

Scope

A refereed journal with an international editorial and advisory board, the Shii Studies Review (SSR) provides a scholarly forum for research on Shiism. The journal publishes peer-reviewed original studies, critical editions of classical and pre-modern texts, and book reviews on Shii law, ḥadīth, Qurʾānic exegesis, philosophy, kalām, ritual and practices, classical and contemporary literature, political thought, and other aspects of the history of Shiism. It is dedicated to the study of Imami, Ismaili, Zaydi, and other trends in Shii thought throughout history. The goal of the Shii Studies Review is to contribute to the discovery, examination and reinterpretation of different intellectual traditions throughout the history of the Shia. Taking an expansive view of the richly variegated Shii traditions in both thought and practice and in their cultural and social contexts, the Shii Studies Review makes a distinctive contribution to current scholarship on Shiism and its integration into the broader field of Islamic studies. It actively endeavours to participate in the development of new scholarly approaches and problematics. The intellectual output of this journal is directed at serving the needs of researchers specializing in all fields of Shii studies.

Ethical and Legal Conditions

Please note that submission of an article for publication in any of Brill's journals implies that you have read and agreed to Brill's Ethical and Legal Conditions. The Ethical and Legal Conditions can be found here: brill.com/downloads/conditions.pdf.

Online Submission

SSR uses online submission only. Authors should submit their manuscript online via the Editorial Manager (EM) online submission system at: editorialmanager.com/SSRBRILL. First-time users of EM need to register first.

Prior to submission, authors are encouraged to read these 'Instructions for Authors' to ensure that the paper follows the journal style, as well as the EM instructions available by following the above link and clicking on the 'help' icon in the top left-hand menu on the page. Online submission considerably shortens overall publication time. When submitting via the website, you will be guided stepwise through the creation and uploading of the various files.

Please upload source files in word and not only pdf files. Any figure files should be uploaded separately, and should have high density of at least 300-600 dpi at a size suitable for printing.

The revised document is uploaded the same way as the initial submission. The system automatically generates an electronic (PDF) proof, which is then used for reviewing purposes. All correspondence, including the editor's request for revision and final decision, is sent by e-mail.

Double-blinded Peer Review

SSR uses a double-blind peer review system, which means that manuscript author(s) do not know who the reviewers are, and that reviewers do not know the names of the author(s). When you submit your article via Editorial Manager, you will be asked to submit a separate title page that includes the full title of the manuscript plus the names and complete contact details of all authors. This page will not be accessible to the referees. All other files (manuscript, figures, tables, etc.) should not contain any information concerning author names, institutions, etc. The names of these files and the document properties should also be anonymised.

File Format

Authors should make use of Unicode friendly fonts, Both Windows and Mac users are requested to use Unicode friendly fonts throughout and to save the source file of their manuscript with the extension: .doc, .docx or .rtf. The use of the Brill fonts is recommended (see brill.com/about/brill-fonts). The files should be submitted in both word format and as a PDF file.

Contact Address

For any questions or problems relating to your manuscript please contact the Editor, Sabine Schmidtke at: ssr@ias.edu. For eventual questions about Editorial Manager, authors can also contact the Brill EM Support Department at: em@brill.com.

Submission Requirements

All typescripts must be in their final form in all respects. The Editors will not submit any typescript to referees which they do not consider to be satisfactory.

Length

Articles should not exceed 10,000 words.

Language

All articles should be submitted in British English, French or German and the text should be grammatically sound. Articles in English must conform to the Oxford Style Guide (goo.gl/Jc56Gr) Authors should refer to the Oxford Dictionary on questions of spelling in English. If necessary, please enlist the help of a native English-/French-/German-speaking colleague prior to submission. The Editors will not submit any typescript to referees which they do not consider to be satisfactory. Typescripts should conform to the language conventions of spelling in the language used.

Transliteration

For Arabic, use the transliteration charts provided for Arabica: Journal of Arabic and Islamic Studies [English stylesheet] (brill.com/sites/default/files/ftp/authors\_instructions/ARAB.pdf). For Persian, use the Encyclopaedia Iranica transliteration chart (goo.gl/jFoZoF). Quotations of longer passages in languages written in non-Latin script should be given in the original script in Unicode font (unicode.org/resources/).

Manuscript Structure

General

Contributions should have as little formatting as possible. All formatting will be done by the typesetter. Obvious structures in the article should be clearly outlined with use of headers.

Abstract & Keywords

Articles should include a short abstract in English of no more than 150 words that clearly defines the thesis. Articles in French or German may include an additional abstract of the same length in the same language as the article. Also include 3-10 key words in English to identify the article.

Headings

Complex hierarchies of numbered or lettered headings in articles should be avoided unless essential for clarity.

Dates

BC, AD and AH follow the date. All Islamic dates should be given in the form 700/1300 (i.e. AH followed by AD). None of these abbreviations has full stops.

Italics

Italics must be indicated by using an italic font. Ensure that all diacritics and accents remain clear. Use italics for the titles of printed books and journals.

