Instructions for Authors

Scope

The Journal of Labor and Society (JLSO) is a peer-reviewed academic journal covering the political economy of labor, labor movements, and class relations throughout the world. The journal was established in 1997, was published by Wiley Periodicals through 2020, and is published by Brill starting in 2021. The journal’s editorial office is located within the Brooklyn College of the City University of New York Graduate Center for Worker Education. The Journal of Labor and Society publishes peer-reviewed, scientific research into the major social, political, economic, and cultural issues faced by workers around the world. In particular, the journal highlights the transformation of the international economy and aims to situate labor relations and conflict in this wider context. The journal also provides a forum for scholarly and collegial examination of the effects of the history of states, parties, and social movements on labor and work.

Ethical and Legal Conditions

The publication of a manuscript in a peer-reviewed work is expected to follow standards of ethical behavior for all parties involved in the act of publishing: authors, editors, and reviewers. Authors, editors, and reviewers should thoroughly acquaint themselves with Brill’s publication ethics, which may be downloaded here: brill.com/page/ethics/publication-ethics-cope-compliance.

Online submission

JLSO now uses online submission only. Authors should submit their manuscript online via the Editorial Manager (EM) online submission system at: editorialmanager.com/jlso. First-time users of EM need to register first. Go to the website and click on the “Register Now” link in the login menu. Enter the information requested. During registration, you can fill in your username and password. If you should forget your Username and Password, click on the “send login details” link in the login section, and enter your e-mail address exactly as you entered it when you registered. Your access codes will then be e-mailed to you.

Prior to submission, authors are strongly encouraged to read the ‘Instructions for Authors’. When submitting via the website, you will be guided stepwise through the creation and uploading of the various files. A revised document is uploaded the same way as the initial submission. The system automatically generates an electronic (PDF) proof, which is then used for reviewing purposes. All correspondence, including the editor’s request for revision and final decision, is sent by e-mail.

Double-blinded Peer Review

JLSO uses a double-blind peer review system, which means that manuscript author(s) do not know who the reviewers are, and that reviewers do not know the names of the author(s). When you submit your
Instructions for Authors

Article, you will be asked to submit a separate title page which includes the full title of the manuscript, plus the names and complete contact details of all authors, the abstract, keywords, and any acknowledgement texts. This page will not be accessible to the referees. All other files (manuscript, figures, tables, etc.) should not contain any information concerning author names, institutions, etc. The names of these files and the document properties should also be anonymized.

File Format
Please upload source files such as .doc, and not .pdf files.

Contact Address
For any questions or problems relating to your manuscript please contact the Editor-in-Chief, Prof. Immanuel Ness: manny.ness@gmail.com. For eventual questions about Editorial Manager, authors can also contact the Brill EM Support Department at: em@brill.com.

Submission Requirements

Language
Authors are free to use either American English or British English, while also conforming to The Chicago Manual of Style (15th edition) except as set forth below. American English or British English usage must be consistent throughout a submission.

Length
The journal welcomes the following types of submissions:
- Research articles (5,000-12,500 words);
- Book reviews (1,000-2,000 words);
- Review essays (2,000-5,000 words);
- Commentaries (maximum of 5,000 words)

Manuscript Structure

Abstract and Keywords
Author(s) should include an abstract of approximately 150 words and supply 5-8 keywords.

Titles, Subtitles and Headings
Titles, subtitles and text subheadings should be selected for succinctness and interest. Uppercase initial letters should be used. Contributors are encouraged to use two levels of subheadings, flush left. H1 preceded and followed by a line space. Headings H2 and H3 have no line space below it.
Instructions for Authors

H1 Is the First Heading Level
H2 Is the Second Level Heading
If a third level is necessary, H3 Is Roman, indented

Abbreviation of Organization Names
Well-known acronyms such as the US, UN may be used. Only provide an abbreviation when the name appears more than once. The full name should be given at first mention with the capitalized abbreviation in parenthesis; OECD, AU, UNESCO.

