Scope

Quærendo (QUA) is a leading peer-reviewed journal on the history of books and manuscripts in Europe, especially the Low Countries and its neighbours. Particular emphasis is placed on the interdisciplinary nature of book history and the dissemination of books and manuscripts. Since 1971 Quærendo has established itself as a major forum for contributions concerning the history of the book. Each volume contains, besides full articles on all aspects of the history of the book, a special section for Book Reviews and Notes in order to announce recent discoveries, new publications and relevant events.

Ethical and Legal Conditions

The publication of a manuscript in a peer-reviewed work is expected to follow standards of ethical behaviour for all parties involved in the act of publishing: authors, editors, and reviewers. Authors, editors, and reviewers should thoroughly acquaint themselves with Brill's publication ethics, which may be downloaded here: brill.com/page/ethics/publication-ethics-cope-compliance.

Online Submission

Quærendo uses online submission only. Authors should submit their manuscript online via the Editorial Manager (EM) online submission system at: editorialmanager.com/qua. First-time users of EM need to register first. Go to the website and click on the "Register Now" link in the login menu. Enter the information requested. During registration, you can fill in your username and password. If you should forget your Username and Password, click on the "send login details" link in the login section, and enter your e-mail address exactly as you entered it when you registered. Your access codes will then be e-mailed to you.

Prior to submission, authors are encouraged to read the 'Instructions for Authors'. When submitting via the website, you will be guided stepwise through the creation and uploading of the various files.

A revised document is uploaded the same way as the initial submission. The system automatically generates an electronic (PDF) proof, which is then used for reviewing purposes. All correspondence, including the editor’s request for revision and final decision, is sent by e-mail.

Double-blinded Peer Review

QUA uses a double-blind peer review system, which means that manuscript author(s) do not know who the reviewers are, and that reviewers do not know the names of the author(s). When you submit your article via Editorial Manager, you will be asked to submit a separate title page that includes the full title of the manuscript, the names and complete contact details of all authors, the abstract, keywords, and any acknowledgement texts. This page will not be accessible to the referees. All other files (manuscript,
Instruction for Authors

Figures, tables, etc. should not contain any information concerning author names, institutions, etc. The names of these files and the document properties should also be anonymized.

File Format

Text files should preferably be in either WordPerfect or Microsoft Word format (and saved as .doc, .wpd, .txt or .rtf).

Contact Address

For questions or problems relating to your manuscript please contact the Editor, Lisa Kuitert, at E.A.Kuitert@uva.nl. For questions about Editorial Manager, authors can also contact the Brill EM Support Department at: em@brill.com.

Books for Review

Publishers who would like to submit books for review can contact the Book Review Editor, Kasper van Ommen of Leiden University Library, at: K.van.Ommen@library.leidenuniv.nl.

Submission Requirements

Types of Contributions

Authors of scholarly articles of moderate length on such topics as manuscripts, printed books, bindings, illustrations, typography, history of publishing, history of libraries, and bibliophily, all in so far as, in a general sense, they concern the Low Countries, are invited to submit their contributions to the Senior Editor, in a form ready for publication or translation and in the final state intended. Decisions as to the acceptability of submitted articles rest with the Managing Editors and the Editorial Board.

Language

Quærendo is an English-language publication. Texts in French and German, however, will be printed as they stand. Spelling in the language used should be consistent throughout.

Length

Articles should preferably not exceed 6,000 words.
Manuscript Structure

The Managing Editors reserve the right to adapt texts where necessary in order to preserve the uniformity of presentation.

Use italics, bold, underlined, CAPS, SMALL CAPS, etc. where so desired.

Abstract and Keywords

All articles will be accompanied by an abstract not exceeding 150 words and 2-6 keywords (translated where appropriate).

Headings

- The First Level Heading
- The text.

- The Second Level Heading
- The text.

Notes on Contributors

When submitting copy authors should indicate how they wish to be mentioned in the Notes on Contributors (e.g., first name + family name, home or office address, function, office or trade).

Dating

Day, month, year: 12 October 2019.

Figures

Figures in the manuscript should be sent as source files (.jpeg, or .tif), and not .pdfs. Reproductions should not exceed 18 x 12 cm (height x width). The quality of the figure must be suitable for printing - the resolution should be a minimum of 300 dpi (minimum 600 dpi for line art). The image itself must be sharp, and any text in the figure should be legible (at least corps 7 or larger). There must not be a problem with the copyright to the figure in question; see point 6 of the Ethical and Legal Conditions above. Captions and acknowledgements are to be submitted separately.

