Borach de Ixey, a Jew of Caltabellotta, lodges a notarial protest against Busacca Fadali, a Jew of Trapani. Busacca had sold him a slave girl, aged approximately six, for 10.15.0 ounces. The girl shows signs of sickness. He demands the return of his money.

Bibliography: Scandaliato, Schiavi di ebrei, p. 27; Id., Giudecca di Caltabellotta, p. VII.

Doyu de Panormo, a Jew of Caltabellotta, hires himself out to Iosep Daina, his fellow Jew, to work for him from April to October for 2.6.10 ounces, at the rate of 9.10 tari a month.

Settlement of a dispute between Nucho de Vaira and the brothers Sabatino and Sadia de Graciano, Jews of Caltabellotta, over a shop in the public square, which Nucho had bought from Muxa de Benedetto, alias Pirnichi, another Jew. The price had been six ounces. The brothers forego their claims.

Marco de Lu Vitano hires himself out to Borach Ixey, a Jew of Caltabellotta, for 4 ounces annually.
Sicily

Caltabellotta, 31 July 1464

Source: ASSc, Not. Amato Bellomo, reg. 19, c. 78r-v.

Iorgio de Lombardo hires himself out to David Daina, a Jew of Caltabellotta, to collect the tax on slaughtering meat and to cultivate his vineyard in return for 2.27.0 ounces [annually].

Caltabellotta, 26 August 1464

Source: ASSc, Not. Amato Bellomo, reg. 19, cc. 83v–84r.

Cristofalo de Lu Rizuto protests against Michele Tavurmina, a Jew of Sciacca, for having failed to supply him with more than the 10 salme of myrtle which Michele had sold him.

Caltabellotta, 11 October 1464

Source: ASSc, Not. Amato Bellomo, reg. 19, cc. 8v–9r.

Brachono de Cusintino, a Jew of Caltabellotta, and his son Nissim, hire themselves out to Manuele de Augusta, a Jew of Giuliana, in return for 15 tari.

Caltabellotta, 6 February 1465

Source: ASSc, Not. Amato Bellomo, reg. 19, cc. 32v–33v.

Nicolò de Fulco and Sabet Abate, a Jew of Sciacca, partners in a flock of sheep in the feud Lu Nardu, decide to divide the animals between them.

Caltabellotta, 22 October 1465

Source: ASSc, Not. Amato Bellomo, reg. 19, cc. 6r–7v.

Inventory of the estate of the late Borach de Ixe, a Jew of Caltabelotta. The list is drawn up at the behest of Vita Iubayra, guardian of Borach’s minor children: Mardochay, Minaya and Xona. The property consists of chattels, merchandise, such as cloth, hides and tools. There are also some Hebrew books, including: a Bible; a Mishna (mixine); Genesis; A tractate on ritual slaughter (scannari) by Rabi Alfes = R. Ishaq Alfasi; Halachot by the same author, bound with a book on marriage and altri causi per li donne; A commentary of the holidays;