So Joseph the Prophet, dwelt in the city called ‘Peace’ for many years; (1216) but one day the Creator informed him that death was near. Joseph gathered his sons, and told them that they must safeguard their faith.

About the same time Zuleikha passed away, and that filled the heart of Joseph with great sorrow. He stayed a widower, and looked at no other woman, but gave his attention to his sons.

Not long after that it was Joseph’s time to pass on from his children and his clan. He departed, and came to the meeting with his Creator and was shown the greatest mercy.

Then the children of Joseph, and his whole clan made lamentation. They prepared his body, and offered Jenaza Namaz.¹
