

Index

- Accountability
 - judicial
 - community, to 10
 - independence, and 10–11
 - need for 11, 27
 - provision of 14
 - quest for 10–13
- Adulthood, developmental tasks 124
- Adult learners. See also Adult learning
 - activity-orientated 116
 - adult, definition 115–117
 - characteristics of 115–117
 - disposition to learn 107–108
 - goal-orientated 116
 - learning-orientated 116
- Adult learning. See also Adult learners
 - andragogy versus pedagogy 112–115
 - autonomy, importance of 133
 - barriers to 120–121
 - behaviourism 131–132
 - characteristics of 116
 - cognitive psychology 128–129
 - developmentalist approach 119
 - developmental theory 124–127
 - discipline of 112
 - educational evaluation models 213–217
 - experiential 129–131
 - facilitated 133–135
 - generalizations, validity of 114
 - humanism 127–128
 - judicial educators, observations
 - for 135–136
 - learning style inventory 129–131
 - means of 111–136
 - motivation 120
 - participation, reasons for 118
 - physiological aging, learning ability as
 - function of 122–124
 - principles of 111, 114, 135
 - problem-centred orientation 113, 114
 - theory, application of 112–121
- Andragogy
 - definition 115
 - educational evaluation model 216
 - pedagogy, versus 112–115
- Australia
 - educational needs analyses
 - Administrative Appeals tribunal,
 - of 94–101
 - conduct of 87
 - education usage, reasons for and
 - barriers against 90, 97
 - findings 83, 95–101
 - judicial officers in New South Wales,
 - of 87–93
 - new magistrates in New South Wales,
 - of 93–94
 - participation, underlying factors
 - influencing 95–97
 - preferred form of education 92,
 - 99–100
 - Registrars in New South Wales, of 101
 - stress and burn-out 92
 - superior court and appeal decisions,
 - supply of 92
 - usefulness of education
 - services 90–91
 - judicial education in
 - generally 18–19
 - New South Wales 19–21
 - policy 165–166
 - voluntary character of 181
 - judicial selection
 - appointment 62
 - approach to 50
 - consultation 65–68
 - merit, on 44–46
 - political considerations 55
 - qualification for appointment 49
 - need for judicial education,
 - recognition of 30, 37–38
- Bar, judicial selection from 52–53, 74
- Behaviourism
 - learning process, and 131–133
 - professional development, in 139–141
- Britain
 - continuing judicial education
 - in 15–17
 - judicial education policy 160

- Britain (cont.)
 judicial selection in appointment 60–61
 interim step 63
 merit, on 43
 qualification for appointment 49
 need for judicial education, recognition of 33
- Canada
 continuing judicial education in 17
 judicial education policy 169
 judicial selection in, political considerations 54
 need for judicial education, recognition of 38
- Cognitive psychology, learning, of 128–129
- Competence
 concept of 7–10
 definition 7
 judicial absence of 9
 assessment of 8–9
 meaning, duality of 8
 notion of 7
 review of 9
 standards of 169
 training for 167
 judicial selection, relationship with 65
 meaning 138
 professional 8
 concept of 46
 professional artistry 137–138
 threshold of 54
- Curriculum
 design 158
 development 191–192
- Development
 adult learning, theory of 118 judicial development, goal of 151
 professional. See Professional development
- Education
 meaning 114
 Tylerian model 131
- Educational evaluation
 action, relationship with 197 applied research method 197 attainment of objectives, discernment of 205–206 categorization of 201
 constraints on 212–213
 critique of 223–225
 definitions of 196–197
 environmental perspective, purposes from 201 fact and value, debate on 198 formative and summative 201–202 goal divergence 205
 ideological constraints 213
 impact 203–204
 importance of 202
 institutional accountability of individual learning, as 200–201 judicial education 204–206
 assessment of value 220
 domain of, in 204–206
 level of 217
 methodology
 assessment criteria 207
 constraints on 212–213
 formulations 207–208
 ideological constraints 213
 issues 210
 judicial education, for 210
 performance indicators 208–209 qualitative versus quantitative 210–212 models of action-planning approach 221
 adult education 215–217
 andragogy and collaborative 216 appropriate selection of 215 classic 215
 distinctive, development of 215 empirical participant reactive 218–219 intended behavioural change 221–223
 JERITT 221–223
 judicial education, for 217–218
 judicial systemic performance 225–227 participant/client appraisal 220 participatory 216
 process-based approach 219–220
 theoretical and practice 217–218