Scope

MANUSYA: Journal of Humanities (MNYA) is an Open Access journal published by Chulalongkorn University (Bangkok, Thailand) in collaboration with Brill. It provides a platform for researchers to engage in intellectual enquiries on humanities issues in Southeast Asia and its neighbouring regions. It also welcomes submissions that examine broader phenomena with implications for Southeast Asia or from Southeast Asian perspectives. The journal covers a wide range of topics in history, philosophy, religion, language, culture, literature, media, and arts. Both research articles and book reviews are welcome.

Open Access

MANUSYA is a fully Open Access online-only journal, which means that all content is freely accessible online. All articles are published under a non-exclusive Open Access license. The journal is supported by Chulalongkorn University and Brill, and the Article Publication Charge (APC) is waived. The author(s) keep full copyright and give Brill permission to publish by signing a special Brill Open Consent to Publish. The Brill Open Consent to Publish will be sent to you by the responsible desk-editor. For more information on Brill Open go to: brill.com/brillopen or contact brillopen@brill.com.

Ethical and Legal Conditions

The publication of a manuscript in a peer-reviewed work is expected to follow standards of ethical behavior for all parties involved in the act of publishing: authors, editors, and reviewers. Authors, editors, and reviewers should thoroughly acquaint themselves with Brill's publication ethics, which may be downloaded here: brill.com/page/ethics/publication-ethics-cope-compliance.

Submission

Authors wishing to submit a paper to MNYA should send it by e-mail to the Editor-in-Chief Pittayawat Pittayaporn at: manusyajournal@gmail.com, or via this website: manusya.journals.chula.ac.th. The journal uses a double-blind peer review system and publishes high quality, original research articles and reviews. All manuscripts received are subject to a plagiarism detection test before being sent to reviewers. Three issues are published each year in March and July, and November.

Language

Submissions should be written in the English language.
Instructions for Authors

Unicode
Use of special signs and fonts: please use a Unicode font such as the Brill (brill.com/page/BrillFont/brill-typeface) if possible. Please let us know in advance if you plan to use any special characters or fonts.

Length
The length of the submission should not exceed 8,500 words, including the footnotes and references.

Submission Requirements

General
Formatting should be kept to a minimum. Only use italics in your files to format the text that has to be typeset as italics. Indent paragraphs with one tab. Authors should include their home or institutional address, fax number, phone number and e-mail address on a separate sheet.

Abstract and Keywords
Authors are requested to provide an abstract of 150 words or less at the beginning of the article, as well as up to 5 or 6 keywords. The abstract summarizes aim, result and conclusion of the research. Do not provide an abstract for a review article/short note, or a book review.

Footnotes
Use footnotes, not endnotes.

References
Please provide a separate list of references at the end of your article. Please refer to The Chicago Manual of Style (chicagomanualofstyle.org). At the end of journal references, please insert the DOI number, whenever available.

Figures
Illustrations are to be delivered as separate files (TIFF or JPG) with a resolution of at least 300 dpi together with the manuscript in final form for printing. Never send photocopies. Originals can be returned to author upon request. All illustrations must be numbered clearly. All captions are to be added on a separate sheet, at the end of the article.
Publication

Proofs
Upon acceptance, a PDF of the article proofs will be sent to the author by e-mail to check carefully for factual and typographic errors. Authors are responsible for checking these proofs and are strongly urged to make use of the Comment & Markup toolbar to note their corrections directly on the proofs. At this stage in the production process only minor corrections are allowed. Alterations to the original manuscript at this stage will result in considerable delay in publication and, therefore, are not accepted unless charged to the author. Proofs should be returned to the Editor.

Consent to Publish

Open Access
The author(s) keep full copyright and give Brill permission to publish by signing a special Brill Open Consent to Publish. The Brill Open Consent to Publish will be sent to you by the responsible desk-editor. For more information on Brill Open go to: bril.com/brilopen or contact brilopen@brill.com.
