Scope

The peer-reviewed journal Indo-European Linguistics (IEUL) is devoted to the study of the ancient and medieval Indo-European languages from the perspective of modern theoretical linguistics. It provides a venue for synchronic and diachronic linguistic studies of the Indo-European languages and the Indo-European family as a whole within any theoretically informed or analytical framework. It also welcomes typological investigations, especially those which make use of crosslinguistic data, including that from non-Indo-European languages, as well as research which draws upon the findings of language acquisition, cognitive science, variationist sociolinguistics, and language contact.

Open Access

Indo-European Linguistics is a fully Open Access journal, which means that all content will be freely accessible online. All articles will be published under a non-exclusive Open Access license in exchange for an Article Publication Charge (APC). This journal is fully sponsored by the University of California at Los Angeles (UCLA), therefore the APC is waived. The author(s) keep full copyright and give(s) Brill permission to publish by signing a special Brill Open Consent to Publish form. The Brill Open Consent to Publish form will be sent by the responsible desk editor. For more information on Brill Open go to: brill.com/brillopen or contact brillopen@brill.com.

Ethical and Legal Conditions

The publication of a manuscript in a peer-reviewed work is expected to follow standards of ethical behaviour for all parties involved in the act of publishing: authors, editors, and reviewers. Authors, editors, and reviewers should thoroughly acquaint themselves with Brill's publication ethics, which may be downloaded here: brill.com/page/ethics/publication-ethics-cope-compliance.

Online Submission

IEL now uses online submission only. Authors should submit their manuscript online via the Editorial Manager (EM) online submission system at: editorialmanager.com/ieul. First-time users of EM need to register first. Go to the website and click on the "Register Now" link in the login menu. Enter the information requested. During registration, you can fill in your username and password. If you should forget your Username and Password, click on the "send login details" link in the login section, and enter your e-mail address exactly as you entered it when you registered. Your access codes will then be e-mailed to you.
Prior to submission, authors are encouraged to read the 'Instructions for Authors'. When submitting via the website, you will be guided stepwise through the creation and uploading of the various files.

A revised document is uploaded the same way as the initial submission. The system automatically generates an electronic (PDF) proof, which is then used for reviewing purposes. All correspondence, including the editor's request for revision and final decision, is sent by e-mail.

Double-blinded Peer Review

IEL uses a double-blind peer review system, which means that manuscript author(s) do not know who the reviewers are, and that reviewers do not know the name(s) of the author(s). When you submit your article via Editorial Manager, you will be asked to submit a separate title page that includes the full title of the manuscript plus the names and complete contact details of all authors, the abstract, keywords, and any acknowledgement texts. This page will not be accessible to the referees. All other files (manuscript, figures, tables, etc.) should not contain any information concerning author names, institutions, etc. The names of these files and the document properties should also be anonymized.

Contact Address

For any questions or problems relating to your manuscript please contact the Editors at Ronald.Kim@yahoo.com or eska@vt.edu. For eventual questions about Editorial Manager, authors can also contact the Brill EM Support Department at: em@brill.com.

Submission Requirements

Language

Articles and book reviews should be written in English. Spelling (British or American) should be consistent throughout.

Unicode and Non-Roman Fonts

The Editors request the use of Unicode fonts only. Updated versions of Times New Roman in Microsoft Windows contain Greek Unicode fonts.  For the complete list of Latin and IPA characters in Unicode: brill.com/fileasset/downloads_static/static_fonts_latinipaunicodelist.pdf.

Transliteration and Orthography

Where possible, all examples from languages not using the Latin alphabet should be transliterated using an accepted system of transliteration. Authors should use their chosen system consistently throughout the manuscript.

Where no standard system has been adopted in the literature (e.g. examples of certain dialects never before described), use symbols to represent sounds that are as close to the IPA symbols as possible, and give explanations where appropriate.

Instructions for Authors

If a transliteration system is already in use in the literature, no new transliteration system invented by the author will be accepted. When using Greek, please check the information online at: brill.com/sites/default/files/special_scripts_handling_greek.pdf.

Length

Articles should not exceed 10.000 words for general and research articles or 1500-3000 words for book reviews. The following should be included: abstract (100 to 150 words), up to six keywords, affiliation details and e-mail address.

Manuscript Structure

General

Papers that are submitted for initial consideration should be complete, including all notes, bibliographical references, tables, etc.

The journal reserves the right to copy-edit contributions to conform to its style.

Authors should not use desktop publishing features such as justification, centering, or boldface type. Italics should be indicated by using proper italics. Do not hyphenate words at the end of a line. TAB should be restricted to a paragraph indent.

For general rules on style, see the Chicago Manual of Style, 16th ed., University of Chicago Press, 2010 (chicagomanualofstyle.org/home.html), or the most recent edition or the MLA Style Guide.

The final draft of a manuscript accepted for publication must be submitted both as hard copy and electronically. Electronic files should be saved in .pdf format. Final versions and printouts must be proofread carefully before submission; please use your spelling and grammar check.

Abstracts

Articles should include a short abstract (100-150 words).

Keywords

Please supply 2-6 keywords (in lowercase letters), to be placed below the abstract, for indexing purposes.

Glossing

Authors should preferably use Leipzig glossing rules. More information can be found at eva.mpg.de/lingua/resources/glossing-rules.php.

Publication

Proofs

Upon acceptance, a PDF of the article proofs will be sent to the author by e-mail to check carefully for factual and typographic errors. In the event of a multi-authored contribution, proofs are sent to the first-named author unless otherwise requested. Authors are responsible for checking these proofs and are strongly urged to make use of the Comment & Markup toolbar to note their corrections directly on the proofs.  At this stage in the production process only minor corrections are allowed. Alterations to the original manuscript at this stage will result in considerable delay in publication and, therefore, are not accepted unless charged to the author. Proofs should be returned promptly.

Consent to Publish

The author(s) keep full copyright and give Brill permission to publish by signing a special Brill Open Consent to Publish. The Brill Open Consent to Publish will be sent to you by the responsible desk-editor. For more information on Brill Open go to: brill.com/brillopen or contact brillopen@brill.com.
