Instructions for Authors

Scope

The Korean Journal of International and Comparative Law (KJICL) publishes articles and book reviews by pre-eminent scholars of international and comparative law. Each issue provides analyses of contemporary Asian practice in international law, and summaries of decisions made by tribunals and both national and international courts. Offering representation of publications with Korean and Asian perspectives in international and comparative law, the journal serves as a valuable medium in encouraging thoughtful scholarly attention to developing researches in Korea, Asia, and international society. The Korean Journal of International and Comparative Law (KJICL) will prove an indispensable resource to international law, economics, trade and foreign affairs professionals.

Ethical and Legal Conditions

The publication of a manuscript in a peer-reviewed work is expected to follow standards of ethical behavior for all parties involved in the act of publishing: authors, editors, and reviewers. Authors, editors, and reviewers should thoroughly acquaint themselves with Brill's publication ethics, which may be downloaded here: brill.com/page/ethics/publication-ethics-cope-compliance.

Online Submission

The Korean Journal of International and Comparative Law uses online submission only. Authors should submit their manuscript via the Editorial Manager (EM) online submission system at: editorialmanager.com/kjic.

First-time users of EM need to register first. Go to the website and click on the "Register Now" link in the login menu. Enter the information requested. During registration, you can fill in your username and password. If you should forget your Username and Password, click on the "send login details" link in the login section, and enter your e-mail address exactly as you entered it when you registered. Your access codes will then be e-mailed to you.

Prior to submission, authors are encouraged to read the 'Instructions for Authors' and the EM instructions available by following the above link and clicking on the 'help' icon in the top left-hand menu on the page. Online submission considerably shortens overall publication time. When submitting via the website, you will be guided stepwise through the creation and uploading of the various files. Any figure files should be uploaded separately, and should have high density of at least 300 dpi at a size suitable for printing.

An eventual revised manuscript is uploaded the same way as the initial submission. The system automatically generates an electronic (PDF) proof, which is then used for reviewing purposes. All correspondence, including the editor's request for revision and final decision, is sent by e-mail.

Double-blinded Peer Review
KJICL uses a double-blind peer review system, which means that manuscript author(s) do not know who the reviewers are, and that reviewers do not know the names of the author(s). When you submit your article via Editorial Manager, you will be asked to submit a separate title page that includes the full title of the manuscript, the names and complete contact details of all authors, the abstract, keywords, and any acknowledgement texts. This page will not be accessible to the referees. All other files (manuscript, figures, tables, etc.) should not contain any information concerning author names, institutions, etc. The names of these files and the document properties should also be anonymized.

File Format
Please upload source files such as .doc, and not .pdf files.

Contact Address
For any questions or problems relating to your manuscript please contact the Editor at kjicl.ksil@gmail.com. For eventual questions about Editorial Manager, authors can also contact the Brill EM Support Department at: em@brill.com.

Submission Requirements

Language
Manuscripts should be written in English. Spelling (British or American) should be consistent throughout.

Types of Contributions
Articles, notes, and book reviews can be submitted to the journal.

Manuscript Structure

General
All manuscripts are peer-reviewed by the Editorial Committee.
All submissions should be single spaced (12-pt font) pages, including abstract, keywords, tables, figures, notes and appendices. The text file should be typed as flat text, with as little formatting as possible. The abstract, indented quotations and footnotes should be typed in 10-point Times New Roman. All other text should be 12-point Times New Roman.

The first paragraph of new sections should be flush left. Subsequent paragraphs should be indented by
Instructions for Authors

0.25” or 0.5 cm.

Titles
Contributions should include a title that is both descriptive and concise.

Author’s Name and Autobiographical Note
Authors’ names should be shown in full. If the author wishes to indicate the surname first, it should all be in capital letters.

Diplomatic and Consular Law in the age of the Internet - Does the Tradition Still Hold?
CHOI Won Mog

Biographical Note
Autobiographical details should appear as the first numbered footnote of each contribution. Any acknowledgements (if any) should be given in the second numbered footnote.

Abstract and Keywords
All manuscripts should be accompanied by an abstract of 150 words or less in 10-point Times New Roman. This text should be not italicized, and indented both left and right by 0.25” or 0.5 cm. Authors should also include 5-8 keywords.

Headings
When numbering the chapters and sections of the manuscript, numerical headings should be used as follows: 1, 1.1, 1.1, etc.

3.3.1 Official Correspondence
4 Internet and Law of Settlement of International Disputes
5 Conclusion

Capitalization
Where reference is made to a specific office, organization, or body then the first letter of this should be capitalized. Where the reference is general or non-specific then lower-case letters should be used.

“A court must decide the case before it. The International Court of Justice is no exception. The Court cannot reinterpret...”

