Volume 8, Number 1 (2008)
Aries, Journal for the Study of Western Esotericism

Aries is edited under the auspices of the European Society for the Study of Western Esotericism (ESSWE).

Aims & Scope

Aries welcomes articles and book reviews on all aspects of the study of esoteric currents in modern and contemporary western culture. Contributions focusing on earlier periods (antiquity, middle ages) will be considered if clearly relevant to the study of modern and contemporary western esotericism. “Western esotericism” is understood as including the revival of hermeticism and the so-called “sacred philosophy” in the early modern period as well as its later developments; alchemy, paracelsianism and rosicrucianism; Jewish and Christian kabbalah and its later developments; theosophical and illuminist currents; and various occultist and related developments during the 19th through the 21st century up and including popular contemporary currents such as New Age spiritualities. Aries concentrates on historical rather than sociological research, but encourages interdisciplinary approaches including the use of social-science methodologies within a historical framework. While critical scholarship is very welcome, Aries is not a podium for religious or ideological apologetics or polemics. The opinions expressed by authors in Aries are their own and do not necessarily reflect those of the Editors.

Aries publishes articles and book reviews in English, French, German and Italian.