Body and Treaty Names
Use the complete name for the first citation, and after, the more familiar version: Commission of the European Union; thereafter, the European Commission.

Block Quotations
Lengthy quotations should be included as a block quotation; preceded by a colon and a line space, indented and then followed by a line space. Do not use italics or quotation marks.

Dates
August 30, 2020

Foreign Words and Phrases
Non-English words in common usage in English such as elite and détente are in roman, terms such as coup d’état should be italicized. If the article quotes from original, unpublished sources in a language other than English, the footnote should provide the text in the original language.

Hyphens
Hyphens are used in prefixes, attributive use ("well-known" author), when two "e"s are together (re-establish) and for fractions (one-third),

Lists
Lists should be used for long or complex items, introduced by a colon and line space. Use bullet points, Starting each item with a capital letter, and then closed by a full stop, and followed by a line space.

Numbers
Spell out numbers to twenty, thereafter use numerals, except at the beginning of a sentence. Do not mix words and numbers (use “from 6 to 60”).
Region Names
Use lower case for general regions, or areas such as northern Europe, but the West, the South. Capitalize terms referring to a definite area, region or country, South Africa, Northern Ireland, South Korea, South America.

References and Citations
Please use only numbered footnotes, not endnotes or a bibliography.
All references should be given in full at first mention and should be as complete as possible. Subsequent citations can be abbreviated to surname, “Chapter Title” (or book title), and date (only if necessary for clarification). Use upper case headline-style titles, in italic for book, journals and television or radio programs.

Figures
Illustrations should be submitted electronically and should be clearly marked. When necessary, crops, horizontal or vertical orientation, enlargement of details, etc. should be indicated. The preferred format for illustrations files is TIFF (or EPS for maps), but high resolution JPG will also be acceptable. Line drawings should have a minimum resolution of 600 dpi [dots per inch], black and white or full color illustrations should have a minimum resolution of 300 dpi. Files should be the size of the original or sized to the approximate size of reproduction. Please note that if you wish to include copyrighted material, you should seek permission (in writing) from the copyright holder.

Publication

Proofs
Upon acceptance, a PDF of the article proofs will be sent to each author by e-mail to check carefully for factual and typographic errors. Authors are responsible for checking these proofs and are strongly urged to make use of the Comment & Markup toolbar to note their corrections directly on the proofs. At this stage in the production process only minor corrections are allowed. Alterations to the original manuscript at this stage will result in considerable delay in publication and, therefore, are not accepted unless charged to the author. Proofs should be returned within 7 days of receipt to the journal manager.

E-offprints
A PDF file of the article will be supplied free of charge by the publisher to authors for personal use. Brill is a RoMEO yellow publisher. The Author retains the right to self-archive the submitted (pre-peer-review) version of the article at any time. The submitted version of an article is the author’s version that has not been peer-reviewed, nor had any value added to it by Brill (such as formatting or copy editing). The Author retains the right to self-archive the accepted (peer-reviewed) version without any embargo period. The accepted version means the version which has been accepted for publication and contains all revisions made after peer reviewing and copy editing, but has not yet been typeset in the publisher’s lay-out. The publisher's lay-out must not be used in any repository or on any website (brill.com/resources/authors/publishing-books-brill/self-archiving-rights).

Consent to Publish

Transfer of Copyright
By submitting a manuscript, the author agrees that the copyright for the article is transferred to the publisher if and when the article is accepted for publication. For that purpose the author needs to sign the Consent to Publish which will be sent with the first proofs of the manuscript.
Instructions for Authors

Open Access
Should the author wish to publish the article in Open Access he/she can choose the Brill Open option. This allows for non-exclusive Open Access publication under a Creative Commons license in exchange for an Article Publication Charge (APC), upon signing a special Brill Open Consent to Publish Form. More information on Brill Open can be found on brill.com/brillopen.
