LIST OF CONTRIBUTORS

PIETER COERTZEN Professor of Church History and Church Law (1977–2010) University of Stellenbosch, South Africa. Currently, founder of a Unit for the Study of Law and Religion in the Faculty of Theology, University of Stellenbosch. Visiting Professor in Comparative Canon Law, Catholic University of Leuven. Publishes in the fields of Church Law, Law and Religion and the History of the Huguenots.

TAMÁS JUHÁSZ, PhD (1983) is Professor in Systematic Theology at the Protestant Theological Seminary in Cluj/Kolozsvár, Romania. He has published on the theology of reformed confessions and ecclesiology.

HUUB LEMS (1952), is treasurer of Eukumindo, a German Association for European Missions focusing on Indonesia. He serves as treasurer of the Protestant Church in the Netherlands and is administrator of the Mission Foundation of the Protestant Church in the Netherlands. He holds a master in economics from the Erasmus University Rotterdam (1977) and a master in laws from the Open University Maastricht (2005). He has published on mission, charity, philanthropy and ecumenism.

SILVIU EUGEN ROGOBETE joined the Diplomatic Corps of the Romanian Ministry of Foreign Affairs in October 2006. Prior to that he was an Associate Professor, Head of the Department of Politics at the West University of Timisoara, where he taught courses on Foundations and the Practice of Human Rights, Philosophical and Political Anthropology, Religion and Politics.

RIK TORFS (1956) studied law, canon law and Notary Public Studies at Leuven and Strasbourg University. Professor of canon law and Abraham van de Beek is professor in the Christian Creeds at VU University Amsterdam and extraordinary professor in Systematic Theology at the university of Stellenbosch. He is a member of the Royal Netherlands Academy of Arts and Humanities. He wrote on almost all topics of systematic theology with a focus on Christology and Patristics. He has also got a PhD in botany.

Eduardus Van der Borght PhD (2000) in Theology, Leiden University, is Desmond Tutu Professor and Associate Professor of Systematic Theology at VU University Amsterdam. He has published on theology of ministry, ecclesiology and public theology.

Tymen J. van der Ploeg (1947) studied Law at Leyden University. He works since November 1972 at the Faculty of Law of the VU-University at Amsterdam, since 1992 as full professor in civil law, especially law on legal persons and partnerships. He teaches company law, law on associations and foundations and—in cooperation with other legal and theological researchers—religious communities and law. His research includes these topics, also from a comparative perspective. He is editor-in-chief of the NTKR (Netherlands Journal on Church and Law) and a member of the board of the Centre on Church and Law at the VU-University.

Ben P. Vermeulen (1957) is Professor of Education law at the Radboud University Nijmegen, Professor of Constitutional Law at the Vrije Universiteit Amsterdam, and Member of the Council of State (Raad van State). He studied law and philosophy at the Erasmus University Rotterdam, where he defended his dissertation on the freedom of conscience (Vrijheid van geweten) in 1989. Vermeulen has published several books and numerous articles on the freedom of religion and conscience, the separation of church and state, the status of denominational schools and other related subjects.