Scope

The Journal of Greek Linguistics (JGL) is an established peer-reviewed international journal dedicated to the descriptive and theoretical study of the Greek language from its roots in Ancient Greek down to present-day dialects and varieties. Its target audience includes specialists in both Ancient, Medieval and Modern Greek, besides general linguists.

Open Access

The Journal of Greek Linguistics is now a fully Open Access journal, which means that all content will be freely accessible online. All articles will be published under a non-exclusive Open Access license in exchange for an Article Publication Charge (APC). In the first few years a special introductory rate for the APC has been set at €495/US$655, excluding applicable taxes, and submission charges are waived. The author keeps full copyright and gives Brill permission to publish by signing a special Brill Open Consent to Publish form. The Brill Open Consent to Publish form will be sent by the responsible desk editor. For more information on Brill Open go to: brill.com/brillopen or contact: brillopen@brill.com.

Ethical and Legal Conditions

Please note that submission of an article for publication in any of Brill's journals implies that you have read and agreed to Brill's Ethical and Legal Conditions. The Ethical and Legal Conditions can be found here: brill.com/downloads/conditions.pdf.

Online Submission

Authors are now encouraged to submit their manuscript online via the Editorial Manager (EM) online submission system at editorialmanager.com/JGL. Online submission considerably shortens the overall time-lag from submission to publication.

First-time users of EM need to register first. Go to the website and click on the "Register Now" link in the login menu. Enter the information requested.

When you register, select e-mail as your preferred method of contact. Upon successful registration, you will receive an e-mail message containing your Username and Password. If you should forget your Username and Password, click on the "Send Username/Password" link in the login section, and enter your first name, last name and email address exactly as you had entered it when you registered. Your access codes will then be e-mailed to you.

Prior to submission, authors are encouraged to read the 'Instructions for Authors'. When submitting via the website, you will be guided stepwise through the creation and uploading of the various files.

Instructions for Authors

A revised document is uploaded the same way as the initial submission. The system automatically generates an electronic (PDF) file, which is then used for reviewing purposes. All correspondence, including the editor's request for revision and final decision, is sent by e-mail.

Books for review and announcements of such (including announcement of interest in writing a review) should be sent to Brian D. Joseph (bjoseph@ling.ohio-state.edu).

Double-blind Peer Review

All submitted papers will be subject to double-blinded peer review. For the purpose of reviewing the draft paper should be anonymous. No author details should be identifiable from the article itself or in the acknowledgements. The details of the author(s) should be submitted in a separate file and include the author's name, affiliation, full postal and e-mail addresses.

Contact Address

For additional information or if you need help in uploading your manuscript please visit the author tutorial or online help links given at the right side of the log-in window. For questions about Editorial Manager directly, authors can contact the Brill EM Support Department (em@brill.com). For any questions regarding Open Access, please contact Irene van Rossum (rossum@brill.com). For remaining questions please contact the editors through Anna Roussou (aroussou@upatras.gr).

The journal reserves the right to copy-edit contributions to conform to its style.

Authors should not use desktop publishing features such as justification, centering, or bold-face type. Italics should be indicated by using proper italics. Do not hyphenate words at the end of a line. TAB should be restricted to a paragraph indent.

For general rules on style, see the Chicago Manual of Style, 16th ed., University of Chicago Press, 2010 (chicagomanualofstyle.org/home.html), or the most recent edition) or the MLA Style Guide.

The final draft of a manuscript accepted for publication must be submitted both as hard copy and electronically. Electronic files should be saved in .pdf format. Final versions and printouts must be proofread carefully before submission; please use your spelling and grammar check.

Unicode and Non-Roman Fonts

The Editors request the use of Unicode-friendly fonts only. Updated versions of Times New Roman in Microsoft Windows contain Greek Unicode fonts. For the complete list of Latin and IPA characters in Unicode: brill.com/sites/default/files/special\_scripts\_list\_characters\_latin\_and\_ipa.pdf.

Transliteration and Orthography

Where possible, all examples from languages not using the Latin alphabet should be transliterated using an accepted system of transliteration. Authors should use their chosen system consistently throughout the manuscript.

Where no standard system has been adopted in the literature (e.g. examples of certain dialects never described before), use symbols to represent sounds that are as close to the IPA symbols as possible, and give explanations where appropriate.

Where a transliteration system is already used in the literature, no new transliteration system invented by the author will be accepted. When using Greek, please check the information online at: brill.com/sites/default/files/special\_scripts\_handling\_greek.pdf.

Glosses

To ensure correct alignment, all glosses must be given in table form, please follow the Leipzig Glossing rules, a description of which is given here: eva.mpg.de/lingua/pdf/Glossing-Rules.pdf.

Length

Articles should not exceed 10,000 words (general and research articles) or 1500-3000 words for book reviews. The following should be included: abstract (100 to 150 words), up to six keywords, affiliation details and e-mail address.

Abstracts

Articles should include a short abstract (150 words).

Keywords

Please supply 2-6 keywords (in lowercase letters), to be placed below the abstract, for indexing purposes.

Publication

Proofs

Upon acceptance, a PDF of the article proofs will be sent to the author by e-mail to check carefully for factual and typographic errors. In the event of a multi-authored contribution, proofs are sent to the first-named author unless otherwise requested. Authors are responsible for checking these proofs and are strongly urged to make use of the Comment & Markup toolbar to note their corrections directly on the proofs. At this stage in the production process only minor corrections are allowed. Alterations to the original manuscript at this stage will result in considerable delay in publication and, therefore, are not accepted unless charged to the author. Proofs should be returned promptly.

The Brill Open Consent to Publish form will be sent by the responsible desk editor.
