Scope

Worldviews: Global Religions, Culture, and Ecology is an international academic journal that studies the relationships between religion, culture, and ecology worldwide. The journal addresses how cultural and ecological developments influence the world's major religions, giving rise to new forms of religious expression, and how in turn religious belief and cultural background can influence peoples' attitudes toward ecology.

Ethical and Legal Conditions

Please note that submission of an article for publication in any of Brill's journals implies that you have read and agreed to Brill's Ethical and Legal Conditions. The Ethical and Legal Conditions can be found here: brill.com/downloads/conditions.pdf.

Online Submission

Worldviews (WO) now uses online submission only. Authors should submit their manuscript online via the Editorial Manager (EM) online submission system at: editorialmanager.com/wo. First-time users of EM need to register first. Go to the website and click on the "Register Now" link in the login menu. Enter the information requested.

When you register, select e-mail as your preferred method of contact. Upon successful registration, you will receive an e-mail message containing your Username and Password. If you should forget your Username and Password, click on the "Send Username/Password" link in the login section, and enter your first name, last name and email address exactly as you had entered it when you registered. Your access codes will then be e-mailed to you.

Prior to submission, authors are encouraged to read the 'Instructions to Authors'. When submitting via the website, you will be guided stepwise through the creation and uploading of the various files.

A revised document is uploaded the same way as the initial submission. The system automatically generates an electronic (PDF) proof, which is then used for reviewing purposes. All correspondence, including the editor's request for revision and final decision, is sent by e-mail.

Double-blinded Peer Review

WO uses a double-blind peer review system, which means that manuscript author(s) do not know who the reviewers are, and that reviewers do not know the names of the author(s). When you submit your article via Editorial Manager, you will be asked to submit a separate title page which includes the full title of the manuscript plus the names and complete contact details of all authors. This page will not be accessible to the referees. All other files (manuscript, figures, tables, etc.) should not contain any information concerning author names, institutions, etc. The names of these files and the document properties should also be anonymized.

File Format

Please upload source files such as .doc, and not .pdf files.

Contact Address

For any questions or problems relating to your manuscript please contact:

Submission Requirements

Language

Submissions should be in English or accompanied by a draft English translation. Spelling should be consistent throughout.

Length

Papers should normally be a maximum of 8000 words.

Manuscript Structure

Text

The text of the article should be in Times New Roman 12. The first sentence of each paragraph should be indented. Please do not leave an extra line between paragraphs (except where the paragraph ends with an indented quotation).

Abstract and Keywords

An abstract of 100-150 words, and a list of four or five “keywords” should be provided for the use of abstracting services.

Headings

Headings should follow the pattern below:

Level 1: bold, flush left, 2 spaces above, 1 space below.

Level 2: bold italics, flush left, 1 space above, no space below.

Instructions for Authors

It is helpful if levels are marked by numbers in the text for the typesetter.

Inverted Commas/Quotations

Use double inverted commas for quotations run in the text and where you are putting a word in inverted commas for emphasis. Use single inverted commas for quotes within quotes. Please set off larger sections of quoted text (i.e., anything over 50 words) by adding a blank line above and below the section, and indenting the block of text by .5 on the left. These block quotes should be in 11 pt and should not be enclosed in quotation marks.

Footnotes

Footnotes should be numbered consecutively throughout the text: 1, 2, 3... and should be in single spacing. When using bibliographic citations in the notes, please conform to the style used in the body text; e.g. ...as was shown by Hardin (1968: 1244-6).

Bibliographic Citations

Bibliographic citations in the text should include the author's last name and the title or year of publication, together with a page reference, where appropriate. Please do not use 'p' and 'pp' for citations in the text: (Hardin 1968: 1244-6).

References

A separate list of references should be provided in alphabetical order of author's name and increasing dates of publications, with the addition of an 'a' or 'b' to the date, where necessary. Book and journal titles should be italicized; article and chapter titles in double inverted commas. Use 'p' or 'pp' before the page numbers only for references from books; exclude them when referring to journal page numbers. Please do not abbreviate journal titles. Add DOI whenever available.

Guidelines for Book Reviewers

Thank you for your contribution to Worldviews. Please follow these simple procedures to ensure that we receive your document in a standard format that is easy to edit and process. Book reviews should be submitted online via Editorial Manager.

- The length of the review should be 1,000-1200 words maximum. Please do not use endnotes or footnotes. If you refer to a book other than the one under review, please use parenthetical reference data. Reviews should be typed for submission to the editor on standard 8-1/2 x 11-inch paper, double-spaced, one-inch margins around. If you are printing from a word processor, please use letter quality printing. We prefer Microsoft Word, but can also accept texts in Word Perfect and Note Bene. Please clearly indicate which word processing program you used, along with the version (i.e., WordPerfect 6.0).
- We ask that 1/3 of the review be devoted to summary of the book; 1/3 devoted to the book's importance or how it advances an argument in the field; and 1/3 devoted to critical analysis.
- At the top of the review, please give the following information: Author/Editor(s). Title (including subtitle). City: Publisher, Year of Publication. Cover (HB or PB) Number of pages. Price. ISBN.
- At the end of the review, please provide the following information: Your name and the name of your university or institute and country.

Publication

Proofs

Upon acceptance, a PDF of the article proofs will be sent to authors by e-mail to check carefully for factual and typographic errors. Authors are responsible for checking these proofs and are strongly urged to make use of the Comment & Markup toolbar to note their corrections directly on the proofs. At this stage in the production process only minor corrections are allowed.

Alterations to the original manuscript at this stage will result in considerable delay in publication and, therefore, are not accepted unless charged to the author. Proof corrections should be returned within 4 working days to the Editor-in-Chief.

Instructions for Authors

E-Offprints

A PDF file of the article will be supplied free of charge by the publisher to authors for personal use. Brill is a RoMEO yellow publisher. The Author retains the right to self-archive the submitted (pre-peer-review) version of the article at any time. The submitted version of an article is the author's version that has not been peer-reviewed, nor had any value added to it by Brill (such as formatting or copy editing). The Author retains the right to self-archive the accepted (peer-reviewed) version after an embargo period of 12 months. The accepted version means the version which has been accepted for publication and contains all revisions made after peer reviewing and copy editing, but has not yet been typeset in the publisher's lay-out. The publisher's lay-out must not be used in any repository or on any website (brill.com/resources/authors/publishing-books-brill/self-archiving-rights).

Consent to Publish

Transfer of Copyright

By submitting a manuscript, the author agrees that the copyright for the article is transferred to the publisher if and when the article is accepted for publication. For that purpose the author needs to sign the Consent to Publish which will be sent with the first proofs of the manuscript.

This allows for non-exclusive Open Access publication under a Creative Commons license in exchange for an Article Publication Charge (APC), upon signing a special Brill Open Consent to Publish Form.