Footnotes

Footnotes should be numbered consecutively, be indicated by superior figures, and be placed outside punctuation (but inside the closing parenthesis when referring to matter within the parentheses), e.g. mmm, mmm, mmm, or mmm'.

Observe the following:
Instructions for Authors

Abbreviations

art. cit.; op. cit.; idem = id.; ibidem = ibid.
St Dr Mr Ms Mrs cm mm [no full point]
Circa = c. [set close up to figures, e.g. c.1967]
Column = col.; [plural] cols.
Footnote = n.; e.g. p. 15, n. 3 (= page 15, footnote 3)
Illustration = illus.; plate = Pl.
Leaf = f.; [plural] ff.
Line = l.; [plural] ll.
Manuscript = MS; [plural] MSS
Number = No. or no.; [plural] Nos. or nos.
Page = p.; [plural] pp.; print pp. 51 f. if the reference is to p. 51 and following page; but pp. 51 ff. if the reference is to more than a single page following
Recto = r.; verso = v.; e.g. f. P3v. (= leaf P3 verso)
Volume = vol.; [plural] vols.; part = pt.; e.g. vol. 3, pt. 2

Paragraph Indentation

New paragraphs should be indicated by indenting one tab, not by an extra white line.

Figures and Numbers

When referring to pagination, dates, etc., use the least number of figures possible; e.g. 42-3 [not 42-43], 1863-9 [not 1863-1869, or 1863-69], 1960-1 [not 1960-1961, or 1960-61]; but for the group 10-19 in each hundred: 10-11 [not 10-11], 16-18 [not 16-18], 214-17 [not 214-17]. Use for reference to preliminary pages lowercase roman numerals; e.g. p. viii [not p. VIII], pp. xvi-xxiii [not pp. XVI-XXIII]. Use by preference pp. 15-16 rather than pp. 15 f. Note that pp. 15 ff. indicates that reference is made to more than a single page following. When a work consists of several volumes and reference is made to one of these, use Arabic numerals; thus vol. 2 [not vol. ii or vol. II]. The same holds for periodical volumes, thus Querendo, 6 (1976), pp. 24-8 [not vi (1976) or VI (1976)].

Lists

Enumerations should be indicated by figures in parentheses, e.g. (1) ...., (2) ...., (3) ...., and so on.

Names of Dutch Printers, Publishers, Booksellers etc.

Instructions for Authors

Omissions
To mark omitted words use three points between square brackets: [...] , followed by a point when used at the end of an incomplete sentence.

Quotations
Use single quotation marks for a first quotation, and double marks for a quotation within a quotation, e.g., ‘Recent interpretations of “Brugmans’ regel” examined’.

Publication

Proofs
Upon acceptance, a PDF of the article proofs will be sent to each author by e-mail to check carefully for factual and typographic errors. Authors are responsible for checking these proofs and are strongly urged to make use of the Comment & Markup toolbar to note their corrections directly on the proofs. At this stage in the production process only minor corrections are allowed. Alterations to the original manuscript at this stage will result in considerable delay in publication and, therefore, are not accepted unless charged to the author. Proofs should be returned promptly. Contributors will be sent first proofs of their articles, but not as a rule revised proofs.

E-Offprints
A PDF file of the article will be supplied free of charge by the publisher to authors for personal use. Brill is a RoMEO yellow publisher. The Author retains the right to self-archive the submitted (pre-peer-review) version of the article at any time. The submitted version of an article is the author’s version that has not been peer-reviewed, nor had any value added to it by Brill (such as formatting or copy editing). The Author retains the right to self-archive the accepted (peer-reviewed) version without any embargo period. The accepted version means the version which has been accepted for publication and contains all revisions made after peer reviewing and copy editing, but has not yet been typeset in the publisher’s lay-out. The publisher’s lay-out must not be used in any repository or on any website (brill.com/resources/authors/publishing-books-brill/self-archiving-rights).

Consent to Publish

Transfer of Copyright
By submitting a manuscript, the author agrees that the copyright for the article is transferred to the publisher if and when the article is accepted for publication. For that purpose the author needs to sign the Consent to Publish which will be sent with the first proofs of the manuscript.
Open Access
Should the author wish to publish the article in Open Access he/she can choose the Brill Open option. This allows for non-exclusive Open Access publication under a Creative Commons license in exchange for an Article Publication Charge (APC), upon signing a special Brill Open Consent to Publish Form. More information on Brill Open can be found on brill.com/brillopen.
