PDF of the article proofs will be sent to authors by e-mail to check carefully for factual and typographic errors. Authors are responsible for checking these proofs and are strongly urged to make use of the Comment & Markup toolbar to note their corrections directly on the proofs. At this stage in the production process only minor corrections are allowed. Alterations to the original
