PART 2

Online Service Encounters
Introduction to Part 2

Part 2 focuses on online or remote SES, which have increased enormously in the last decade. The main characteristics of these interactions in which communication is not face-to-face will be outlined, paying special attention to the importance of customers’ perception of electronic commerce, relational work in e-commerce and not-for-profit organizations’ online communication.