The desire of the World Council of Churches to open a dialogue with Hindus, Buddhists, Jews and Muslims resulted in the 1971 Dialogue with People of Living Faiths and Ideologies (DFI) program. This program supports interreligious multi-lateral and bi-lateral dialogue with partners of different faiths. This collection details the various meetings at which such dialogues were organized.

This collection contains papers presented at the Ajaltoun Consultation in 1970, correspondence written by Stalnely J. Samartha and S.W. Ariarajah and various documents and papers related to Samartha’s study on “The Word of God and the Living Faiths of Men”.

Also included are various preparatory documents and press releases that describe the World Conference of Religions for peace and documents that provide information on the various Multifaith consultations, including the Christian-Hindu dialogue, the Christian-Muslim dialogue and the Christian-Buddhist dialogue.
The Encyclopaedia of Islam: An Anthology in Arabic Translation Online is the first official translation of the Encyclopaedia of Islam in Arabic. The Encyclopaedia of Islam is the globally respected and preeminent reference work in the field of Islamic Studies. It is the result of an academic enterprise that has been ongoing for over a century now. It brings together the efforts of the most important scholars in the field of Islamic Studies from all over the world. This version forms a welcome addition to the earlier versions of this important work in English, French, and German.

This anthology contains more than two hundred scholarly articles on a variety of topics connected Islam and Muslims, including religious, historical, and cultural matters. Two-thirds of the articles in this anthology originate from the Second Edition of the Encyclopaedia of Islam, one third stems from the Third Edition. It is a valuable tool for academic researchers and general readers alike. The articles can also be used as high quality teaching material. This translation is the result of a collaboration between Brill and the Tunis Institute for Translation, and is published in four volumes.
Published in Open Access with generous support from the Persian Heritage Foundation. This new online resource will make available all 6 volumes of Charles Ambrose Storey’s Persian Literature: A Bio-bibliographical Survey, including the new cumulative index volume. Explicitly intended as a counterpart to Carl Brockelmann’s Geschichte der Arabischen Litteratur, Storey’s Survey offers entries on Persian authors as well as their works, listing their manuscripts and editions.

The Survey originally consisted of 5 volumes (1.1; 1.2; 2; 3; and 4) but not all volumes were actually published. Volume 5 was published later by François de Blois. Based on Storey’s handwritten legacy preserved by the Royal Asiatic Society, Brill is now publishing the missing volumes, completing the Survey.

Content from volume 1.1 is now published online in Open Access. Content from other volumes will follow over the course of 2022. Print versions of the separately published volumes are available as well.

Natuurkundige Commissie Archives Online is a primary source collection. The collection title is derived from the committee sent out to explore the natural resources of Indonesia (the then Dutch East Indies) in the mid-19th century. The materials collected by the Natuurkundige Commissie voor Nederlandsch-Indië were archived at the museum that later became Naturalis Biodiversity Center in Leiden, The Netherlands. Thanks to Metamorfoze restoration and digitization project funded by the Royal Library of the Netherlands between 2007-2012, the archive is in good condition and almost entirely digitally available here.

The collection of the Natuurkundige Commissie Archives Online consist of three parts:
1. The Verhandelingen, three magnificently typeset and illustrated volumes in which the committee’s findings were published between 1839-1847
2. Over 1500 drawings and (often stunning) illustrations
3. Over 13,500 handwritten documents, such as field books, notes, shipping lists, and correspondence

Natuurkundige Commissie Archives Online is an invaluable resource for the history of science, natural history, biodiversity, history of colonialism. On behalf of Naturalis, Brill is proud to publish this collection in Open Access.
The Encyclopedia is also available in print.

Incorporating the work of numerous leading scholars, the Encyclopedia of Public International Law in Asia provides a detailed description of the practice and implementation of international law in various Asian states. The Encyclopedia covers the introduction of Western international law and the resulting shift from the older Asian order; the development of modern international law; and the impact that all of this has had on Asian states.

Offered online and in print as three geographically-organized volumes – Northeast Asia, Southeast Asia, and Central and South Asia – this reference work provides valuable information for all those interested in the historical development, implementation, and application of international law in Asia. Although there is general acknowledgement of the great variety of cultures among Asian countries, strong themes of familiarity, mutual understanding, coherence, and solidarity persists among them as a result of the numerous mutual cultural and religious contacts and interconnections that developed over the course of centuries. This examination of international law and its application in Asia reveals the shared history of the continent, as well as its unique development in each Asian state.
