Scope

Religion and Gender (RAG) is the first peer reviewed, international journal for the systematic study of gender and religion in an interdisciplinary perspective. The journal explores the relation, confrontation and intersection of gender and religion, taking into account the multiple and changing manifestations of religion in diverse social and cultural contexts. It analyses and reflects critically on gender in its interpretative and imaginative dimensions and as a fundamental principle of social ordering. It seeks to investigate gender at the intersections of feminist, sexuality, queer, masculinity, and diversity studies. Religion and Gender targets an interdisciplinary academic audience but also aims to be accessible to those with a non-professional interest in the field. The journal publishes high level contributions from the Humanities and from qualitative and conceptual studies in the Social Sciences. It focusses in particular on contemporary debates and topics of emerging interest from postmodern, postcolonial, and post-secular perspectives. Religion and Gender is produced in collaboration with the ‘International Association for the Study of Religion and Gender’ (IARG).

Ethical and Legal Conditions

The publication of a manuscript in a peer-reviewed work is expected to follow standards of ethical behavior for all parties involved in the act of publishing: authors, editors, and reviewers. Authors, editors, and reviewers should thoroughly acquaint themselves with Brill’s publication ethics, which may be downloaded here: brill.com/page/ethics/publication-ethics-cope-compliance.

Online Submission

RAG uses online submission only. Authors should submit their manuscript online via the Editorial Manager (EM) online submission system at: editorialmanager.com/rag. First-time users of EM need to register first. Go to the website and click on the "Register Now" link in the login menu. Enter the information requested. During registration, you can fill in your username and password. If you should forget this username and password, click on the "send login details" link in the login section, and enter your e-mail address exactly as you entered it when you registered. Your access codes will then be e-mailed to you.

Prior to submission, authors are encouraged to read these “Instructions for Authors” to ensure that the paper follows the journal style, as well as the EM instructions available by following the above link and clicking on the ‘help’ icon in the top left-hand menu on the page. Online submission considerably shortens overall publication time. When submitting via the website, you will be guided stepwise through the creation and uploading of the various files. Please upload source files and not pdf files. Any figure files should be uploaded separately, and should have high density of at least 300-600 dpi at a size suitable for printing.
The revised document is uploaded the same way as the initial submission. The system automatically generates an electronic (PDF) proof, which is then used for reviewing purposes. All correspondence, including the editor’s request for revision and final decision, is sent by e-mail.

Double-blinded Peer Review
RAG uses a double-blind peer review system, which means that manuscript author(s) do not know who the reviewers are, and that reviewers do not know the names of the author(s). When you submit your article via Editorial Manager, you will be asked to submit a separate title page that includes the full title of the manuscript, the names and complete contact details of all authors, the abstract, keywords, and any acknowledgement texts. This page will not be accessible to the referees. All other files (manuscript, figures, tables, etc.) should not contain any information concerning author names, institutions, etc. The names of these files and the document properties should also be anonymized.

Files
Files to be uploaded should be source files (.doc; .docx, etc.) and not only pdf files. Figure files should be uploaded as high quality (300-600 dpi) files (tif(f), .bmp or .eps).

Contact Address
For any questions or problems relating to your manuscript please contact the Editor, Lieke Schrijvers, at: l.l.schrijvers@vu.nl. For eventual questions about Editorial Manager, authors can also contact the Brill EM Support Department at: em@brill.com.

Special Issues
RAG encourages and looks forward to relevant special issue proposals.
We ask guest editors to issue a call for papers, even if there are already some authors willing to contribute, in order for the special issue to include a broader and diverse range of authors. The special issue must fall within the scope of the journal and contain 4-5 articles and an editorial introduction. If you would like to propose a special issue, please write a short special issue proposal, which will serve as the basis for the guest editorial introduction to be written during a later stage. This proposal should include: an introduction of the theme and the rationale of the special issue; a note about whether you want to issue a call for papers or not (and if not, why); the titles, authors and abstracts of the papers in case these are already available; and a tentative timeline. Send your proposal to: l.l.schrijvers@vu.nl. Upon receiving it, it will be discussed by the senior editors. It is important to be aware of the fact that all individual articles need to be anonymously peer reviewed, and the guest editors are responsible for this process. The revised manuscripts will, however, be once more assessed by the editors of the journal before publication. That means that the editors will potentially provide additional feedback, which is meant to ensure that the articles and the special issue as a whole remain within the journal's scope. It is crucial to communicate to the authors that they might receive feedback a second time, so they will expect it.

Book Reviews

Those interested in contributing a book review can find a list of available titles at: religionandgender.academia.edu/ReligionandGenderejournal. For further details, please e-mail Eline Huygens, at eline.huygens@ugent.be, or Lucy Spoliar, at lucy.spoliar@ru.nl.

Submission Requirements

Language

Articles should be written in English. Spelling (either British or American) should be consistent throughout. The author(s) should make sure that the article is written in good English. If English is not your first language, it is recommended to have a native speaker proofread the article before submission. Abbreviations are only allowed in footnotes (for example - e.g.; and so on – etc.). Centuries with ordinal numbers should be written without superscript: 19th century. Please note that only institutional references should be capitalized: Faculty of Religious Studies. General references to academic disciplines are in lower-case. ‘He was a scholar in religious studies.’

