INDEX OF SUBJECTS

absolutism, 213–214, 226–227 age heaping, 86–88, 88f agency, state, 208
agriculture
  Britain, 99, 237–238
    GDP share of, 237–238, 249 labour markets, 167–171, 169f technological improvement, 41–42
Alexander III (pope), 106n8
Amsterdam, 222
Antwerp, 96
apprenticeship system, 160–161, 165–167, 227–228 Austria
  manuscript production, 77t, 81t
  monasteries, 44t
  urbanization, 40t
Banten, 23
Belgium
  book demand, 195
  book production, 41, 88
    GDP per capita, 240–242, 241f literacy, 193f
  manuscript production, 77t, 79, 81t
  monasteries, 44t
  urbanization, 40t
Bengal, 23
Black Death (1348)
  and book production, 76–78 interest rates decline following, 25, 29–30, 162 and labour markets, 96 labour markets and marriage patterns following, 115, 121 Middle Eastern reaction to, 271–274 skill premium decline following, 162 Bohemia
  manuscript production, 77t, 81t
  monasteries, 44t
  urbanization, 40t
book production
  about, 40–41, 69–71, 88–91
  after printing press, 184 book as maturing innovation, 80–81 datasets and estimates, 71–75 demand, 84–85, 85f
  economic consequences of printing press, 178–187, 181f, 183f, 185f literacy increase, 190–195, 191f, 193t long-term patterns, 75–80, 79f manuscript production in absolute numbers, 77t and monasteries, 43–44, 82–84, 83f outside Europe, 187–190 per capita per annum, 81t prices, 180–182, 181f, 183f, 194–195 and printer skill premiums, 163–164, 164f social and economic roles, 186
Britain. See England
Buitenzorg, 23
Byzantine Empire, 66, 271
Calvinism, 137
canon law, 46, 47
capital markets, 131, 222–223 capitalism, and Christianity, 35
Carolingian Empire
  book production in, 70
  disintegration of, 33, 35, 43, 56
  urbanization, 39, 40t
Carreras, Albert, 240
Catholic Church. See Church, Catholic celibacy rates, 125–126
Central Europe
  frérèches in, 112
  manuscript production, 72, 77t, 79f, 81t patriarchy, 297
  second serfdom in, 273n2, 293 skill premiums, 148, 154f, 155f, 156 stagnancy 1500–1800, 292
Charlemagne, 33
Charles V, 224
child welfare, 133–134
China
  book production, 188–189
  child welfare in, 133–134 economically surpassed by Europe, 32 guild system in, 165–166 interest rates, 22, 23–24 labour market, 117, 119, 140n62 literacy and economic growth, 199 market integration, 26, 27f migration patterns, 108, 123, 128–129 Ming period, 33, 117
nominal construction wages 1769, 174t printing economics, 179–180 Qing period, 29, 33, 165–166, 188–189 skill premium, 172, 172f, 173f skill premiums, 158–159 Sung period, 32
women and labour markets, 141n62
Christianity, as normative system, 35.
See also Church, Catholic Church, Catholic, 294–295 and book production, 82–84, 83f, 89 and Carolingian Empire, 43 and fragmented political and legal structures, 49–50
institutional framework of, 35, 66 and marriage patterns, 105–110, 137 monastery growth, 43–44, 44t, 56
"Peace of God" movement, 45, 50 ‘top-down’ pacification by, 36
vs. kin groups, 59
citizenship, 295–296
about, 205–213
case study of Dutch Republic, 215–226
in pre-revolutionary England, 226–230 public goods, 224–226
taxation and economic development, 213–215 taxation base, 217–224
city-states
citizenship, 209–212
Dutch Republic case study, 215–226 leagues, 212
Clark, Alice, 135n56
Cluny reform, 43, 84
commerce, and state formation, 230–232, 263 commons, 17
communal movement, 294
in Arab world, 62
development of, 50–53
and development of market economy, 53–55 endures in early Modern period, 57–58 construction workers return on human capital of, 160–165 skill premium in Europe 1300–1914, 153–157, 154f, 155t skill premium in mid-20th cent., 151–153, 152f skill premium outside Europe 1300–1914, 157–159, 158f wages 1769, 174t, 280f, 283t Cordoba, 39, 40t
Coromandel, 23
corporate bodies (universitates), 52–55, 294 Counter Reformation, and marriage patterns, 136–137
craft guilds, 53–54
cultural homogeneity, 55
de la Court van der Voort, Pieter, 223 debt, public, 210, 221–224 Decretals of Gregory IX, 106 democratic institutions, 296–297 Domesday Book, 236
dowries, 110–114
Dutch East India Company, 225
Dutch Republic, 215–226
early modern period economic consequences of printing press, 178–187, 181f, 183f, 185f human capital formation, 148f institutional similarities to Middle Ages, 57–58
literacy increase, 190–195, 191f, 193t
skill premiums, 153–157, 154f, 155t
East India Company, 23
Eastern Europe
agricultural wages, 168 human capital formation in, 148 marriage patterns, 104, 127
skill premiums, 153–157, 154f, 155t, 167
stagnation, 240
economic growth, modern, 294
in China, 275–282, 280f citizenship and taxation, 213–215 emergence of modern economic growth, 234–236, 256–266, 258f in England 1086–1688, 235–239, 237t
in England 1500–1800, 251–256, 252f, 254f, 255f
in Europe 1000–1800, 239–243, 241f