NOTARIES OF RANDAZZO
Randazzo, 25 June 1445

Antonio Spagnuolo, a Messinese merchant, entrusts Benedetto de Amato, a Jew of Randazzo, with the sale of cloth of various types, such as Perpignan, Frisone, Belui, and so forth. They agree on the price list.

Randazzo, 28 November 1446

Source: ASC, Not. Manfredo Marotta, reg. 3, c. 34r.

Giordano Barbiere of Randazzo declares that he owes Nissim Quaraisima, a Jewish merchant of Randazzo, 4.22.10 ounces for cloth. Giordano had passed on the cloth to the captain of Randazzo [Pietro Spatafora]. He received the purchase price from the vicesecreto of Randazzo [Simone Russo] to be set off against his debt for the tax on food (maldenaru), which he had farmed the preceding year. Giordano promised to pay Nissim in instalments on agreed dates.

Note: The reg. is in a poor condition.

Randazzo, 30 August 1453

Source: ASC, Not. Manfredo Marotta, reg. 4, c. 41v.

Accord between Mose Rabbi, son of the late Gidilu, a Jew of Randazzo, a minor of about 15 years, with the consent of his elder brother Iose, his guardian, and Busaccone de Xalo, his fellow Jew, formerly his guardian by appointment of the court of the captain of the Jews. Busaccone had lent some cash belonging to Mose. The loan had been at an interest rate of 10%, condemned by divine law,