Non-Roman Scripts

If a special font is used, please provide a copy of the font.

Length

The final draft of a manuscript accepted for publication should be 5,000–8,000 words in length including abstract, footnotes, and bibliography. Book reviews should be 800–1,200 words and should not use footnotes or endnotes.

Manuscript Structure

General

- Manuscripts that are submitted for initial consideration should be complete, including all notes, bibliographical references, tables, etc.
- Final versions and printouts must be proofread carefully before submission; please use your spelling and grammar check; final versions that are not corrected will be returned for renewed proofreading.
- Manuscript pages should be numbered consecutively in the lower right corner, double-spaced with wide margins on all sides (use ragged rather than justified right margins).
- Eliminate any section or page breaks, and any headers or footers.
Instructions for Authors

- Notes should be submitted as footnotes, consecutively numbered, and placed at the bottom of the page.
- The journal reserves the right to copy-edit contributions to conform to its style. Do not use desktop publishing features such as justification, centering, or bold-face type.
- Italics should be indicated by italics. Do not use bold in the text, except for section heading; use italics instead.
- Do not hyphenate words at the end of a line.
- TAB should be restricted to a paragraph indent.
- A list of References, listing all materials cited in the paper and footnotes, must conclude the paper.
- For general rules on style, see the Chicago Manual of Style (16th ed., University of Chicago Press, 2010, or the most recent edition).

Abstracts
Articles should include a short abstract (80-150 words), written in English, that clearly defines the thesis and the sources quoted.

Keywords
Please supply 3-8 keywords (in lowercase letters), to be placed below the abstract, for indexing purposes.

Headings
Headings are unnumbered and should be flush (aligned) left. Apart from the title, not more than two levels of headings should be used. First level headings should be in bold, second level headings should be in bold italics.

This is the First Level Heading
This is the Second Level Heading

Footnotes
Footnotes should be numbered consecutively as 1, 2, 3... in Arabic numerals.
The autoformatting of footnotes is required for accepted papers. Your footnotes should be very brief, normally four sentences at most, unless a larger number of citations to several publications are necessary. Extended commentary or parenthetical discussions are important enough to remain within the main body of the paper. Superscript numbers marking footnotes should follow immediately after the punctuation or the quotation. The footnotes should be numbered consecutively and placed at the bottom of each page. No asterisks or roman numerals should be used anywhere.
RAG does not permit a footnote to the title of the paper, nor does it permit a footnote in the first or last sentence of your article to thank people, or make remarks about the origins of the paper. Instead, compose a separate Acknowledgements section that goes at the end of the article, before the Notes and References.

References

In-Text Citations
Articles should use in-text references, with a full reference list at the end of the article. The format for an in-text citation is this: (Author Year) or (Author Year, page #), e.g.: (Putnam 1990, 68). Multiple citations are separated by a semicolon: (Horgan 1988; Rorty 2003, 18).
For multiple authors, only list the first two authors, e.g.: (Heinz, Lao, et al. 2011, 582).
If the author of a source is anonymous, replace the author's surname with the title of the work, followed by the publication year.
Electronic sources are referenced in the same way with the exclusion of page numbers.
If the publication date is unknown, insert (n.d), which stands for no date. If the author is unknown, replace the author by the title as with other anonymous sources.

Format the list of References, which goes at the end of the article, correctly as follows below.

Set off quotations as block quotes with a blank line before and after the quotation.

Figures
Illustrations may be submitted as glossy photographs, slides, transparencies or electronic files and should be clearly marked. When necessary, crops, horizontal or vertical orientation, enlargement of details, etc. should be indicated on a photocopy of the original. The preferred format for electronic files is TIFF or EPS (for maps), but high-resolution JPG files may be submitted too. When supplied as electronic files, line drawings should have a minimum resolution of 600 dpi [dots per inch], preferably 1200 dpi. Photographs should have a minimum resolution of 300 dpi, preferably 600 dpi. Files should be the size of the original image or sized to the approximate size of reproduction. Illustrations, tables, and figures must be numbered consecutively (e.g. FIGURE 1, FIGURE 2, etc.) and include captions to give a description and to identify the source of any image or data. All figures and tables must be cited consecutively in the text. Number the files, and indicate in the manuscript where they are to appear, like this: (Fig. 1 here). The text in a figure must be legible, and should not be smaller than font size 10. The size of this lettering for any text in a figure should be the same for all figures in the manuscript. Authors are responsible for obtaining and paying for all copyright and reproduction charges. Illustrations and captions (including acknowledgements) should be placed at the very end of the contribution or sent separately.

Proofs
Upon acceptance, a PDF of the article proofs will be sent to each author/the designated author by e-mail to check carefully for factual and typographic errors. Authors are responsible for checking these proofs and are strongly urged to make use of the Comment & Markup toolbar to note their corrections directly on the proofs. At this stage in the production process only minor corrections are allowed. Authors’ alterations in excess of 10% of the original composition cost will be charged to authors. Proofs should be returned within one week of receipt.
