Instructions for Authors

Scope

The Journal of Persianate Studies (JPS) is a publication of the Association for the Study of Persianate Societies. The journal publishes articles on the culture and civilization of the geographical area where Persian has historically been the dominant language or a major cultural force, encompassing Iran, Afghanistan and Tajikistan, as well as the Caucasus, Central Asia, the Indian Subcontinent, and parts of the former Ottoman Empire. Its focus on the linguistic, cultural and historical role and influence of Persian culture and Iranian civilization in this area is based on a recognition that knowledge flows from pre-existing facts but is also constructed and thus helps shape the present reality of the Persianate world. Such knowledge can mitigate the leveling effects of globalization as well as counteract the distortions of the area's common historical memory and civilizational continuity by the divisive forces of modern nationalism and imperialism.

Ethical and Legal Conditions

Please note that submission of an article for publication in any of Brill's journals implies that you have read and agreed to Brill's Ethical and Legal Conditions. The Ethical and Legal Conditions can be found here: brill.com/downloads/conditions.pdf.

Online Submission

JPS now uses online submission only. Authors should submit their manuscript online via the Editorial Manager (EM) online submission system at: editorialmanager.com/jpsbrill. First-time users of EM need to register first. Go to the website and click on the “Register Now” link in the login menu. Enter the information requested.

When you register, select e-mail as your preferred method of contact. Upon successful registration, you will receive an e-mail message containing your Username and Password. If you should forget your Username and Password, click on the “Send Username/Password” link in the login section, and enter your first name, last name and email address exactly as you had entered it when you registered. Your access codes will then be e-mailed to you.

Prior to submission, authors are encouraged to read the “Instructions for Authors.” When submitting via the website, you will be guided stepwise through the creation and uploading of the various files. A revised document is uploaded the same way as the initial submission. The system automatically generates an electronic (PDF) proof, which is then used for reviewing purposes. All correspondence, including the editor's request for revision and final decision, is sent by e-mail. Authors should always retain a file copy of materials submitted.
Double-blinded Peer Review

JPS uses a double-blind peer review system, which means that manuscript author(s) do not know who the reviewers are, and that reviewers do not know the names of the author(s). When you submit your article via Editorial Manager, you will be asked to submit a separate title page which includes the full title of the manuscript plus the names and complete contact details of all authors. This page will not be accessible to the referees. All other files (manuscript, figures, tables, etc.) should not contain any information concerning author names, institutions, etc. The names of these files and the document properties should also be anonymized.

File Format

Please upload source files such as .doc, and not .pdf files.

Contact Address

For any questions or problems relating to your manuscript please contact the Executive Editor, Saïd Amir Arjomand at: said.arjomand@stonybrook.edu. For eventual questions about Editorial Manager, authors can also contact the Brill EM Support Department at: em@brill.com.

Submission Requirements

Language

Articles are published in English.

Transliteration

The transliteration adopted for this journal is based on Persian with the minimum use of diacritical signs for the sake of simplicity—a macron over the “a” (ä) for the long alef, ‘ for ‘eyn, and ’ for hamza. See the Table on page 4.

For the non-Roman-based alphabets, the Library of Congress translation should be used. For works in modern Turkish the official orthography is used.

Length

The standard length for our articles is 10,000 words, including notes and bibliography.

Manuscript Structure

General

Manuscripts should be submitted in Word, aligned left (not justified), double-spaced, and with footnotes

Reference Style

Text Citations
Works should be cited briefly in parentheses within the text rather than in footnotes. Full references will be given in the bibliography at the end of the article. A citation within a text should normally include the author’s last name and the volume (if relevant) and page numbers, e.g.: (Browne, II, 45-47) or (Beckwith, 37). The year of publication is also given if more than one work of the same author is mentioned in the bibliography, e.g.: (Browne 1969, IV, 45) or (Treadwell 2003, 324-29).
Bibliography
The bibliography should be listed in alphabetical order.

Books
Author’s initials and last name (full name in the case of pre-20th-century authors: Abu Hāmed Mohammad Ghazāli, not A. H. M. Ghazāli), full title of the book (in italics), name(s) of the editor(s) (if any), the series (if any), number of volumes, and place and date of publication (n.p. and n.d. when the place or date of publication is not recorded):

Subtitles are set apart by one space following a colon:

Edited Chapter in Book
Author’s initials and last name, full title of the article (in quotation marks), in [name(s) of the book’s editor(s)], ed(s.), title of the book (in italics) and so on, ending with the page numbers:

Journal Articles
Author’s initials and last name, full title of the article (in quotation marks), name of the journal (in italics) followed by the volume and issue numbers (in Arabic numerals) separated by a period, the date of publication in parentheses, and the page numbers. Please add the DOI number wherever possible.

Abbreviations
The following well-known abbreviations will be used instead of full titles: AMI, BSOAS, EI, Elr., IA, IIJ, IJMES, JA, JAOS, JESHO, JNES, JPS, JRAS, JRGS, MO, OLZ, RMM, ZDMG, ZII.