Quotations

Quotations longer than about three lines (30 words approx.) should be indented without quotation marks and will be set ultimately in smaller type. In footnotes, prose quotations, of whatever length, are run on within quotation marks. For quotations within text, use double quotation marks; single quotation marks should be reserved for quotes within quotes. When a quotation forms part of a longer sentence, include the full stop within the quotation only if it consists of a grammatically complete sentence. Otherwise, the full stop or comma follows the closing quotation mark. Words and quotations in italic transliteration or non-roman script do not need quotation marks. Any material added to a quotation, including [sic], should appear in square brackets. Sources of quotations should be given in footnotes.

Footnotes

All footnotes should be presented as double-spaced footnotes in the typescript. Footnote markers should be placed after any punctuation which appears at the end of the sentence, phrase or clause to which the footnote is attached.

Abbreviations

Do not use full stops in abbreviations which consist of sets of initials (GAL not G.A.L.). Other abbreviations (but not contractions – see below) should be followed by full stops. Retain full stops for initials in personal names: A.F.L. Beeston (without a space between the A. the F. and the L.). Apart from the rule that no space separates abbreviations of personal names, there should be a space after any abbreviation which is followed by a full stop: p. 63. General abbreviations should follow the Oxford English Dictionary. Use the following: c. (circa), ch./chs, ed./eds, frg./frgs, MS, n.d. (no date of publication), n.p. (no place of publication), n.s. (new series), o.s. (old series), v./vv., vol./vols. i.e. and e.g. should not be followed by a comma.

Capitalisation

Only book and article titles in English should have the main words capitalized. Titles in other languages must follow the normal practice for the particular language. Transliterated Arabic titles should be capitalized as follows: Kitāb (or K.) al- Buḥalā', Risāla ilā Walī l-'ahd, Manāqib al-imām Aḥmad b. Ḥanbal, al-'Umda fī maḥāsin al-šī'r wa-ādābihi, Iḥyā' 'ulūm al-dīn, Risālat al-Tawābi' wa-l-zawābi', Šarḥ al-Mufaṣṣal, Murūğ al--dahab.

Text Citation

Throughout the annotation, only abbreviated titles are given.

Use ibid. (in roman type) to refer to a single work cited in the note immediately preceding it. Do not use op. cit. or loc. cit. If applicable, idem, eadem or eidem may be used.

A frequently mentioned work may be cited parenthetically within the text.

Authors should ensure that bibliographic information supplied in the bibliography at the end of a contribution is complete and consistent.

A frequently mentioned work may be cited parenthetically within the text.

Online Material

Online material that is analogous to print material (such as articles published in online journals, magazines, or newspapers) should be cited similarly to their print counterparts, but with the addition of a URL (website address). For online or other electronic sources that do not have a direct print counterpart (such as an institutional website or a weblog), give as much information as you can in addition to the URL. Revision or access dates should be provided.

Manuscripts

All manuscripts should be identified with the following information: city, institution, collection, shelfmark, e.g., MS Oxford, Bodl. Marsh, ff. 3a-76b.

Scriptural References

References to Jewish or Christian scriptures should include book (in roman and usually abbreviated), chapter, and verse— never a page number. Do not abbreviate the book title in running text. It is essential to identify which version of the Christian Bible is being cited.

The Qurʾān is cited as follows: Qurʾān 19:17–21.

Figures

Digital versions should be scanned at least at 600 dpi and sent through as .tiff or jpeg file.

All images can be scanned in colour. Full colour publications in print will be charged to the author while colour online is free of charge. All illustrations, maps, photos and line drawings should be numbered clearly and should be referred to within the text.

Numbers

In general, spell out numbers one to one hundred, round numbers (hundreds, thousands, and millions), and any number beginning a sentence.

Publication

Proofs

Upon acceptance, a PDF of the article proofs will be sent to authors by e-mail to check carefully for factual and typographic errors. Authors are responsible for checking these proofs and are strongly urged to make use of the Comment & Markup toolbar to note their corrections directly on the proofs. At this stage in the production process only minor corrections are allowed. Alterations to the original manuscript at this stage will result in considerable delay in publication. Proofs should be returned promptly.

E-Offprints

A PDF file of the article will be supplied free of charge by the publisher to each author. Brill is a RoMEO green publisher. Authors are allowed to post their submitted (pre-peer-review) version of the article at any time. This is the author's own version that had not yet been peer-reviewed, or had any value added to it by Brill (such as formatting or copy editing). Authors may post the accepted (peer-reviewed) version of their article 12 months after publication. This is the version accepted for publication, which contains all revisions made after peer review and copy editing, but has not yet been typeset in the publisher's layout. The publisher's layout must not be used in any repository or on any website.

Consent to Publish

Transfer of Copyright

By submitting a manuscript, the author agrees that the copyright for the article is transferred to the publisher if and when the article is accepted for publication. For that purpose the author needs to sign the Consent to Publish form, which will be sent with the first proofs of the manuscript.

Open Access

Should the author wish to publish the article in Open Access he/she can choose the Brill Open option. This allows for non-exclusive Open Access publication under a Creative Commons license in exchange for an Article Publication Charge (APC), upon signing a special Brill Open Consent to Publish Form. More information on Brill Open can be found on brill.com/brillopen.
