PART ONE

GENERALIA
CHAPTER ONE

MANUSCRIPTS, ARCHIVES, BIBLIOGRAPHIES, PRINTING

1.1. Manuscript Lists and Library Holdings

1.1.1. General

Continuation promised at end of last installment, but none could be found. Bio-bibliographical notes on thirteen Karaite works in manuscript. Includes transcription of a defense of Aaron ben Elijah’s Gan eden against Moses ben Jacob ha-Ashkenazi by Caleb Afendopol (pp. 122–24).

1.1.2. Manuscripts in Private Collections

Medieval

Lists bookseller’s catalogue from a 12th-cent. Genizah fragment. Includes several Karaite or anti-Karaite items. See pp. 57, 59, 61; see also p. 550 for reference to works by the Karaite Ne’eman.

4 SCHEIBER, Alexander.

Modern

Description of a manuscript miscellany which belonged to the Karaite Ne’eman in Eupatoria.

Lists a collection of manuscripts that were in possession of Crimean Karaites and are offered for sale. Includes 20 items.

10 JANSON, A. G. P. “Karaitic and Rashi Manuscripts Sold at Sotheby’s Auction, June 26, 1984, as Compared to the Holdings of the Leiden University Library.” Manuscripts of the Middle East 1 (1986): 76–85.

Lists 263 items. Includes index to MSS by repository library.

On added t.p.: The Jewish Library in the Middle Ages: Book Lists from the Cairo Genizah. See index, s.v. קראים.