

Instructions for Authors

Scope

Frontiers of Literary Studies in China (FLSC) is a fully refereed English-language academic journal published in four issues annually by Higher Education Press. The journal is distributed by Brill to customers outside China. The journal publishes original research articles, review articles, research notes, and book reviews covering all areas and historical periods of Chinese literature, especially those reflecting new developments in the field. Articles will be reviewed anonymously by external referees.

Instructions for Submissions

Article manuscripts, including notes, references, and tables, should normally not exceed 35 pages or approximately 10,000 words in length.

Authors should provide an abstract of 200 words and 3 to 8 keywords.

All manuscripts must be typed with 12-point fonts and double-spaced.

Documentation should follow the style recommended in the MLA Handbook (Seventh Edition).

Chinese names and places should follow the Standard Chinese Pinyin System.

Electronic submission is acceptable. All submissions, correspondence to the editors, and books for review should be sent to:
