THE ELUSIVE PRO-ARBITRATION PRIORITY IN CONTEMPORARY COURT SCRUTINY OF ARBITRAL AWARDS

by

TIBOR VÁRADY
CONTENTS

Biographical Note 346

List of Principal Publications 348
A. Selected Books 348
   A.1. In English 348
   A.2. In Serbo-Croatian 348
   A.3. In Hungarian 349
B. Selected Articles 349
   B.1. In English, French and German 349
   B.2. In Other Languages 352

I. Introduction 353

II. The Impact of Party Autonomy on the Scope of Court Scrutiny of Arbitral Awards 362
A. Introductory Remarks 362
B. Contractual Restriction of Judicial Review 363
   B.1. Contractual Restriction of Court Review based on Explicit Legislative Provisions 363
   B.2. Contractual Restriction of Judicial Review in the Absence of Explicit Legislative Provisions 368
C. Extension of Judicial Control by Party Agreement? 370
   C.1. A Case which Prompted Wide Attention 370
   C.2. Some Other U.S. Cases 376
   C.3. The Implications of Recognizing or not Recognizing Stipulations on Expanded Judicial Review 381
      C.3.1. Hypothesis a): Party agreement on expanded judicial review is disregarded 381
      C.3.2. Hypothesis b): Party agreement on expanded judicial review is observed 389
      C.3.3. Concluding remarks 393

III. Flexibility, Relevance, and Waiver as Points of Reliance 394
A. Introduction 394
B. The Issue of Relevance 398
   B.1. Should Relevance be Relevant? 398
   B.2. Translation and the Issue of Relevance 403
C. The Question of Waiver 407