

Brill CFO temporarily steps back due to illness

Much to our regret we have to announce that Olivier de Vlam temporarily steps back as CFO with immediate effect due to the return of a serious illness from which he had recovered in the summer of 2019. Wim Dikstaal, who replaced Olivier de Vlam during his previous period of absence, will again be appointed, with immediate effect, as interim CFO and interim member of the Management Team. Wim Dikstaal has worked at Wolters Kluwer in various senior financial roles among others as CFO of Wolters Kluwer Scandinavia. After his interim period with Brill, he joined the Dutch Air Traffic Control organization (LVNL) as interim manager in the capacity of head of corporate finance & contracting. This assignment ended in October 2020.

Leiden, November 3, 2020

Peter Coebergh, Chief Executive Officer

coebergh@brill.com - +31 (0)6 53 57 83 25

About Brill

Founded in 1683 in Leiden, the Netherlands, Brill is a leading international academic publisher in Middle East and Islamic Studies, Asian Studies, Classical Studies, History, Biblical and Religious Studies, Language & Linguistics, Literature & Cultural Studies, Philosophy, Biology, Education, Social Sciences and International Law. With offices in Leiden (NL), Boston (US), Paderborn (GER), Singapore (SG) and Beijing (CN). Brill today publishes more than 300 journals and close to 1,400 new books and reference works each year, available in print and online. Brill also markets a large number of primary source research collections and databases. The company's key customers are academic and research institutions, libraries, and scholars. Brill is a publicly traded company and is listed on Euronext Amsterdam NV. For further information, please visit brill.com.