Brill presents its new Management Team

2018 is an eventful year for Brill – not only are we working on the implementation of three important take-overs (Schöningh & Fink and Mentis in Germany and Sense Publishers in the Netherlands), and a new website, as per May of this year we'll also have a new Management Team: In May, Peter Coebergh will be appointed CEO and Olivier de Vlam CFO and COO, following the scheduled retirement of Herman Pabbruwe that same month. As per January 1st, Jasmin

Lange has been appointed Chief Publishing Officer and member of the Management Team. Steven Perrick, Chairman of the Supervisory Board, commented: "We trust that through these appointments, Brill will be well positioned to continue its strategy to expand on its leading position in scholarly publishing. We look forward to a smooth transition period with ample time for a good handover".

More Brill Titles Awarded Choice Outstanding Academic Title

We are delighted to announce that six of our titles have been awarded Choice magazine's 2017 Outstanding Academic title. The awarded titles have been selected for their excellence in scholarship and presentation, the significance of their contribution to the field, and their value as an important— often the first— treatment of their subject. Choice is the journal of the American Library Association and the resource for those in higher education.

Our award winners:

A Handbook of the World's Conifers (2 vols.). Revised and Updated Edition by Aljos Farjon

The Dispersion, A History of the Word Diaspora by Stéphane Dufoix

Fire over Luoyang, A History of the Later Han Dynasty 23-220 AD

by Rafe de Crespigny

A Companion to Public Theology edited by Sebastian Kim and Katie Day

Cassius Dio: Greek Intellectual and Roman Politician edited by Carsten Hjort Lange and Jesper Majbom Maden

Marxism and Criminology, A History of Criminal Selectivity by

Valeria Vegh Weis
