

Brill confirms digital AGM on 25 June 2020; dividend proposal removed from agenda

Tomorrow, Brill will publish on its corporate website the convocation notice and agenda for the digital AGM, which will take place on Thursday 25 June, 2020.

Brill's Combined Meeting of the Supervisory Board and the Management Board resolved today to remove the 2019 ordinary dividend proposal from the agenda of the Annual General Meeting of Shareholders. The lockdown of university libraries and reduced operations in the print book distribution channel lead to persisting uncertainties in our markets.

Brill remains cautious as its first priority is to safeguard optimal strategic and financial flexibility during and after the Covid-19 pandemic.

Leiden, May 6, 2020

Peter Coebergh, Chief Executive Officer
coebergh@brill.com - +31 (0)6 53 57 83 25

About Brill

Founded in 1683 in Leiden, the Netherlands, Brill is a leading international academic publisher in Middle East and Islamic Studies, Asian Studies, Classical Studies, History, Biblical and Religious Studies, Language & Linguistics, Literature & Cultural Studies, Philosophy, Biology, Education, Social Sciences and International Law. With offices in Leiden (NL), Boston (US), Paderborn (GER), Singapore (SG) and Beijing (CN). Brill today publishes more than 300 journals and close to 1,400 new books and reference works each year, available in print and online. Brill also markets a large number of primary source research collections and databases. The company's key customers are academic and research institutions, libraries, and scholars. Brill is a publicly traded company and is listed on Euronext Amsterdam NV. For further information, please visit Brill.com.