Instructions for Authors

Scope

International Journal of Jungian Studies (IJJS) bridges the professional, clinical, and academic worlds of Jungian Studies for an international audience. It brings Jungian theory and practice into dialogue and debate with a wide variety of academic areas of study, and therapeutic concerns. The editors encourage the submission of papers from Jungian Studies academics, psychoanalysts of all traditions -including analytical psychology, philosophers, anthropologists, critical theorists, feminists, political theorists, world-religious studies, sociologists, bio-ethicists, neuroscientists, and other sciences including students of these approaches in an ongoing critique/engagement with Analytical Psychology such as literature, film and media studies and fine art or art history. The IJJS wishes to continue the tradition of C.G. Jung in being open to a broad range of intellectual and experiential traditions while seeking to understand the human experience. The IJJS publishes peer-reviewed, cutting-edge original articles of high academic quality. The journal is committed to embracing the diversity of Jungian thought and welcomes articles reporting research on:

- analytical psychology themes from academic, clinical, symbolic, cultural and inter-cultural perspectives;
- comparative Jungian research in relation to other psychoanalytic and psychotherapeutic themes;
- the interface between Jungian studies and other academic disciplines.

All research articles in this journal, including those in special issues, special sections or supplements, have undergone rigorous peer review, based on initial editor screening and refereeing by external, independent referees. All peer review is double blinded. The IJJS is published by Brill in collaboration with the International Association for Jungian Studies (jungstudies.net).

Ethical and Legal Conditions

The publication of a manuscript in a peer-reviewed work is expected to follow standards of ethical behavior for all parties involved in the act of publishing: authors, editors, and reviewers. Authors, editors, and reviewers should thoroughly acquaint themselves with Brill's publication ethics, which may be downloaded here: brill.com/page/ethics/publication-ethics-cope-compliance.

Online Submission

IJJS uses online submission only. Authors should submit their manuscript online via the Editorial Manager (EM) online submission system at: editorialmanager.com/ijjs. First-time users of EM need to register first. Go to the website and click on the "Register Now" link in the login menu. Enter the information requested. During registration, you can fill in your username and password. If you should forget your Username and Password, click on the “send login details” link in the login section, and enter your e-mail address exactly as you entered it when you registered. Your access codes will then be e-mailed to you.

Prior to submission, authors are expected to read the “Instructions for Authors,” and follow the guidance therein. When submitting via the website, you will be guided stepwise through the creation and uploading of the various files. A revised document is uploaded the same way as the initial submission. The system automatically generates an electronic (PDF) proof, which is then used for reviewing purposes. All correspondence, including the editor's request for revision and final decision, is sent by e-mail.

Double-anonymous Peer Review

IJJS uses a double-anonymous peer review system, which means that manuscript author(s) do not know who the reviewers are, and that reviewers do not know the names of the author(s). When you submit your article via Editorial Manager, you will be asked to submit a separate title page file that includes the full title of the manuscript, the names and complete contact details of all authors, the abstract, keywords, and any acknowledgement texts. This page will not be accessible to the referees. All other files (manuscript, figures, tables, etc.) should not contain any information concerning author names, institutions, etc. The names of these files and the document properties should also be anonymized.

Contact Address

For any questions related to your submission, please contact the Editors at: robin.mccoy@comcast.net or edgood01@louisville.edu.

For questions or troubleshooting about the Editorial Manager software, authors can contact the Brill EM Support Department at: support-em@brill.com.

File Format

Please upload source files as Word docs; i.e., .docx and not .pdf files.

Submission Requirements

Thank you for choosing to submit your paper to us. These instructions will ensure we have everything required so your paper can move through the peer review, production, and publication smoothly. Please take time to read and follow them as closely as possible, as doing so will ensure your paper matches the journal's requirements.

Language

Please note that this journal only accepts and publishes manuscripts in English. Any spelling style is acceptable so long as it is consistent within the manuscript.
Instructions for Authors

Non-Roman Scripts
If a special font is used, please provide a copy of the font.

Length
The final draft of a manuscript accepted for publication will normally be no more than 8,000 words in length, including the abstract and keywords.

Manuscript Structure

General
− All manuscripts should be compiled in this order: title page; abstract; keywords; main text introduction, materials and methods, results, discussion; acknowledgments; declaration of interest statement; references; appendices (as appropriate); table(s) with caption(s) (on individual pages); figures; figure captions (as a list). Manuscripts that are submitted for initial consideration should be complete, including all notes, bibliographical references, images, tables, etc. If footnotes are included, they must appear at the bottom of the page.
− If images and tables are included, you must have secured copyright for their use.
− Final versions and printouts must be proofread carefully before submission; please use your spelling and grammar check; final versions that are not corrected will be returned for renewed proofreading.
− Non-native English speakers or those uncertain about the standard of their English should ask a fluent English speaker to proofread the manuscript before submitting.
− Manuscript pages should be numbered consecutively, double-spaced with wide margins on all sides (use ragged rather than justified right margins). Notes should be submitted as footnotes, consecutively numbered.
− The journal reserves the right to copy-edit contributions to conform to its style. Do not use desktop publishing features such as justification, centering, or bold-face type.
− Italics should be indicated by italics. Do not use bold in the text, except for section headings; use italics instead.
− Do not hyphenate words at the end of a line.
− TAB should be restricted to a paragraph indent.

