Instructions for Authors

Scope

Established in 1930, the Nordic Journal of International Law (NORD) has remained the principal forum in the Nordic countries for the scholarly exchange on legal developments in the international and European domains. Combining broad thematic coverage with rigorous quality demands, it aims to present current practice and its theoretical reflection within the different branches of international law. The Nordic Journal of International Law features: - an Editorial Board selected from among the most prominent scholars and practitioners in the field of international law in the Nordic countries of Iceland, Finland, Norway, Sweden, and Denmark; - a diverse range of refereed articles; - annual reports on state practice in the Nordic region; - an annual report on the work of the International Law Commission; - special issues on current topics; - regular book reviews; and - periodic updates on key developments and events in Nordic and international practice. The strength of its editorial board and the resulting quality and variety of the features and articles offered make this well-established journal an important component in a complete international law library.

Ethical and Legal Conditions

The publication of a manuscript in a peer-reviewed work is expected to follow standards of ethical behaviour for all parties involved in the act of publishing: authors, editors, and reviewers. Authors, editors, and reviewers should thoroughly acquaint themselves with Brill's publication ethics, which may be downloaded here: brill.com/page/ethics/publication-ethics-cope-compliance.

Online Submission

NORD uses online submission only. Authors should submit their manuscript online via the Editorial Manager (EM) online submission system at: editorialmanager.com/nord. First-time users of EM need to register first. Go to the website and click on the ‘Register Now’ link in the login menu. Enter the information requested. During registration, you can fill in your username and password. When you register, select e-mail as your preferred method of contact. If you should forget your Username and Password, click on the ‘Send Username/Password’ link in the login section, and enter your first name, last name and email address exactly as you had entered it when you registered. Your access codes will then be e-mailed to you.

Prior to submission, authors are encouraged to read the ‘Instructions for Authors’. When submitting via the website, you will be guided stepwise through the creation and uploading of the various files. A revised document is uploaded the same way as the initial submission. The system automatically generates an electronic (PDF) proof, which is then used for reviewing purposes. All correspondence, including the editor’s request for revision and final decision, is sent by e-mail.
Double-blinded Peer Review

NORD uses a double-blind peer review system, which means that manuscript author(s) do not know who the reviewers are, and that reviewers do not know the names of the author(s). When you submit your article via Editorial Manager, you will be asked to submit a separate title page which includes the full title of the manuscript, the names and complete contact details of all authors, the abstract, keywords and any eventual acknowledgement text. This page will not be accessible to the referees. All other files (manuscript, figures, tables, etc.) should not contain any information concerning author names, institutions, etc. The names of these files and the document properties should also be anonymized.

File Format

Please upload source files such as .doc (word files), and not .pdf files.

Contact Address

For any questions or problems relating to your manuscript please contact the Managing Editor at: NJIL@jur.ku.dk. For eventual questions about Editorial Manager, authors can also contact the Brill EM Support Department at: em@brill.com.

Submission Requirements

A condensed style 'Instructions for Authors' is provided below. The complete version of these guidelines is available online at: rwi.lu.se/wp-content/uploads/2012/02/bookguide.pdf.

Language

Manuscripts should be written in British English. Spelling should be consistent throughout. The preferred source is the Oxford English Dictionary.

Length

Manuscripts should normally range from 8,000 to 10,000 words in length, including footnotes.

Manuscript Structure

The preferred font and size for text and footnotes are Times New Roman 12 pt and Times New Roman 10 pt, respectively.

Abstract & Keywords

Authors are requested to supply an abstract of up to 150 words, and 3-8 keywords.
Instructions for Authors

Punctuation
One space after each punctuation mark is sufficient. After a full stop (.) there should only be one space.

Headings
Authors are asked to use only three levels of headings. They should be flush left, numbered consecutively and formatted shown below. The first letter of all major words should be capitalised, except for prepositions and articles.

1 Democracy within States
   1.1 Key Principles and Institutions
      1.1.1 Civil and Political Rights

When beginning a new section the first paragraph should not be indented, however, all subsequent paragraphs should be indented.

Figures and Numerals
Spell out the numbers from one to ten (except in pages, legislation, dates and other similar references); use numerals for numbers 11 and higher. Also use numerals throughout for dates and times.
For percentages spell out the word ‘per cent’. For example, eight per cent, not 8%.
Page ranges should be separated by an en dash. For example, pp. 26–46.

Italics
Italics are used sparingly for emphasis. Do not use bold or underline.
Foreign and Latin words should be italicised.
All case names should be italicised, however, the word ‘case’ and the ‘v.’ should not be italicised. For example: Hermes v. FHT Marketing case.
All signals should be italicised in footnotes. Such signals include see, see also, cf., contra, but see, but cf., see generally, et seq., and e.g.

