

Brill's E-Books for Libraries

Product	Description	Coverage	Pricing model	Free MARC 21	DRM	License
Brill E-Book Collections	- Pre-packaged collection of titles by subject and copyright year - Special E-Book Collections	- Humanities and Social Sciences - International Law and Human and Humanitarian Rights - Biology	- Priced at 70% of price of same books in their printed format - Multiple purchase discounts available	Yes	No	OP
Brill E-Book Series	- All titles published within the series back to volume 1	- Brill's Studies in Intellectual History Online - Vetus Testamentum Online - Classical Companions - And many more!	- One-time fee for archive followed by (optional) annual instalment fee - Older titles are highly discounted compared to the printed version	Yes	No	OP
Brill Evidence Select	- Brill's evidence-based acquisition model (EBA)	- Brill E-Book Collections - Brill Special E-Book Collections - Brill E-Book Series	- 1:1 with print price - Access is set up for the period of the agreement against a predetermined budget - Usage reports are shared periodically - After the predetermined period, E-Books are acquired in perpetuity based on usage reports.	Yes	No	OP
Brill E-Book Select	- Brill's Pick & Choose model - Library choses titles à la carte	Depends on titles ordered	- 1:1 with print price - Download Order Form	Yes	No	OP
E-Book Vendors	Brill E-Books can be purchased and accessed through the following partners: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Cengage Learning (Questia) • Dawson (Dawsonera) • Ebooks.com • Ebsco (formerly NetLibrary) • Ingram Digital (MyLibrary) • Proquest (including EBL, ebrary) 	All Brill E-Books but selection of titles varies per vendor	- Vendor prices E-Book	Varies per vendor	Yes	Varies per vendor