Commonly abbreviated terms may be used only within parentheses in the body of the text: par. (paragraph), col.(column), p./pp. (page/pages), ed. (editor, edition), fol. (folio), n./nn. (note), ch. (chapter), vol. (volume), etc.
English Transliteration of Titles in Russian, Armenian, Georgian and Greek

English translation of titles in Russian, Armenian, Georgian, and Greek will be given in parentheses in Roman type. Only the initial letter and proper nouns are capitalized:

Transcribed Titles of Books and Articles

Only proper nouns and the initial letter of books (except for Ar. al-) are capitalized in the transcribed titles of books and articles:

Names of Modern Institutions

In non-Western languages are capitalized in their English translation, but they have initial upper case only when transcribed: e.g., Vezārat-e āmuzesh o parvaresh, but the Ministry of Education.

Hyphenated Words: Two Complete Words

Terms made of two complete words are hyphenated: Dust-ʿAli, Mohammad-Hasan, rish-safid, dorost-kār, but Bozorgzāda, Farrokhnehzād, pishrow, dustdār, mihanparast. For English words, the New International Webster Dictionary should be followed.

Capitalization

Personal Titles

Personal titles should be written in upper case only when used with personal names: the president, but President Obama; shah, but Mohammad Shāh; prime minister, but Prime Minister Mosāddeq; imam, but Emām Hoseyn; sheikh, but Sheykh Mofid, etc.

Geographical Terms

Geographical terms are in upper case as part of topographical names: e.g., Aras River, Persian Gulf, Fars Province, but the province of Fars.

Dates and Numbers

Use common-era (BCE, CE) dates, with hejri dates following if desired (e.g., 1325/725) unless quoting from an original source, in which case the date as quoted should be given with the common-era date in parentheses. Centuries are to be written in full, e.g. the nineteenth century. For decades, numbers will be used, e.g. the 1460s. Numbers up to one hundred are to be written in full, e.g. thirty-one soldiers, but 102 merchants and 4,131 peasants.

Figures
Whenever possible, please provide electronic files for any illustrations, maps or diagrams you wish to include in your article. In all other cases, the original image should be sent along with the final version of the article. All figures and tables must be cited consecutively in the text.
Figures should be submitted as separate source files in .eps, .tif, or .jpg format, in a size suitable for the typesetting area of the journal. The resolution of these files should be at least 300 dpi (dots per inch) for half-tone figures (photographs), and 600 dpi for line drawings. Number the files, and indicate in the manuscript where they are to appear (Fig. 1 here).
The text in a figure must be legible, and should not be smaller than corps 7. The size of this lettering for any text in a figure should be the same for all figures in the manuscript. All figures should be clearly cross-referenced. File names or numbers should indicate clearly to which figure each caption belongs and to their place in the text. Credit lines and permissions should be included in the figure captions.

Tables
If you have prepared your own tables, please make sure they are inserted in the correct place within the running text. If you are using tables that have been copied or scanned from another publication, please make sure to follow the instructions for the electronic files as mentioned above! Also, please make sure all copyright permissions to re-use these tables have been cleared before handing in your article.

Publication

Proofs
Upon acceptance, a PDF of the article proofs will be sent to the each author/the designated author by e-mail to check carefully for factual and typographic errors. Authors are responsible for checking these proofs and are strongly urged to make use of the Comment & Markup toolbar to note their corrections directly on the proofs. At this stage in the production process only minor corrections are allowed. Alterations to the original manuscript at this stage will result in considerable delay in publication and, therefore, are not accepted unless charged to the author. Proofs should be returned promptly.

Offprints
A PDF file of the article will be supplied free of charge by the publisher to authors for personal use. Brill is a RoMEO yellow publisher. The Author retains the right to self-archive the submitted (pre-peer-review) version of the article at any time. The submitted version of an article is the author’s version that has not been peer-reviewed, nor had any value added to it by Brill (such as formatting or copy editing).
The Author retains the right to self-archive the accepted (peer-reviewed) version after an embargo period of 24 months. The accepted version means the version which has been accepted for publication and contains all revisions made after peer reviewing and copy editing, but has not yet been typeset in the publisher's lay-out. The publisher's lay-out must not be used in any repository or on any website (brill.com/resources/authors/publishing-books-brill/self-archiving-rights).

Consent to Publish

Transfer of Copyright
By submitting a manuscript, the author agrees that the copyright for the article is transferred to the publisher if and when the article is accepted for publication. For that purpose the author needs to sign the Consent to Publish which will be sent with the first proofs of the manuscript.

Open Access
Should the author wish to publish the article in Open Access he/she can choose the Brill Open option. This allows for non-exclusive Open Access publication under a Creative Commons license in exchange for an Article Publication Charge (APC), upon signing a special Brill Open Consent to Publish Form. More information on Brill Open can be found on brill.com/brillopen.