Dates and Time
For dates use the following formats: 1 January 2003; 1 January; January 2003.
Years should be separated by an en dash. For example: 2000–2012.

Monetary Amounts
Do not use dollar signs. Use USD (US dollars), SEK (Swedish Kronor), EUR (Euro), etc. This abbreviation should be placed directly before the amount it refers to. For example: EUR 100.
Instructions for Authors

Quotations
Direct quotations should be enclosed in double quotation marks (" ") and run on in the text. Single quotation marks (‘ ’) are used to distinguish words, concepts or short phrases under discussion. Quotation marks should come before all punctuation, except where the whole sentence is a quotation. Where the quoted material begins with a capital but is being placed in the middle of a sentence and the letter should grammatically be lower case, place the letter in square brackets ([]) and change to lower case.
Omission points are used to designate that the quoted material has omitted information (usually only in a sentence) and should be styled as three space points (…) with a space between the first point and a space after the last point.
For larger sections of quoted text (i.e., anything over three lines) use block quotes.

Footnotes and References
Use footnotes (bottom of page) and not endnotes or a reference list. Do not insert any asterisked footnote to the author’s name. All footnotes, including acknowledgement texts, must use numbered footnotes.
References should be as complete as possible.
Do not refer in the text to other parts of the manuscript text using page numbers. Use section headings, numbers/letters, or a prose description of the part of the text you wish to refer to.
The following abbreviations should be used: p.=page; pp.=pages; para.=paragraph; para.=paragraphs. et seq. is preferred to ff.
The references in the footnotes must be correct; if they are not they will be returned to the author for correction.

Cross References
When referring to a previously cited work use the following format:
Surname, supra note . . . and give the number of the footnote in which the work was first cited:
Bogdan, supra note 8.
When referring to a previously cited case use the following format: Name case, supra note . . . and give the number of the footnote in which the case was first cited.
Note: long case names should be shortened appropriately: Lockerbie case, supra note 2.
When referring to a previously cited work or case but referring to a different page or paragraph than that originally cited, use Name, supra note 1, p. 1:
Crawford, supra note 10, p. 25; Rispoli v. Italy, supra note 6, para. 18.
When referring to a work cited immediately above the citation in question, and with the same page number, use: Ibid. Remember: use ibid. only for immediately preceding references, otherwise, use supra note x. In cases with a different page number indicate the page referred to.
References should adhere strictly to the specifications and examples!
Instructions for Authors

Journal Articles
When a doi number is known, please insert it at the end of the reference.

Newspaper Articles

Books

Chapters in Books
The page reference at which the cited chapter begins should always be specified or specify the specific page(s) referred to.

Website/Internet References
For journal articles, books, case law, newspaper articles, and other documents accessed via the Internet simply cite as normal adding the URL (website address) in angle brackets (omitting http://) and the date the material was accessed to the end of the citation.

Case Law

UN Documents, Publications, and Resolutions
The following information should be contained in this order:

a. Author/agency/body (if necessary).
b. Title in italics (if necessary).
c. Document symbol or publication sales number in parentheses.
d. Specific page(s) or paragraph(s) referred to (if applicable).

Publication

Proofs
Authors are responsible for checking the page proofs. They will receive a proof in .pdf format by e-mail that should be checked carefully for factual and typographic errors. At this stage, only minor corrections will be allowed. Authors are requested to return any corrections in a single e-mail to the journal manager within one week after receipt of their proofs.

E-offprints
A PDF file of the article will be supplied free of charge by the publisher to authors for personal use. Brill is a RoMEO yellow publisher. The Author retains the right to self-archive the submitted (pre-peer-review) version of the article at any time. The submitted version of an article is the author’s version that has not been peer-reviewed, nor had any value added to it by Brill (such as formatting or copy editing). The Author retains the right to self-archive the accepted (peer-reviewed) version. The accepted version means the version which has been accepted for publication and contains all revisions made after peer reviewing and copy editing, but has not yet been typeset in the publisher’s lay-out. The publisher’s lay-out must not be used in any repository or on any website (brill.com/resources/authors/publishing-books-brill/self-archiving-rights).

License to Publish

Transfer of Copyright
By submitting a manuscript, the author agrees that the copyright for the article is transferred to the publisher if and when the article is accepted for publication. For that purpose the author needs to sign the License to Publish which will be sent with the first proofs of the manuscript.

Open Access
Should the author wish to publish the article in Open Access he/she can choose the Brill Open option. This allows for non-exclusive Open Access publication under a Creative Commons license in exchange for an Article Publication Charge (APC), upon signing a special Brill Open Consent to Publish Form. More information on Brill Open can be found on brill.com/brillopen.
