

Brill Inside

Brill's Newsletter for Authors

Newsletter
2017, Spring Edition

Brill Acquires Schöningh & Fink

Brill recently acquired the German publishing houses of Ferdinand Schöningh and Wilhelm Fink, including the imprint Konstanz University Press. The publishing programs of Brill, Schöningh and Fink are highly complementary in subject matter. Brill's programs in History, Theology, Literature and Cultural Studies, Media Studies and Philosophy are strengthened by the programs of Schöningh and Fink, whose publishing list comprises of a catalogue of 5,500 books and over 300 new titles per year, as well as seven journals.

At this point, our author services and benefits are still separated and there are no immediate changes for you as a Brill author. For a complete title list and ordering information of Schöningh and Fink please visit www.schoeningh.de, www.fink.de and www.kup.de.

Open Access: The Journal of Interrupted Studies

In cooperation with Oxford University, we have launched The Journal of Interrupted Studies. The journal publishes complete and incomplete articles by scholars whose work has been jeopardized by forced migration. Founded in response to the European migrant crisis, the journal accepts submissions from authors fleeing a range of political, humanitarian and environmental situations. The journal is available in print and online in Open Access: brill.com/tjis.

Social Media: Brill on Instagram

Did you know that you can follow us on Instagram? Via @brillpublishing you will receive the best pictures from Leiden: from book covers to snap shots of our colleagues, from rare manuscripts to art memes. Join us now!

What does our ORCID membership mean for you?

Earlier this year, Brill has joined ORCID: the Open Researcher and Contributor ID, which is a code to uniquely identify scientific work, and academic authors and contributors: now that we're compliant, your Brill publication(s) will be linked to your ID, together with other publications, affiliations, name variations, and other relevant information to your ORCID record. More information: brill.com/ORCID

Uri Tadmor joins Brill as Publishing Director Asian Studies and Language & Linguistics

With our increased strategic focus on Asia and the growing publishing programs for Language & Linguistics and Literature & Cultural Studies, we have decided to split the Publishing Unit MIA, which comprises the academic fields in Islam Studies, Middle East Studies, African Studies, Asian Studies, Language & Linguistics, Literature & Cultural Studies.

As a result, Dr. Uri Tadmor has joined Brill in the capacity of Publishing Director Asian Studies and Language & Linguistics. Tadmor holds a PhD in Linguistics from the University of Hawaii, and worked in various academic positions for over 20 years. In 2010 he joined De Gruyter Mouton where he held the position of Editorial Director overseeing three editorial teams for Linguistics, Modern Languages and Asian Studies.

Author Services

In need of a copy-editor, translator, indexer or someone to help you apply for funding?

Go to authorservices.brill.com and find an expert in your field. Make the process of preparing and submitting a manuscript easier with Brill's suite of author services, provided by Peerwith.

Stay up-to-date with our latest news. Visit our social media channels overview and connect with us at brill.com/social-media

About Brill

Founded in 1683 in Leiden, the Netherlands, Brill is a leading international academic publisher in 20 main subject areas, including Middle East and Islamic Studies, Asian Studies, Classical Studies, History, Biblical and Religious Studies, Language & Linguistics, Biology, and International Law. With offices in Leiden (NL), Boston (US), Paderborn (GER) and Singapore (SG), Brill today publishes over 270 journals and close to 1,200 new books and reference works each year, available in both print and electronic form.

Brill also markets a large number of primary source research collections and databases. The company's key customers are academic and research institutions, libraries, and scholars. Brill is a publicly traded company and is listed on Euronext Amsterdam NV. For further information, please visit www.brill.com.

We sincerely thank you for being part of the Brill author community, and we hope you find these updates useful. If you have comments, questions, or suggestions for future issues, feel free to contact us at authors@brill.com.

Sincerely,
The Brill Marketing Team

BRILL