DETAILED TABLE OF CONTENTS

PART I
GENERAL INTRODUCTION

1. The issue addressed in this study ............................................................... 3
2. The objective of this study .......................................................................... 6
3. Relevance of this study ............................................................................... 8
   3.1 The question has never been addressed by the I.L.C. or by any international law scientific institution ............................ 8
   3.2 The doctrinal analysis is very limited and generally unsatisfactory ................................................................................ 11
4. Scope of this study ...................................................................................... 13
   4.1 Meaning of State succession .............................................................. 13
   4.2 Classification of the different types of succession of States ............ 15
   4.3 Fundamental principles of State responsibility in international law ....... 22
   4.4 The term “internationally wrongful act” should be used instead of “tort” ................................................................. 25
   4.5 This study does not deal with the regime of State responsibility for breaches of rules of State succession ................................. 27
   4.6 This study does not deal with the issue of “odious debts” and “war damage” between the predecessor State and the successor State ................................................................. 27
   4.7 This study does not deal with internationally wrongful acts committed by the predecessor State against its own nationals/corporations .......................................................................... 29

PART II
SUCCESSION OF STATES TO THE OBLIGATION TO REPAIR

- General introduction ...................................................................................... 33
CHAPTER 1
ANALYSIS OF DOCTRINE

Introduction ................................................................. 35
1. The doctrine of non-succession ........................................ 35
   1.1 General overview of the doctrine ............................. 35
   1.2 The arguments invoked in support of the doctrine .... 40
      a) A State is only responsible for its own internationally wrongful acts and not for those committed by other States .... 43
      b) Actio personalis moritur cum persona ......................... 46
2. Challenges and criticisms of the doctrine of non-succession .... 52

CHAPTER 2
ANALYSIS OF STATE PRACTICE AND CASE LAW

Introductory remarks on the doctrinal analysis of State practice .......... 59
Introductory remarks on the methodology used in this study ............ 61
1. Incorporation of State ................................................ 62
   1.1 Older examples of annexation of States support the principle of non-succession .............................................................. 63
      a) The unity of Italy (1860–1861) ................................. 65
      b) Burma (1886) ............................................................... 67
      c) Madagascar (1896) ....................................................... 69
      d) Boer Republic of South Africa (1902) ......................... 70
         i) State practice and case law ........................................ 71
         ii) The R.E. Brown case (1923) .................................. 73
      e) The Hawaiian Claims case (1925) in the context of the annexation of Hawaii by the United States (1898) ....... 78
   1.2 Modern State practice supports the principle of succession .... 83
      a) The integration of the German Democratic Republic into the Federal Republic of Germany (1990) ......................... 84
         i) Article 24(1) of the Treaty on the Establishment of German Unity ............................................................... 86
         ii) Restitution/compensation for expropriated property in the G.D.R. .............................................................. 87
         iii) The 1992 agreement for the settlement of property claims between the Federal Republic of Germany and the United States ...................................................... 91
2. Unification of States .................................................. 93
   2.1 State practice supports the principle of succession .......... 93
      a) United Arab Republic (1958) ...................................... 95
3. Dissolution of State ................................................... 98