Titles of cited works will be capitalized in “title case”. The following should therefore be capitalized: (i) the first word; (ii) if there is a subtitle, the first letter of the first word of the subtitle; (iii) all other words in the title except articles (“the”, “a”, “an”), conjunctions (“and”, “but”, “or”, etc.), and prepositions of fewer than five letters (“on”, “with”, but “Amongst”, “Between”).

Italics
Foreign words should be italicized.

Abbreviations and Contractions
A full stop (.) should be used in conjunction with all abbreviations and contractions except in the case of proper names. Please also note that there should not be a space between the periods. For example, “Company” is abbreviated to “Co.”, “exempli gratia” is abbreviated to “e.g.”, “free trade agreements” is abbreviated to “F.T.A.s”, and “Limited” is contracted to “Ltd.”, whereas the “United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization” is abbreviated to “UNESCO”, the “International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights” is abbreviated to “ICCPR”, and the “Reciprocal Enforcement of Commonwealth Judgments Act” is abbreviated to “RECJA”.

References and Citations
It is the contributor’s responsibility to ensure that all references and citations are correct. The first time you cite a source, use the full citation in the footnote. Ibid., as an abbreviation for ibidem may be used for a second footnote identical to the one above. Subsequent references use the author's last name, (short title if the author cited has more than one reference), and page number: Name, supra note X at XX.
At the end of journal references, please also insert the DOI number, whenever available.

Journal Articles
A. Author, The title of the journal article, 70(1) Journal Title 1-10 (2019).
Following citation: Author, supra note 43, at 50.

Quotations
Quotations should be clearly indicated, and it is vital that they are accurate.
Use double quotation marks and single quotes within double quotes: ‘God said, ‘Let there be light.’”
However, single quotes are used if they are in the original text quoted.
Where letters or words are replaced or inserted within a quotation, the replacement or inserted letters or words should be indicated in square brackets “[ ]”.
Where words, phrases, or sentences are omitted within a quotation, the omission should be indicated by ellipses “...”. No indication of punctuation before or after the ellipsis is necessary.

Block Quotes
Where the quotation will run to more than forty words it should be typed as a separate paragraph in 10-point Times New Roman, left-indented and right-indented by 0.25” or 0.5 cm.

Notes and Book Reviews
Notes and book reviews have a 3000-word limit (including footnotes) and should be written in 10-point Times New Roman. Footnotes should also be kept to a minimum. Reviewers should include all relevant information relating to the manuscript. It should include the title of the note or book reviewed in italics, and the edition of the book being reviewed in parentheses “( )” if more than one edition of the book has been published. This should be followed by the name(s) of the author(s)/editor(s) with surname/family name in all capitals.

Book Reviews
The following publication information should also be included: place of publication, name of publisher, year of publication, total number of pages inclusive of the index (separate subtotals for preliminary matter, the tables and main text should be provided where they are separately numbered), the type of binding (soft cover/hardcover), and the price of the book.

Publication

Proofs
Upon acceptance, a PDF of the article proofs will be sent to each author by e-mail to check carefully for factual and typographic errors. Authors are responsible for checking these proofs and are strongly urged to make use of the Comment & Markup toolbar to note their corrections directly on the proofs. At this stage in the production process only minor corrections are allowed. Alterations to the original manuscript at this stage will result in considerable delay in publication and, therefore, are not accepted unless charged to the author. Proofs should be returned within 7 days of receipt to the journal manager.

E-offprints
A PDF file of the article will be supplied free of charge by the publisher to authors for personal use. Brill is a RoMEO yellow publisher. The Author retains the right to self-archive the submitted (pre-peer-review) version of the article at any time. The submitted version of an article is the author's version that has not been peer-reviewed, nor had any value added to it by Brill (such as formatting or copy editing). The Author retains the right to self-archive the accepted (peer-reviewed) version after an embargo period of 12 months. The accepted version means the version which has been accepted for publication and contains all revisions made after peer reviewing and copy editing, but has not yet been typeset in the publisher's lay-out. The publisher's lay-out must not be used in any repository or on any website (brill.com/resources/authors/publishing-books-brill/self-archiving-rights).

Consent to Publish

Transfer of Copyright
By submitting a manuscript, the author agrees that the copyright for the article is transferred to the publisher if and when the article is accepted for publication. For that purpose the author needs to sign the Consent to Publish form which will be sent with the first proofs of the manuscript.

Open Access
Should the author wish to publish the article in Open Access he/she can choose the Brill Open option. This allows for non-exclusive Open Access publication under a Creative Commons license in exchange for an Article Publication Charge (APC), upon signing a special Brill Open Consent to Publish form. More information on Brill Open can be found on brill.com/brill-open.