Abstract and Keywords
Articles should include a short abstract (up to 150 words) written in English that defines clearly the thesis and the sources quoted.
For indexing purposes please supply 3-8 keywords (in lowercase letters), to be placed below the abstract.
Instructions for Authors

Headings
Headings should be used at least every 7,000 characters or 1,000 words.

1 The First Level Heading

The text.

1.1 The Second Level Heading

The Text.

Footnotes
Footnotes should be numbered consecutively as 1, 2, 3... in Arabic numerals. The autoformatting of footnotes is required for accepted papers. Your footnotes should be very brief, normally four sentences at most, unless a larger number of citations to several publications are necessary. Extended commentary or parenthetical discussions are important enough to remain within the main body of the paper. Superscript numbers marking footnotes should follow immediately after the punctuation or the quotation. The footnotes should be numbered consecutively and placed at the bottom of each page. No asterisks or roman numerals should be used anywhere.

References
All submissions should end with a Reference section of all cited materials at the end of the paper.

In Text Citations
The format for an in-text citation is this: (Author Year) or (Author Year, page #), e.g.: (Putnam 1990, 68). Multiple citations are separated by a semicolon: (Horgan 1988; Rorty 2003, 18). For multiple authors, only list the first two authors, e.g.: (Heinz, Lao, et al. 2011, 582).

References
The reference list containing all the material cited in the body text is placed at the end of the article. All items cited in the text must be in this list. All items in the reference list must be cited somewhere in the text. The list is alphabetical, based on the last name of the first author. If there are two or more works by the same author, they are arranged chronologically according to year of publication, with earliest date first. At the end of journal references, please also insert the DOI number, whenever available.

Quotations
Set off quotations that are 3 lines long or longer, as block quotes with a blank line before and after the quotation.

Figures
Illustrations may be submitted as glossy photographs, slides, transparencies or electronic files and should be clearly marked. When necessary, crops, horizontal or vertical orientation, enlargement of details, etc. should be indicated on a photocopy of the original. The preferred format for electronic files is TIFF or EPS (for maps), but high-resolution JPG files may be submitted too. When supplied as electronic files, line drawings should have a minimum resolution of 600 dpi [dots per inch], preferably 1200 dpi. Photographs should have a minimum resolution of 300 dpi, preferably 600 dpi.

Files should be the size of the original image or sized to the approximate size of reproduction. Illustrations, tables, and figures must be numbered consecutively (e.g., FIGURE 1, FIGURE 2, etc.) and include captions to give a description and to identify the source of any image or data. All figures and tables must be cited consecutively in the text. Number the files, and indicate in the manuscript where they are to appear, like this: (Fig. 1 here). The text in a figure must be legible, and should not be smaller than font size 9. The size of this lettering for any text in a figure should be the same for all figures in the manuscript. Authors are responsible for obtaining and paying for all copyright and reproduction charges, and we cannot proceed to publication without formal written permission in place. Illustrations and captions (including acknowledgements) should be placed at the very end of the contribution or sent separately.

The text in a figure must be legible, and should not be smaller than corps 9. The size of this lettering for any text in a figure should be the same for all figures in the manuscript.

Tables should appear in the relevant location in the main text; there is no requirement to submit them as separate files. The number and title should be placed above the table in initial caps/headline style. Authors are responsible for clearing copyright of using figures and tables in the articles submitted.

Publication

Proofs

Upon acceptance, a PDF of the article proofs will be sent to the author by e-mail to check carefully for factual and typographic errors. Authors are responsible for checking these proofs and are strongly urged to make use of the Comment & Markup toolbar to note their corrections directly on the proofs. At this stage in the production process only minor corrections are allowed. Alterations to the original manuscript at this stage will result in considerable delay in publication and, therefore, are not accepted unless charged to the author. Proofs should be returned to the Editor.

E-Offprints

A PDF file of the article will be supplied free of charge by the publisher to authors for personal use. Brill is a RoMEO yellow publisher. The Author retains the right to self-archive the submitted (pre-peer-review) version of the article at any time. The submitted version of an article is the author’s version that has not been peer-reviewed, nor had any value added to it by Brill (such as formatting or copy editing). The Author retains the right to self-archive the accepted (peer-reviewed) version without any embargo period.

The accepted version means the version which has been accepted for publication and contains all revisions made after peer reviewing and copy editing, but has not yet been typeset in the publisher’s layout. The publisher's lay-out must not be used in any repository or on any website (brill.com/resources/authors/publishing-books-brill/self-archiving-rights).

License to Publish

Transfer of Copyright
By submitting a manuscript, the author agrees that the copyright for the article is transferred to the publisher if and when the article is accepted for publication. To that end, the author needs to sign the License to Publish form, which will be sent with the first proofs of the manuscript.

Open Access
Should the author wish to publish the article in Open Access he/she can choose the Brill Open option. This allows for non-exclusive Open Access publication under a Creative Commons license in exchange for an Article Publication Charge (APC), upon signing a special Brill Open Consent to Publish Form. More information on Brill Open can be found on brill.com/brillopenaccess.
